THE UNIVERSITY AND ST. ALBANS

The Orange and Blue Meet Determined Resistance.

THEY SCORE ONLY TEN POINTS

The Visitors Put Up a Stiff Game and Much of the Time Played in the Enemy's Territory-Walker's Splendid Punting a Feature.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Sept. 30.-Special.-St. Albans put up a stiff game here this afternoon, holding the University of Virginia eleven down to ten points.

The pretty weather and the fact that it was the first contest of the season attracted a good crowd to the athletic field.

The Orange and Blue started off with a rush and by a steady hammering of the visitor's line carried the ball rapidly up the field.

The second and last touchdown was made four minutes before the close of the same half.

Captain Summersell missed both trials at goal, the leather hitting the cross bar on the second attempt.

The Orange and Blue put in several substitutes, whose function was to labor for the chance of further scoring.
