

THE TEMPLE CUP SERIES.

THE ORIOLES CAME OUT AHEAD BY GOOD HITTING.

Corbett Though Hit Hard Held the Reins Enters Down at Critical Points.

Herman Long a Star.

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—The second game of the Temple Cup series was, like the first, distinguished by terrific batting by both sides, but the Baltimore came out ahead through their ability to get in the hits when they were most needed, while Corbett, though hit hard, held the home team down at critical times.

The home team was very much in it until the last inning, when they fell down. No ground rules hindered long hits and the players getting the full worth of their drives, ran the bases daringly, without fear of being called back on account of the growing darkness.

A SHINING STAR. The shining star of the champion aggregations was Herman Long, the short stop of the home team. His stops were terrific and it is safe to say that such work has never been excelled. One ball from Doyle's bat he picked up twenty feet behind second base and threw the runner, while McGraw hit another one nearly in the same place, and met a like fate.

Low Baltimore Stenzel's covering of center field was a notable feature. Nine Boston players were retired on flies in that direction, and not one was dropped. The hitting, while Hamilton came in with a clean score, his base running being of the finest description.

Low Baltimore's base on Klobedanz in the first inning and kept it up to the fifth, when two bases on balls and a hit were followed by a home run by Reitz, which brought the visitors managed to win without difficulty.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger. Hits after that came in in necessary moments, but the visitors managed to win without difficulty.

CHARGE OF PITCHERS. Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

Corbett, while wild, at times proved a stumbling block, and in the fourth inning, when six runs came over the plate. Five of them were earned. Corbett, however, pulled himself together and, barring the seventh, held the home team down in good shape.

Then Kloby came out and Stivets went in, but the change did not seem to mend matters, for Clarke batted the first ball pitched over the fence for the second home run, and Corbett followed with a two-bagger.

COMING BELMONT RACES.

The Trial of Bell Barnett for the Murder of Sinclair Graves.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—The fall meet of the Belmont race club will take place at Belmont race track on Tuesday, October 19th. The programme is quite elaborate; many noted horses are expected from a distance, and great preparations are being made.

The case of Bell Barnett, charged with being implicated in the Raged Mountains, commenced in the county court, this morning. The court has been engaged in hearing witnesses for the case, and the indication is that the case will be tried on the 19th. Several prominent Elks of the State are expected here on that date.

BURGOLARS AT FANLUIN.

They Steal the Tools with Which to Open Stores.—The Drouth.

PAMPLIN CITY, Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—The store of R. D. Baldwin was opened some time about midnight Saturday, and a small amount of money together with some provisions stolen. The crackmen made an ineffectual attempt to open the safe, which defied their efforts.

They also attempted to force an entrance into the store of W. D. Thornton, but they were unable to break the fastenings. They broke into the blacksmith shops and stole the tools with which they effected in part their work.

The weather is very dry in this section, many of the streams have been dried up entirely and the mills are idle.

DECLINE TO NOMINATE.

The Republicans of Middlesex and Essex Will Support an Independent.

STORMONT, Va., October 5.—Special.—The Republican convention of the counties of Middlesex and Essex was held at Saluda to-day to consider the matter of nominating a candidate to the next House.

The convention endorsed the action of the State Committee at Lynchburg in depositing Colonel Lamb and electing Park Agnew as State chairman, but declined to make a nomination.

Mr. W. M. Minter, an independent candidate, has declared himself in favor of a fair election, and while the Republicans may not endorse his general political course, many commend him for this one feature.

DEATH OF JUDGE ORGAIN'S NIECE.

Her Only Brother Came to Richmond, but Cannot be Heard From.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—Miss Annie C. Orgain, of Roanoke, aged twenty-one years, died yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, after an illness of a few days. She was niece of Judge Orgain, and her remains will be interred in the Orgain family burying ground in Lunenburg county, to-day.

Her only brother, John T. Morris, is thought to be travelling for some firm in Richmond. A half dozen telegrams sent to that city yesterday failed to reach him, and up to this time has failed to send his address to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Morris, of Roanoke, who are most anxious to know where he is.

BY ONE VOTE.

Allen Gargot Nominated Over Dr. J. M. Smith at Martinsville.

MARTINSVILLE, Va., October 5.—Special.—The Henry County Democratic Convention in session here to-day adopted the platform of the Roanoke convention and a resolution to make the nominee abide the platform of the convention and support its nominees.

There were two names put in nomination—Dr. J. M. Smith and Allen Gargot. Gargot was nominated, beating Smith one vote.

DR. CUNNINGHAM ILL.

The Distinguished Educator in Extremis With Meningitis.

FARMVILLE, Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—Dr. John A. Cunningham, president of the State Normal School, is very ill with meningitis. There is little hope entertained by his physician for his recovery. He was taken sick at Richmond, Va., to-day at 10 o'clock, and is now in bed.

This morning he lost consciousness, and his physician has been in close attendance at his bedside.

MAJORINE NOMINATED.

The Republican State Committee's Action Endorsed by the Fairfax Convention.

FAIRFAX C. H., Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—The Fairfax county convention met to-day and endorsed the action of the State Committee in not calling a State convention.

The Schools of Crews.

CREWE, Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—The public schools of this district were opened yesterday. The five teachers of the Crew school were in place. The school is in charge of Miss Kate Kerr, first assistant; Miss Sallie Kerr, of Burkeville, second assistant; Miss M. L. Lewis, of South Carolina, third assistant; Miss Zou B. Hardy, of Blackstone, fourth assistant. About two hundred and fifty pupils were present the first day, and a large number of others will apply for admission during the week.

It is feared that all who will apply cannot be received. The seating capacity of the new school building is only two hundred and forty, but the principal thinks he can accommodate two hundred and seventy-five by dividing the time among the smaller children, allowing some to attend in the morning and the others in the afternoon.

KENTUCKY FUTURITY.

Contest for the Fifteen Thousand Stakes Hotly Contested.

Preston Trotted the Fastest Quarter Ever Recorded in Kentucky, but Thorne Wins the Race.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 5.—The twenty-fifth annual meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse-Breeders' Association began to-day under splendid auspices. The crowd was large, every State being represented by leading breeders and track managers. The track was good without being especially fast.

The $15,000 Kentucky Futurity, for three-year-olds, was hotly contested in every heat except the first. Bumps had an easy thing in the 2:09 pacing race, although Ananias and Planet forced him to go three times at 2:07 and 2:07.

Little Edgar won the 2:10 class trotting in hollow style in straight heats. Both Bumps and Little Edgar were outside. The judges were President P. P. Johnson, S. T. Harrison, of Lexington, and William Russell Allen, of Pittsburg, Mass. Frank Walker, of Cassin, starter.

THE FUTURITY. The eight trotters were called for the Futurity at 2:40 o'clock. Timbre and Little Edgar were outside. They were sent off on the first race, and Kenney took China Silk to the front at once, closely followed by Little Edgar. She kept the lead all the way, and won the heat easily in 2:19, with Miss Della Fox second and Preston third.

In the next heat Little Edgar again took the lead and kept it into the stretch, where Preston came with a rush, and, trotting like a champion, won the heat, with Little Edgar second, and China Silk third. The fastest heat ever trotted in this State.

In the third heat the Montana mare went to the front at the start, but the turn Hickok took Thorne up to second place, thereby putting Preston in a pocket, from which he was unable to get out until the far turn. He came fast through the stretch, and won in a hard drive from Thorne, with China Silk third.

FACTOR FOR THE TALENT.

The fourth heat was a facer for the talent, as Thorne won by a head in 2:14 from Preston, who was in 2:15, and Little Edgar in 2:16.

In the fifth heat Fuller started in 2:14, but Preston won by a head in 2:15, and Little Edgar in 2:16. Only the three heat-winners started in the sixth, and Thorne led all the way (and won handily by a head) in 2:14, his favorite before, and after the first heat.

After Preston had won two heats he became first in the fourth, and Thorne had the fourth heat. Summary: Kentucky Futurity, value, $15,000; for three-year-olds, with and sixth heats and race. Time, 2:14, 2:15, 2:16, 2:14, 2:15, 2:16.

THE ZOO ZOO.

Alleviate Wins the Two Year Stake in Impressive Style.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 5.—The Zoo Zoo, the first two-year-old stake of the meeting was run in a decisive style from a big field. Gazelle, the 2 to 5 favorite was pulled up at the start and finished last.

Alleviate was well played at 16 to 5. She got away in seventh place and easily ran around her field, winning by half a length from Lillian Bell. Alleviate is the property of W. F. Shulte, president of the Louisville Jockey Club. She has started three times and won all her races. Weather cloudy, track fast.

Secretary Hopps, of the American Turf Committee, to-day in reply to telegrams from horsemen from Windsor, states that horses were about to be cut down by the Windsor Association from $30 to $25 wired back that this was against the rule recently passed by the American Turf Association, and that the track would become outlawed.

The idea was to hang up $300 purses but deduct $45 for stable room before paying the purses. This was considered a drastic evasion of the rule and will not be tolerated by the Turf Congress. Summary: First race—seven furlongs—Rockwell (6 to 1) first, Elano (9 to 2) and 3 to 2 second, Cyclone (3 to 2) third. Time—1:15 1-2.

Second race—five and a half furlongs—Dr. Black (9 to 5) first; Jacknape, (11 to 5) and 4 to 5 second; Our Chance (5 to 2) third. Time—1:38 1-4.

Third race—mile and a sixteenth—Kittie B. (10 to 1) first; Pennock Maker (5 to 1) second; Alamo (1 to 3) third. Time—1:50 1-2.

Fourth race—Zoo Zoo stakes—six and a half furlongs—Alleviate (6 to 1) first, Lillian Bell (7 to 2) and 5 to 5 second; Eight Bells (4 to 1) third. Time—1:15 1-2.

Fifth race—mile—J. H. C. (7 to 10) first, Nick Carter (11 to 2) and 5 to 2 second, Truxillo (9 to 5) third. Time—1:47 1-2.

Eton Jacket also ran. Time—1:47 1-2. Sixth race—six furlongs—Turtle Dove (4 to 1) first, Brighton (7 to 1) and 1 to 1 second; Pouting (5 to 1) third. Time—1:15 1-2.

The Aqueduct Track.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Fine weather marked the second day at Aqueduct and the card was good. Attendance large. Summary: First race—about seven furlongs—Preston (1 to 4) first, Warrenton (5 to 1) and 1 to 10 second, Hand Press (30 to 1) third. Time—1:26.

Second race—one mile—Perseus (4 to 1) first, Marshall (7 to 1) and 5 to 2 second, Myrtle Harkness (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:42 1-2.

Third race—six furlongs—Waterman (5 to 1) first, Break-o-Day (4 to 1) and 8 to 5 second, Heroine (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:15 1-2.

Fourth race—five furlongs—Maud Ellis (2 to 1) first, Bardilla (3 to 1) and 10 to 1 second, Zella (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:21 1-2.

THE RACES AT NORFOLK.

The Three-Minute Trot Was a Hotly-Contested Event.

Three Races Scheduled, but One Finished. Wilfred Broke and Lost His Chances for the 2:24 Trot.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—The Norfolk Driving Club began its annual fall meet to-day in connection with the fair. The races were scheduled, but only one was finished. The first was the three-minute trot for a stake of $1,000 and it was the hottest, most vigorously contested ever witnessed here.

There were only seven entries, but in all the long six heats the greatest difficulty was experienced in starting the horses. At the first Othello was a 10 to 5 favorite against the field and he remained in the betting until the end. The six heat was run between the three heat winners and was undecided. A glance at the summary will tell the story. It was won by FRED BROKE.

looked as though Bruce's fourteen-year-old Wilfred would have a look in for the money in the second race, the 2:24 trot for a purse of $500, as he took the first heat in the pretty time of 2:21 1-2 with Othello a bad second, but in the second heat the Suffolk horse broke under the wire and raced twice around thus effectually nipping his chances in the bud, for he was distanced for running.

Pearl J. took the heat and the two following it in great style winning the race and first money. Hazel took second money, Bursar third and Maud fourth.

But one heat of the third race was run, darkness coming on. Between the second and third heats of the first race, Earthquake Pilot paced a mile unharnessed and undriven in 2:18. THE RACES AT NORFOLK.

The summary follows: 3:30 trot (unharnessed) stake $100. Othello bg, by George Simmonds, J. J. Rogon, Chester, Pa. (owner)..... 2 6 1 2 3 1 Hulmar, m. by George Simmonds, master, W. G. Bryan, Richmond, Va. (Bryans)..... 3 2 6 1 1 2 Guy Briggs, bk. gy. Norfolk, Delphia, (Myers)..... 1 1 2 4 5 Germa, Daniel A. Leonard, Baltimore (owner)..... 6 2 3 3 2 Eddy, m. by George Simmonds, Stables, Norfolk, Va. (Murphy)..... 5 5 5 6 4 Sisterina, br. m. J. C. Walton, Redville, N. C. (Smith)..... 4 4 4 6 4

2:24 trot, stake $500. Pearl J. bm, by Acollite, Greater, Pittsburg Stock Farm, (Rapp)..... 2 1 1 1 Hazel, blk. m. F. M. Rice, Baltimore, (P. B. Briggs Bursar, br. g. Fashion Lawn Stud Farm, Jamesville, Va. (James)..... 5 4 4 2 Maud H. bk. m. Storer & Co., Harrison, Pa. (owner)..... 4 3 3 5 Blackfield, blk. h. Hanon & Kelly, Norfolk, Va. (Storer)..... 8 9 2 5 J. R. bg, J. R. Bull, Bob Deary, (Hanson)..... 4 5 4 2 Georgia Gallop, m. Cottage Stables, Norfolk, Va. (Murphy)..... 7 6 9 6 Minnie Rysdyk, br. m. Maple Croft Farm, King of Prussia, Pa. (Leahy)..... 1 6 7 6 8 Wilfred, m. by George W. Brown, Suffolk, Va. (Time—2:21 1-2, 2:23 1-4, 2:23 1-4, 2:22 1-4, 2:15 class (unharnessed) purse $50.

Grace C. b. m. by Judge Rice, Frank W. Bittling, Shilertington, Pa. (owner)..... 2 Mollie Barron, ch. m. L. Perrin, Pittsburg, Pa. (owner)..... 2 Princess M. br. m. Maple Croft Farm, King of Prussia, Pa. (Leahy)..... 2 Deary, m. by George W. Brown, Suffolk, Va. (Time—2:15.

AN EARLY MORNING MARRIAGE. Miss Ruth O. Owens becomes the Bride of Samuel T. Dickinson. NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—At 6:30 o'clock this morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Owens, a happy and accomplished daughter, Miss Ruth O. Owens, to Mr. Samuel T. Dickinson, Jr., of Norfolk, was celebrated with impressive ceremony by Rev. L. B. Betty.

The ceremony was performed in the north parlor, the bride entering with her father, after which the groom completed his best man, Mr. C. E. Dickinson, his brother, beneath the bridal arch, where they were united in holy wedlock.

The bride was attired in a tailor made gown of dark blue cloth. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson were driven to Chesapeake and Ohio depot, where they left for an extensive western tour.

The evening before the marriage a reception was given in the bride's honor by her parents at their residence, from 3 until 10 o'clock.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with flowers and potted plants, while during the reception a band of music from the streets of Norfolk, played the strains of sweet music from the orchestra placed there for the occasion.

The bride and groom-elect stood in the bay window of the front parlor, where they received the best wishes of their friends. She was charmingly beautiful in her reception gown of white silk and mousseline de soie, with diamonds, the gift of the groom.

Assisting at the reception were the Misses Owens, sisters of the bride, Miss Julia Chandler, of Bowling Green, Miss Bethel Gandy, of Halifax, N. C., Miss R. H. of Norfolk; Messrs. Charles and Robert Dickinson, of Caroline county, Va.; Mr. Frank Dickinson, of Richmond; Mr. H. C. Norman, of Norfolk; and Mr. Samuel P. Pedrick, and Mr. Thos. Ridley, of Portsmouth, and Mr. Vernon M. Smith, of Norfolk.

RAILROAD FIGHT.

The Ryan Syndicate Severe Injunctions Against the Seaboard Pool.

NORFOLK, Va., October 5.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company was held in Portsmouth at 10 o'clock, with a very large attendance. Some excitement was occasioned when it became known that the Ryan syndicate, which is endeavoring to secure control of the road, was in attendance.

Some excitement was occasioned when it became known that the Ryan syndicate, which is endeavoring to secure control of the road, was in attendance. The Ryan syndicate, which is endeavoring to secure control of the road, was in attendance.

The Ryan syndicate, which is endeavoring to secure control of the road, was in attendance. The Ryan syndicate, which is endeavoring to secure control of the road, was in attendance.

Charged With Forgery.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 5.—Special.—C. M. Roberts, a well known local banker, was today the grand jury of the Corporation Court on a charge of forging the name of W. A. Hatcher to a fifty-dollar draft on H. A. Higginbotham, of Tazewell.

Roberts has been in Maryland for several days. He was a candidate for Democratic nomination for the Legislature at the election, but was defeated by Captain Featherstone.

As was stated at to-day's meeting the Seaboard road would be sold to the State. The election remains in statu quo until after the adjournment this evening.

Cotton Ship on Fire.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 5.—The iron steamship Mayfield, Captain Edward S. Rock of from Charleston, S. C., to Liverpool, Eng., arrived in port yesterday with her cargo of cotton on fire. The matter

SEVERAL SMALL FIRES.

The Department Kept Busy Tuesday.

Between Six o'Clock P. M. and One A. M. Four Alarms Were Turned In, but No Serious Damage Resulted.

There were five alarms of fire last evening and night. All the apparatus, except engine No. 8, located in Fulton, was called out on one or the other of the alarms.

THE FIRST FIRE.

The first alarm came from box No. 15, corner of Cary and First streets, at 6 o'clock and, the firemen responding promptly, extinguished the small blaze which had started in the wood box in the kitchen of Dr. J. C. Deane's residence, No. 100 east Cary street, and without the necessity of a hose stream. There was no damage, the fire being confined to the wood box.

The residence belongs to the J. C. Deaton estate and is occupied by Dr. J. C. Deaton and sisters.

A SMALL BLAZE.

A fire alarm was turned in about 11 P. M. from box 58, corner Twenty-ninth and O streets. A fire had been caused in a shanty occupied by negroes on Thirty-first and O streets, but it was extinguished before steamer No. 1, of the engine house on Twenty-fifth near Broad street, had an opportunity to turn out on the job. The damages do not exceed $15.

At 11:25 the department was called to No. 104 Park avenue to the residence of Mr. Plighton. A young man dropped a piece of lighted paper on a sofa causing a blaze that did some $10 or $15 damage. Mr. G. J. Hunt owns the house.

THE LAST FIRE.

At 2:45 o'clock this morning the fifth alarm was turned in, this time from the Second Police Station, caused by a fire over Charles Hutzier's saloon on Sixth street between Broad and Marshall. The blaze was a bright one and created considerable excitement in the neighborhood for a time but was quickly extinguished. The room in which the fire started was unoccupied, except that occasionally a small sleeper there. The damage was negligible.

PICTURES FOR LEE CAMP HALL.

Those of the Late Peyton Wigg and Gen. M. C. Butler.

A meeting of the Portraits Committee of Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held at the Lee Camp Hall, on Monday evening, for the purpose of selecting the portraits to be placed in the hall, and an interesting session was had.

The portraits in Lee Camp Hall are to be those of the following gentlemen, composed of Conrades John E. Laughlin, Jr., Thomas W. Snyder, and C. C. Scott, was appointed to select the plates and the names of the gentlemen to be placed in the hall, and Conrade C. C. Scott also spoke to the committee, and so did Conrade Laughlin, and all of them were in agreement as to their views as to the importance of the work before them.

Among portraits soon to be procured are those of General M. C. Butler and Lieutenant-Colonel Peyton Wigg.

The portrait of General Butler will be presented by Mr. William L. Royall, and the portrait of Colonel Peyton Wigg will be presented by Judge George L. Christian, and both will be received by Colonel Butler for the camp.

These presentations are to occur at the regular meeting of the camp next Friday night, and the public is cordially invited. There will be music, also, under the direction of Captain Frank W. Cunningham, and a special address will be given by Mr. Butler, of the First Baptist church choir.

MR. BOONE'S GREAT FEAT.

A Remarkable Exhibition of Mind Reading Yesterday.

A remarkable exhibition of mind reading yesterday afternoon by Mr. Edward H. Boone, of Paris, Ky., who is known as "The Great Mind Reader," was held at Murphy's Hotel.

A committee of well-known gentlemen from this city, including Messrs. J. C. Deane, J. C. Deaton, and others, were present to witness the performance, and were all struck with the accuracy of the readings.

The performance was a wonderful one, and the audience was all the while in a state of intense interest. The readings were all correct, and the audience was all the while in a state of intense interest.

Transfers of Real Estate.

Richmond, C. L. Denoon to Thomas Jones, 21 feet on south side of Leigh street, 21 feet east of Monument, 150 feet on north side of National Bank, to William H. Steinmann, 4 feet on south side Beverly street 23 feet east of Carter, 180.

Patrick P. Ryan and wife to Brookland School Board's trustees, 49 feet on north side of Moore street, 80 feet east of Dinneen, 150.

No Soft Drinks.

"Can't give you nothing but straight whiskey, friend," said the barkeeper to the Klondiker, who had been drinking a froze hard.—Indianapolis Journal.

Dr. Harbaugh's Cordion.

Dr. W. H. Harbaugh, who was not feeling so well yesterday morning, was again somewhat improved late last evening.

Quality, that's the first thing in mind when we're making our clothing—or writing about it. It's the first thing you want to look for—the first thing you'll be struck with here. It's the stronghold of the store. The foundation and the structure of our popularity. Lowest price is the twin of best quality in Saks enterprise. There's quality in our $7.50 S