PRICE MOVEMENT VERY IRREGULAR

Bulls Used Every Art of Manipulation to Make Advance. PROFIT TAKING WAS HEAVY. Promise of Good Bank Statement and Relaxation in Money Market Were Main Motives in Renewed Speculation.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The promise of a good bank statement on Saturday and the further relaxation in the money market which resulted in a main motive in the renewed speculative movement of stocks to-day. The movement of prices was exceedingly irregular and profit-taking was on a very heavy scale. The re-awakening of speculation was not achieved without aggressive leadership by the professional operators, who called to their assistance all the means of manipulation in the renewed speculative movement of stocks to-day. was quiet and sagged under profit-taking and selling in anticipation of a sharp reaction to-morrow in Liverpool. Estimates for large receipts of cotton to-morrow at Orleans and Houston helped to ease off the late market. Throughout the session rumors of July manipulation were in the air, but the market held its upward movements. Profit taking sent prices down to about last night's closing in the last half hour. The market was quiet, prices net 2 points higher to 2 points lower.
