VARSITY DROPS A GAME TO YALE. Virginia Loses on Rank Errors at Critical Times. THEY KNOCKED GARVAN OUT. But When Patton Took His Place Only One More Hit Was Allowed—Yale's Fielding Was Superb—Virginia Plays Princeton To-Day.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Va., April 8.—The Virginia varsity football team, after a defeat of the season to-day at the hands of Yale, the score being nine to six. Garvan was knocked out in the fifth, and Patton, who replaced him, was very effective, allowing the Southerners only one hit.

Virginia lost on rank errors at critical moments. Five of them came in the third inning and Old Eton made enough runs to tie the score. The whole Yale nine fielded sharply throughout. Sharpe's one-handed catch of a line drive from Woodard's bat, Virginia's scoring. Carter pitched a good game for the Southerners, striking out a number of the Yale batsmen.

The features were the fielding of Sharpe, Cook and Woodard, the batting of Virginia's scoring. Carter pitched a good game for the Southerners, striking out a number of the Yale batsmen.

While I highly appreciate the action of the Maryland Division, as well as letters from other sources on the same subject, yet under no circumstances could I consent to be a candidate," said Col. Harwood when seen.
