CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.

Failure Makes Heroic Effort to Save His Child, but is Thrown into the Flames by a Falling Stairway—A Suit for Five Thousand.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

PETERSBURG, VA., May 6.—John Johnson, aged fifteen years, and Ellen Johnson, aged eleven, children of Levi Johnson, colored, prince George county, were burned to death last night at their parents' home on City Point road, about seven miles from this city. The home was totally destroyed, and Johnson and his wife narrowly escaped with their lives. The family went to bed early last night, and Johnson says there had been no fire in the house all that day. He was awakened late in the night, being sufficed by the smoke, and aroused his wife, who was also sufficed, and they hurriedly made their escape. As soon as they were safe their thoughts turned to their children.

AN HEROIC ATTEMPT.

The father faced the furious flames and rushed back into the house. He had nearly ascended the stairway when it fell, throwing him into the flames and the girl was reaching out her arms to him when he fell. After rising from the fire he saw his child no more. Neighbors tried to the rescue, but could not stay, the rapidly spreading flames nor could they enter the house which burned to the ground with the children in it.

CHARRED BODIES.

As soon as the fire was out, search revealed the charred bodies of the two children, and from the position of their bodies it was evident that they attempted to escape, but in their efforts were sufficed by the smoke and fell to the floor. The bodies were secured last night, and their origin is unknown, but it is believed to be the work of an incendiary. The man and his wife lost everything they had.

AN INVESTIGATION.

An investigation will be made at once, as to the origin of the fire. Many residents of the county and neighbors of Johnson believe that an incendiary is responsible for the destruction. The bodies of the children were buried this afternoon.

Police Officer Coleman discovered flames pouring from the windows of the kitchen department about 2:45 o'clock yesterday morning. He turned in the alarm at once and the notified the chief, who hastened to the scene. There was considerable confusion for a while but it soon subsided. The flames were confined to the kitchen department, the interior of which was totally destroyed. The stove, however, was immediately replaced and breakfast was served to the guests on time. Considerable damage was done by smoke to the interior of the hotel. Mr. Dally, the proprietor, will repair the damage.

OPEN ALL CHINA.

United States Finding Support in its Efforts. (By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 6.—Inquiry here confirms the report that the United States is working and finds support in its effort toward the opening of all China, including the provinces, to the trade of the world. This does not mean the abolition of customs duties, but would make every Chinese city a mart for the world's goods instead of limiting foreign commerce to the few existing treaty ports.

THE PROJECT IS ONE THAT APPEALS TEMPTINGLY TO THE COMMERCIAL INTERESTS OF OTHERS OF THE GREAT POWERS THAN THE UNITED STATES, AND IF IT SHOULD COMMAND THE SUPPORT OF THE NECESSARY NUMBER, HOPE IS ENTERTAINED THAT IT WILL INDIRECTLY AID IN THE SETTLEMENT OF THE TROUBLESOME INDEMNITY QUESTION.

SUNDAY NIGHT ROBBERY.

Thieves Break Burk's Window and Take Fifty Pair of Pants.

Four or five young men committed about as daring an exhibition of robbery about ten o'clock Sunday night as has been seen in Richmond in many a day. Some young fellows, by climbing up the shutters at the rear of Burk & Company's, near Tenth and Main, succeeded in reaching the second-story windows. By breaking the windows and reaching in through the bars they managed to pull off the tables near at hand some fifty pairs of trousers, which they pulled through the broken window. Some thirty-five pair of trousers were concealed in an old china hogshead in the rear of E. B. Taylor's store and covered with straw. Thirteen pair were gotten away as far as a cart lot at the corner of Tenth and Byrd, and there secreted. This latter performance attracted the attention of a policeman, and Officers Wiltshire, Schiefel and Clarkson stepped around to see what was in the broken window. Some thirty-five pair of trousers were returned for the goods secreted at Tenth and Byrd, the officers hid themselves and awaited their prey.

Before long two young fellows fell into the net. John Reid was caught first. Ed. McDearmon probably suspected from the disappearance of his partner that something was up, so he took to his heels. A shot from Officer Schiefel failed to round him up. He ran around the block and had the nerve to climb over the fence and inquire who it was they were shooting at. He was promptly arrested and landed at the Second Station. Thirty-five pair of pants were then found secreted in the alley. Burk & Company believe that these two finds cover the entire amount of the robbery.

McDearmon and Reid were before Squire Graves yesterday, and will be held for trial at a later date. The police think they are the only two who were there, but they can come here, and we bid them welcome with all our hearts. I can look over there (laughter), but there is something in the traditions of this republic, something in its precedents, that does not permit me to go outside the borders of the United States during his term of office. (Applause.) But as we do not hold office all the time here (laughter), we will have an opportunity of going there in the future.

FAY INGALLS VERY ILL.

Youngest Son of the Big Four's President in a Serious Condition.

A Boston special to the New York Sun says: "Fay Ingalls, the youngest son of President M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four Railroad, is critically ill at the Eliot Hospital, a private institution. Young Ingalls is about twenty years old and is a freshman at Harvard. He has a suite of rooms at the Beck Hall. Only a few days ago he was taken ill and a doctor was summoned. A well known Boston specialist diagnosed the case as appendicitis. His father was summoned from New York and his brother, M. E. Ingalls, Jr., also came on.

"On Friday he was operated on, and although he withstood the operation, his condition was considered to be sufficiently dangerous to warrant summoning his mother from home in Cincinnati. The physicians hope for his recovery, although his condition was unchanged to-day."

The Jefferson, Again.

"The Jefferson will be rebuilt, and by the Jefferson Hotel Company. I am absolutely sure of that."

So remarked a gentleman on the street yesterday, whose intimate relation to the parties interested and involved in the burning of the Jefferson and its subsequent reconstruction, apart from the fact that he is closely and intimately in touch with all matters of large financial moment here and many in New York, gives a position of authority to speak in the matter.

This feeling has extended among all those in touch with the stockholders of the Jefferson Hotel Company.

Mr. Thomas C. Giffers, the local representative of the company, has been seen yesterday, stated that there was no statement for the public as yet.

The Pole Case To-Day.

Among the cases to come up in the Police Court this morning are those of five companies using power—Passenger and Power Company, Traction Company, Virginia Electrical Railway and Development Company, Western Union Telegraph Company and Postal Telegraph Company—for failure to pay pole tax of $2 per pole, and the case of the Passenger and Power Company for failing to remove the cross-over at Beech and Main.

Missing Brother.

A letter has been received here from Mrs. Lucy Black, of Eastham, Va., in which she says:

"Would you kindly enquire through your paper for my widow, the whereabouts of a brother, Armistead Lilly, who left Virginia many years ago and from whom she has not heard, nor has any member of his family for some time."

Trial of Jesus From Lawyer's Standpoint.

The large number of men who assembled in the Y. M. C. A. Hall Sunday afternoon, notwithstanding the beautiful afternoon and the Unity meeting, were more than repaid by the mastery and eloquent address of Hon. Walter M. Chandler, attorney-at-law of New York City. For an hour and a half Mr. Chandler held the undivided attention of his audience. From a legal, historical and oratorical standpoint, the address was exceptionally fine. It was one of the most logical and strengthening ever given in the association's auditorium before an audience of men. Several professional gentlemen, who are competent judges, said it was the finest they had ever heard on the subject. An effort will be made to have the lecture repeated in the fall.

Justice John J. Crutchfield was reported to be much better yesterday. It is hoped that he may be able to be out in a few days.

PRESIDENT SPOKE UNDER TWO FLAGS

Emblems of America and Mexico Intertwined in Love.

MADE AN IMPRESSIVE ADDRESS.

Mr. McKinley Said the United States Only Went to War to Make Peace, and Preferred Arbitration to the Sword.

(By Associated Press.) EL PASO, TEX., May 6.—American and Mexican flags were intertwined in the decorations of the plaza where the official greetings of President McKinley and his Cabinet to the president of the Mexican Republic, General Huerta, took place to-day. There were thousands of Mexicans in the vast concourse to whom the President spoke, and their enthusiasm was almost as wild as that of the Americans.

General Huerta addressed President McKinley on behalf of his people, extending the latter's congratulations, and President McKinley in his response paid a high tribute to the president of the Mexican Republic and charged his emissary to convey to his chief his warm regard and personal esteem, with his best wishes for the continued prosperity of our sister republic.

The President's speech was very happy and was especially notable on account of his injunction to the people not to be alarmed about imperialism. There was, he said, no imperialism except the imperial power of the sovereign people of the United States.

He said: "This is the gateway to the Mexican Republic, and I want in this connection to express my great satisfaction with the cordial salutations tendered to me by that great and distinguished President of our sister Republic, General Huerta. (Enthusiastic applause and cries of "Bravo!") I thank his representative for the cordial words with which he has presented the feeling of respect and regard of his illustrious President to the Government of the United States, and I beg to convey to you my to his President the warm regards and the personal esteem which I have for his Chief Magistrate, which is shared by the whole American people (applause), and I wish for still further prosperity and advancement among his people. (Applause and cries of "Bravo!")

"I cannot fail also to recognize the cordial welcome which has been given to me by the Governor of the neighboring State of the Mexican Republic. I cannot go over there, but they can come here, and we bid them welcome with all our hearts. I can look over there (laughter), but there is something in the traditions of this republic, something in its precedents, that does not permit me to go outside the borders of the United States during his term of office. (Applause.) But as we do not hold office all the time here (laughter), we will have an opportunity of going there in the future.

UNITED PEOPLE.

"My fellow citizens, if there ever was any doubt about ours being a united people; if you could have traveled with me 2,500 miles from the capital at Washington to the city of El Paso, that doubt would have been completely dispelled (applause). There never was such unity in the United States as there is at this hour. There never was so much for a sign of 2,500,000 of people to the proud of us at this hour (applause). We sent our army and our navy to distant seas and they have only added glory to our flag. They have brought no shame upon the American name (applause). We sent them to China to rescue our beleaguered representatives and they did the work and did it magnificently with the approval of the civilized world. (Applause.)

PRIDE IN PEACE.

"But it is not in the art of war that we take our greatest pride. We are not a warlike people; we are not a military people. We never go to war unless we have to make peace (applause). Our pride is in peace, in material and intellectual development; in the growth of our country; in the advancement of our people in civilization; in the arts; in the sciences and in manufactures. This is the great pride of the American people (applause). Here we are on the border line between the United States and another great Republic, and on this side of the line we have thirty-five American soldiers and on that side of the line there are less than a hundred and fifty Mexican soldiers. So that we are dwelling in peace and amity, causing 'peace on earth and good will to men.' (Great applause.) BELIEVE IN ARBITRATION.

"We want to settle our differences if

SHUDDERS AT HIS PAST.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann, of Levanna, O., "my first experience with Kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bile Beans. I was completely cured, and made me feel like a new man." SUMMER HOMES.

Mountain and Sea-side Resorts on the C. & O.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company has ready for distribution a neat comprehensive illustrated folder, entitled "Summer Homes for 1901."

Besides such well-known resorts as famous White Sulphur Springs, Virginia Hot Springs, Beckliffe, Alum Springs, etc., there are hundreds of farm houses and country homes in the mountain region of the Virginia Blue Ridge, and the C. & O. Railway, having made a special business of summer resorts, is able to secure better accommodations with them than in any other section of the country.

Those leaving the cities during the heated season for rest, recreation and cool breezes will find that the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway passes through one of the most delightful mountain sections of the country, in which to pass the hot summer days, and offers to the health and pleasure-seeker a greater variety of resorts, scenic wonders and attractions than any other line.

Apply to any C. & O. agent for Illustrated Summer Home Folder, giving location, names, addresses, capacities and terms of board of resorts and country homes, summer excursion rates and special trains, including J. N. O. RYAN, A. G. P. A. C. & O. R. Y., Richmond, Va.

Advice to Piano Purchasers.

Don't buy a cheap piano. There is no satisfaction or comfort in such. A piano of no standing or reputation has little or no value. A good, reliable piano will be the source of constant pleasure. Take no chances, but buy from a responsible house, whose guarantee is good and unquestioned. Buy a and you will always be satisfied. Straightforward business makes no bid for patronage by sharpness or diplomacy, even in piano selling. Plain, clean, honest methods are what the public "tie to," and these you always find here. To be spoken of as a house where everybody is dealt with in absolute fairness, to serve you faithfully, to please you always, these are our ambitions.

Conover, Cable, Kingsbury, Schubert, or Wellington Piano

we ever have any with any of the lovers of the world by arbitration. We want to exhaust every peaceable means for settlement before we go to war, and while we have authority to raise a hundred thousand troops, the necessity does not exist for that number and we do not propose to raise but 75,000. (Great applause.) So don't be alarmed about militarism or imperialism. We know no imperialism in the United States, except the imperialism of sovereign people. (Continuous applause.)

Members of the Cabinet also spoke. At the conclusion of the addresses the party, including the Mexican officials, went for a drive. The President expressed a desire to take a look over into Mexico, and was driven down to the international bridge. There, at the office of the American customs officials, he alighted and chatted for some time with those around him. From the bridge he could plainly see the Sierra Madre Mountains, sixty miles to the southward.

President Harrison, in 1891, went half way across the bridge, but President McKinley to-day did not so much as set foot upon the structure.

On the way back to the city the party stopped and cheered the Mexican consul. At noon the Presidential party resumed its journey westward.

BENSON, ARIZ., May 6.—The presidential special reached Benson at 8:20 to-night. The station was illuminated, and the President spoke a few words to the crowd. The train will stop at Tucson at 10:30 o'clock.

GOLD WATCHES STOLEN.

The House of Mr. Richards Entered the Second Time During a Few Weeks. The residence of Mr. C. E. Richards, No. 212 East Broad Street, was entered some time during Saturday night by thieves, who took the gold watches of Mr. and Mrs. Richards from the bureau and also abstracted $7 from the pocket of Mr. Richards' vest.

Mr. Richards is a member of the well-known Cary-Street firm of E. W. Evans & Co., commission merchants. Mr. Richards occupies the upper flat at No. 212 and Mr. Evans the lower one.

When Mr. Evans arose at 7 o'clock Sunday morning, he called his wife's attention to the fact that a door and a window leading into Mr. Richards' part of the house, which had been closed the night before, were open.

Mr. Richards first discovered his loss when he reached in his vest pocket to get some money to put in church. Further investigation then showed that the watches were gone. Six weeks ago Mr. Evans was robbed of a gold watch and some money in a similar manner and there have been other cases in the neighborhood. A report has been made to the police.

CORNER-STONE WAS LAID.

Large Number of People Witness Impressive Catholic Exercises in Manchester. The corner-stone of the Catholic Church in Manchester was laid with impressive exercises Sunday afternoon. Many of the Catholic societies of Richmond were well represented.

There was a most creditable parade, under the general marshaling of Col. A. G. Evans.

The programme was opened with singing by the four Catholic choirs of Richmond. Bishop Van de Vyver opened with prayer, and made a short address. The Rev. Father Maguire then read the oration. The following articles were put in the box and sealed up in the corner-stone: A roll of the Sunday-school scholars of the Manchester Church, several Sunday-school papers, old coins, and a crucifix one hundred years old.

Said to Have Fought.

It was reported last night that there had been a fight between two soldiers of the Seventieth Regiment somewhere in the neighborhood of their armory. A good many people had heard the rumor, but were unable or would not give the names of the participants in the difficulty. The police knew nothing of any such affair as is alleged to have occurred.
