

Week in Society

In a resume of the events in society's realm during the past week the large number of fair brides led to the hymeneal altar give evidence that June, 1901, is not remiss in contributing her quota to the tradition that it is the ideal month for weddings. The week opened with a holiday, the anniversary of the birthday of President Jefferson Davis, which was appropriately observed by all the Confederate societies. A very delightful concert was given that night at the Auditorium, under the auspices of the Hollywood Memorial Association. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the audience was smaller than was anticipated. However, the concert will be repeated on the night of June 11th. Mr. Walter C. Mercer has consented to direct the children, and the Blues' Band will furnish music for the occasion.

A beautiful green and white wedding was solemnized at Holy Trinity Church Tuesday evening, when Miss Rachel Curry Marcy and Mr. George Richards Townsend were united in holy matrimony. Little Miss Madeline Curry, aged five, was the flower girl, and Miss Mabel Hurst, of New York, was the bridesmaid.

The other attendants were: Misses Jennie Huger, Edith and Max, James Ethel Carlton, Lou Reid, Edythe Fisher, of Williamsport, Pa., and Messrs. Max Detrick, Frank Sutton, Jr., Leslie Reid, Carl Roeker, of Washington; William Lee and George Huger, of Virginia.

Mr. Granville Smith, of Washington, was Mr. Townsends' best man.

A reception was tendered the bridal party after the ceremony by Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Marcy at their residence, on Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsends left on the north-bound train for an extended bridal tour.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the delightful dinner given on Tuesday evening at No. 1611 Chestnut by Mr. R. Y. Baker, in honor of his visiting friends, Miss Lucile Spratley, of Bermuda, Va., and Captain H. C. Quisenberry, of Lynchburg, Va.

There were quite a number of pretty and daintily-gowned young ladies, who, with their charming escorts, seemed to enjoy to the fullest extent every minute of their stay.

The rooms and halls were tastefully decorated with daisies, honeysuckle and ferns.

About 11:20 o'clock the old Virginia Reel was danced by special request. The company was very gracefully waited upon by Messrs. Baker and Quisenberry and little Miss Elizabeth Alley.

The chaperones were: Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Bradley and the Misses Alley.

Those present were: Misses Shell, Quisenberry, Hopkins, Spratley, Lipscomb, Robbins, Waddill, Marks, and Moore; Messrs. Shultz, Douglas, Quisenberry, Foster, White, Richardson, Mitchell, and Pulliam.

The city of Philadelphia is expected to entertain the delegates to the Southern Industrial Association Convention, to be held in that city next week, in a style which will leave no stone unturned to represent a recollection of the hospitality of the City of Brotherly Love, which they will long remember. Every detail and particular which might in any way minister to the pleasure or comfort of the city's guests who will gather from every State and section of the South, has been looked to with care and success.

These extensive and lavish expressions of hospitality to the ladies who will accompany the delegates to the convention have not been forgotten. The Citizens' Committee of Philadelphia has appointed a committee of ladies, all Philadelphiaans, to meet at all Southern centers by birth and members of the General Dabney H. Maury Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy of Philadelphia to receive together with a committee of Philadelphia of the northern birth and residence. The two committees jointly represent the leaders of Philadelphia society and social life.

The joint committees have arranged the details of a reception which will be tendered the ladies from the South at the Acorn Club, of Philadelphia, which will be a notable affair.

The chairman of the Southern Philadelphia Committee of Reception is Mrs. S. Nordan Duerr, of this city, and the General Dabney H. Maury Chapter.

The other members of the committee, many of whom are well known in Richmond and Virginia, are:

Mrs. Sue Mary Halsey, Mrs. Charles Belmont Core, Mrs. Herbert I. Clark, Mrs. Franklin Bache, Mrs. Frederick Baln, Mrs. T. Ashby Blythe, Mrs. George De B. Kelm, Mrs. William L. Wright, Mrs. E. B. Sherrin, Mrs. Augusta Hill Noble, Mrs. Margaret Reithel, Miss Julia Linkler, Mrs. John D. Emack, Mrs. James H. Hofferer, Miss Harris Morrison, Mrs. Joseph H. Jamney, Jr., Mrs. Henry L. Davis, Miss Wm. Douglas Mason, Miss Cora G. Mack, Miss Helen Morrison, Miss Lucy G. Mayo, Mrs. Henry May Dandell and Miss Gertrude Agnes Byers.

The annual meeting of the Oakwood Memorial Association was held in the school-house at St. John's Church Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Mrs. Stephen Beveridge in the chair. The report showed that the services of Oakwood Memorial, which were held in St. John's Church on April 27th, were largely attended and most interesting. Credit is due Mrs. Fitz for the excellent arrangements and a most enjoyable service. Mrs. Stephen Beveridge, the retiring president, read a most interesting report of her work during the past year. Her paper showed careful preparation, and, as a whole, gave evidence in the life that seemed infused in the Association. Mrs. John T. Hughes, the secretary, also gave a most encouraging report of her work, and it was with gratification the remarkable improvements in the soldiers' section and the large increase in the membership during the past year. It was decided to open a subscription fund to raise money for the Jefferson Davis Monument.

Mrs. Stephen Beveridge was unanimously re-elected president; Mrs. Virginia Beveridge, secretary; Mrs. John T. Hughes, treasurer. The vice-presidents elected from the various churches were: Mrs. J. L. Tallaferra, from St. John's; Mrs. M. E. Snellings, from the Presbyterian; Mrs. J. A. Sherrin, from St. Peter's; Mrs. J. R. Harwood, from Lehigh Street Baptist; Mrs. Hechler, from Union Station; Mrs. H. T. Talley, from Fulton; Mrs. Clarke, from Broadus Memorial; Mrs. Virginia Beveridge, from St. James; Mrs. Haines, from Venable-Street Baptist; Mrs. J. G. Nuckolls, from Fairmount Avenue Church; and Mrs. Lassiter, from the Third Presbyterian Church.

wood Memorial Association has, however, appealed to them and they have consented to accompany the children in their songs. The fact that Mr. Walter C. Mercer is the leader is enough to insure good music and a most sympathetic and interesting performance. The other members of the band are as follows: Grand Pianos, Mrs. W. C. Mercer and Mr. Cosby; cornet, Mr. Ritchie; cello, Mr. Herbert Thurston; violin, Messrs. John Reinhardt, Edwin Boshier, John Ganner, William Boehm, and others. Tickets for the concert will only be on sale at two places: at the auditorium, and at the residence of Mrs. Storey, on North Main Street, and at the Drug Store, on Broad, between Fifth and Sixth.

The Hollywood Memorial Association met Wednesday in the Second Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Joseph Bryan in the chair.

In the absence of the secretary, the minutes were kept by Mrs. Marshall Gilliam.

A letter of thanks from the veterans at the Soldiers' Home was read expressive of their appreciation for the interest taken by the ladies of the Association in the memorial parade and for their invitation to the recent Confederate Concert in the Auditorium.

Mrs. E. C. Minor was elected vice-president of the Association to fill the place of Miss Minnie Baughman, who has gone to South America with her brother.

It was decided to repeat the concert, which took place on last Monday night. The storm on that evening prevented a large number of people from attending, so they will have an opportunity at an early date of enjoying a rare musical treat. The ladies have decided to reduce the price of the tickets to 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children, thus enabling many to be present for a nominal sum.

The William and Mary Tablet Committee of the Colonial Dames were entertained Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Stephen Hunter, Mrs. Charles Washington Coleman, chairman of the committee, presided. Mr. Brown, a spectator of this city, presented a beautiful design for the tablet which was accepted by the ladies. The tablet is to be erected to the honor of James Blair and the founders of William and Mary College. It will bear the coat of arms of the college. After the business was transacted, Miss Mary Ashby, who recently returned from New York, gave several delightful selections. Dainty cakes and ices in the colors of buff and blue were served. Each of the ladies was presented with a blue box of bonbons which had been prepared by Mrs. Ashby. The guests were: Mesdames W. T. Robins, Adair Pleasant, John Addison, W. G. Stanard, Gibson Davenport, Gordon McCabe, R. A. Gibson, Meredith Montague, Reginald Gilman, A. J. Montague and Misses Ellen Wade and Belle Ferris.

A most delightful box party was tendered the Misses Browning at their residence, No. 729 North First Street, on Wednesday evening by their friends for the benefit of a most interesting cause. Mrs. James Brown acted as auctioneer and sold the boxes at good prices. The guests enjoyed games of all sorts until a late hour. Miss Nellie Ferguson added much interest by singing several songs. Among those present were: Misses Nellie Ferguson, Annie Black, Rosa Woods, Lala Browning, Bertha Browning, Katie Harris, Annie Bolton, Lizzie Morris, Josie Edwards, Lulu Galt, Louie Galt, Annie Clark, Katie Williams, Alma Brown; Messrs. Emmett Brown, John Clater, John Wiseman, Thomas Welsh, John Shipley, Henry Moore, Frank Spurr, Sam Mahone, Eddie, Hugh Smith, Sydney Hazlett, James N. Brown, Joe Whiteham, J. E. Donahue, Frank Moody and others.

Miss Margaret Cecilia Bahen, daughter of Captain James Bahen, was united in matrimony to Mr. Arthur J. Rooney, Jr., at St. Peter's Cathedral on last Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Wm. O'Hara, of St. Mary's, officiated at the ceremony. The bride was attended by her bridesmaids, Misses Mary and the nuptial mass and performed the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. John Murphy sang the Ave Maria at the offertory in a very beautiful manner. The attendants at the altar were: Misses Teresa Dipper, Lizzie Sellinger and Messrs. Joseph Powers, Wm. Bahen, James E. Phillips, Jr., Dennis Doyle, John Cottrell, Joseph A. Le Masurier, Charles W. Dillon, Wm. L. Lynch and Dr. W. H. Lumsden.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was tendered the bridal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bahen, on North Fifth Street, after which the young couple left on an extended northern trip.

The "Stay at Home Whist Club" met on Tuesday evening to reorganize for the coming summer. Those present were: Mesdames Walter K. Martin, Mrs. E. H. Jones, Mrs. M. E. Jones, Mrs. Reginald Gilman, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Bland Smith, Mrs. Harrie Webster and Miss Emily Glasgow. The lady managers of the club were: Mrs. E. H. Jones, Mrs. M. E. Jones, Mrs. Reginald Gilman, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Bland Smith, Mrs. Harrie Webster and Miss Emily Glasgow.

The regular meeting of the Board of the Sheltering Arms Hospital will be held Monday, June 10th, at noon. On that occasion the Executive Committee make an earnest appeal for contributions of towels, sheets and pillow slips and nappies, as owing to the continuing crowding of the hospital, the supply of these running short and the funds at their command are very limited.

Miss Mary R. McLaughlin and Mr. Lindsay W. Allen were quietly married at the bride's residence, No. 18 North Thirteenth Street, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. R. A. Goodwin, assisted by Rev. Dr. George Cooper.

After receiving the congratulations of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Allen left the north-bound train for an extended trip.

The last Saturday's issue of the Evening Scimitar, of Memphis, Tenn., says: Colonel Norman V. and Mrs. Randolph of Richmond, Va., were entertained with a dinner given at Chetolah, on Thursday night last, by Mr. and Mrs. Van Vleet. Guests to meet Colonel and Mrs. Randolph were Governor and Mrs. McMillin, Governor Longino, and Mr. J. M. Anderson, of his staff.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Willis, of Chesapeake, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie Louise Willis, to Mr. Anderson Wade Douthat, of Danville.

The ceremony will be performed at the residence of Mrs. Louisa Townes, Miss Willis' grandmother, at 121 Sycamore Street, Petersburg, on the 12th instant.

The annual art exhibit at St. Joseph's Academy will be held on the 15th, 16th and 17th of this month. The closing exercises will be held on the 17th. The exhibit will be entirely private. The Sisters have decided to give the school-children a picnic at their summer home, Holybrook, near Lakeside Park, on the 20th instant. A most delightful time is anticipated.

The pupils' recital of Miss Zelle Minor's music class took place in the music-rooms of Walter D. Moses & Co., No. 103 East Broad Street, Friday at 8:30 o'clock. The presentation of the medals and annual reports were made by the Rev. J. Y. Downman. A piano selection will be rendered by Misses Minor and Hill.

The Mothers' Mission of Holy Trinity Church gave a most delightful entertainment Wednesday evening. Rev. J. J. Gravatt, pastor of Holy Trinity, delivered a beautiful address, after which a charming musical programme was rendered. The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. John Addison, president of the society.

Major Charles S. Stringfellow has issued invitations to the marriage of his daughter, Miss Helen S. Stringfellow, to Mr. Blair Randolph Burwell, of Honey Grove, Texas. The marriage will take place June 18th, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 318 West Franklin Street.

Many Richmond people were interested in the wedding which took place in New York city, at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Tuesday last, when Miss Lida Pickens, bride, was united to Mr. Jules Raymond Gimbert. Miss Lina Livingston Mayo, of this city, was one of the attendants.

A brilliant wedding will take place at the Masonic Temple to-morrow night when Miss Fannie Wallein will become the bride of Mr. Samuel Klein, of Chicago. After the ceremony an elegant reception will follow.

The friends of Mrs. Ellen Tompkins, of No. 8 North Second Street, will regret to learn that she is seriously ill. Her son, Dr. Christopher Tompkins, was telegraphed for last night.

Rev. Dr. Strickler, of Union Theological Seminary, will preach the dedication sermon to-day at the dedication of the Hobson Presbyterian Church in Staunton.

Mrs. Herbert A. Claiborne, who has been very much indisposed during the past week at her home, on East Grace Street, is very much improved.

Dr. Robert S. Boshier, who has been completing his education during the past week in New York, is visiting his parents on East Franklin Street.

Messrs. W. H. Lumsden, Sr. and G. H. Lumsden, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. J. Ezekiel Hall, at Afton, have returned to the city.

Mr. Langstaff Johnson left yesterday morning for the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va., where he goes to take his examination.

Mrs. A. J. Vaughan, Sr., and her sister, Mrs. Edith Ball, have left the city to visit friends in Nashville, Knoxville and Chattanooga.

Miss Carrie Block, who has been spending the past week at the Chamberlin Hotel, Old Point Comfort, returned last night.

Miss Madeline Deady has returned to her home, on East Grace Street, after a pleasant visit to friends in Norfolk.

Miss Dollie de Kraft, of Amelia county, was a guest of Mrs. W. H. Graham for a few days, en route to West Virginia.

Mr. H. A. Atkinson left this morning for Hampton, to visit his daughter, Mrs. Sidney J. Dudley, in that city.

Mr. Charles E. Belvin left this morning for Old Point Comfort, where he will spend several days.

Major Albert Akers has returned to his home in Washington, after a pleasant visit to this city.

Mr. R. K. Taylor, of Toano, is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Lee Whitlock is at the Afton House, Afton, Va.

Miss Mamie Harvey will leave shortly to visit her aunt, Mrs. Chase, in Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Pearl Bodeker has returned from a delightful visit to friends in Covington, Ky.

Captain W. G. Harvey will leave this week on a business trip to Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. James H. Capers, Jr., is at Old Point Comfort, spending a week.

Miss Brandt, of Norfolk, is the guest of Mrs. Ullman, on Clay Street.

Mr. Sidney Klein, of Chicago, is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Wellerstein.

Dr. J. E. Harris, of Virginia Beach, is visiting friends in the city.

Dr. L. M. Cowardin spent a few days at the Hot Springs this week.

Colonel W. O. Skelton is at Old Point Comfort for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotesworth Pinckney are now at Brook Hill.

Persuasive Prices For Comfort-Seekers.

The hot spell is on, and you had just as well get down to business and buy your Alaska Refrigerators, smokeless, odorless and wickless Oil Stoves, Matting (by the way, what WE think is the pick of our Spring Matting importation has just arrived, and if you want to see something swell in Matting you ought to see this lot; they're beauties and they are exceedingly cheap), Carpets, Oilcloths, Porch Rockers, &c. We're always busy. Why? Because we always give the lowest prices.

Chas. G. JURGENS' Son,

419-421 East Broad Street. - Between Fourth and Fifth Streets.

Furniture Headquarters. CREDIT, in the way of easy and liberal small payments, given on any bill of goods. We've had 12 years of satisfactory selling of the ALASKA REFRIGERATORS. How's this for a record?

officers of the society are as follows: President, Mr. S. I. Kelley, and Secretary, Mr. Charles M. Graves.

The final commencement exercises will be held Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the college hall. The public delivery honors and degrees will occur at that time. The commencement address will be delivered by the Rev. W. E. Fletcher (B. A. '88), D. D., LL. D.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The meeting will be a most important one and it already being discussed. Three vacant chairs will have to be filled and several other matters of great moment will come up for discussion. While nothing can be stated positively, it is the belief of many that the chair of English, vacated by Dr. John Pollard, will be offered to Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, now professor of history and literature; that the position now held by the University of Virginia, Dr. Mitchell, now of the chair of Latin, will in turn be succeeded by Prof. Ragland, now a student at Johns Hopkins, and a graduate of Richmond College. Mr. W. R. Taylor, of the University of Virginia, is also spoken of for this position. The chair of Philosophy, formerly occupied by Dr. W. D. Thomas, deceased, may find an occupant in Dr. Gordon Moore, of Furman University.

INTERESTING DEVELOPMENT.

Company Being Organized in Richmond to Promote Small Manufactures.

A company, which will be known as the Richmond Industrial Development Company is now being organized in this city with a view to promoting and fostering small manufactures. The plans of this company include the creation of a large manufacturing building, something entirely new for this section of the country. The parties in Richmond directly interested in the company at this time are: John L. Williams & Sons, Joseph Bryan, James H. Loomis, Williams, Jr., E. C. Todd, of Baltimore; J. W. Abdenndorf, of Baltimore, and N. W. Bowe.

Land has been purchased from Henry Lee Valentine, at the foot of Twelfth Street, opposite the power-house of the Virginia Electric Railway and Development Company, upon which the most modern of factory buildings is to be erected at once.

THE BUILDING.

The plans are being prepared by Noland & Baskerville and will be submitted within the next few days. The building is designed so as to afford the best possible light and ventilation, being 150 feet long, 45 feet wide and four stories high, to be erected at a cost of $25,000. It is noted much after the manufacturing buildings in the wonderful little town of Holyoke, Mass., and other New England manufacturing centres, which Mr. C. F. Todd, of Baltimore, and his brother Mr. William Todd, of this city, chief promoters of the scheme, have recently visited with a view to getting ideas concerning the erection and operation of such buildings. It is proposed to rent floor space in this building to tenants to engage in the manufacture of various articles upon a small scale, and with the space, heat, light and power to any extent they may wish. Thus the manufacturer of any article may rent his floor space, belt his machinery to the main line of shafting and begin operation without further trouble. The object of the company is to bring to Richmond all kinds of new manufacturing, enable them to start in a small way, and as they develop, increase in capacity and with success, to help the owners of such plants towards establishing plants of their own where they may continue to enlarge their business and so become among the leading industries of the South, perhaps.

The organization of this company comes as a natural sequence of cheap power and is but the beginning of Richmond's future as a manufacturing city. The building is expected to be completed within its very appointment. One common elevator, operated for the accommodation of all, will be in the centre of the building, and bath-rooms, with shower, will be on each floor for the use of those employed in the building.

A railway siding comes to the very doors on one side, while on the other will be a spacious court-yard where crays may drive in and unload upon the broad platform leading into the elevator hall. The building is being erected for the size of the one described, which will in all probability be built within the next year.

COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

Programme for the Week—Meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The commencement exercises at Richmond College will open to-night with the annual commencement sermon, to be preached in the college chapel by the Rev. Dr. George W. Quick, B. A., of Springfield, Mass. The students will attend in the morning and the place will be crowded to its capacity. Many of the Baptist Churches of the city will hold no services to-night, the congregations being invited to the college. Dr. Quick, who presides the sermon, is the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Springfield, and is an eloquent and forceful speaker.

During this week events at the college will follow one another in rapid succession. On Monday night the joint celebration of the Mu Sigma Rho and Philological Literary Societies will occur. Society medals will be awarded at this time. The writers' medal, as has been stated, will be taken by Mr. C. A. Jenkins, of Bristol, Va., a member of the Philological Society.

On Tuesday night members of the graduating class will deliver orations. The class of 1901 consists of seven candidates for the degree of Master of Arts, fifteen for Bachelor of Arts, two for Bachelor of Science, and sixteen for Bachelor of Law. The Alumni Association will hold its reunion and dinner on Wednesday. Great efforts have been made to have this occasion one of the most successful of the year. The alumni will be out in force. The

Cash Rebate Coupons,

Will be given free with every cash purchase made from any of the following merchants:

ART GOODS.
The F. Cohen Art Store, 827 E. Broad St.
BAKERS.
E. Perkinson, 2140 Pleasant Street.
BICYCLES.
T. A. Parsons, 500 East Broad Street.
B. A. Blenner, 510 North Fifth Street.
BOOKS AND STATIONERY.
Hunter & Co., 625 East Broad Street.
BOOTS AND SHOES.
B. B. Bowles, 305 East Broad Street.
Seymour Seely, Seventh and Broad Sts.
CLOTHING.
Joseph Johnston, 1545 East Main Street.
Dabney & Johnston, 301 East Broad Street.
JACOBS & LEVY, 707 East Broad Street.
Sam Duggins, 2 West Broad Street.
K. FISHER & SON, corner Fourteenth and 17th East Main Street.
COAL AND WOOD.
Floyd Tyler, 908 West Cary Street, 518 Denny Street.
Ellyson, Ladd & Co., 1710 E. Broad St.
CONNECTIONS.
Kaempff, 110 1/2 North Sixth Street.
DENTISTS.
Davison's Dental Parlors, Seventh and Broad Streets.
DRUGGISTS.
Eaton's Pharmacy, Twenty-eighth and N. Streets.
A. Greenwald, 500 West Broad Street.
Wm. H. Snook, 107 West Main Street.
J. M. Blanks, Hancock and Clay Sts.
W. C. Saunders, 350 West Leigh.
THE COHEN COMPANY, 11 to 17 East Broad Street.
Jacob Lewit & Son, 153 E. Main St.
H. L. Jacobs, 720 East Main Street.
Mosby Stores.
W. C. Gayle, 401 Louisiana Street.
Gayle Brothers, 401 Louisiana Street.
L. H. Baroff, Twenty-eighth and P Sts.
L. H. Baroff, 515 Louisiana Avenue.
L. H. Baroff, 515 Louisiana Avenue.
The Model Dyeing and Cleaning Works, 412 West Broad Street.
FURNITURE AND OYSTERS.
Jones Bros., 920 North Sixth Street.
V. A. Fish, Oyster and Game Co., 414 North Sixth Street.
GROCERIES.
M. E. Myer, 909 East Main Street.
FURNITURE.
O. H. Busby, 401 East Main Street.
J. B. Hopkins, 145 East Main Street.
Bailey & Bailey, Fulton.
GROCERIES.
Herman Schmidt, 501 East Broad St.
L. W. Gary, 304 East Marshall Street.
Sparks' Laurel Market, 822 W. Broad St.
H. L. Jacobs, 720 East Main Street.
A. W. Browning, 314 South Pine Street.
J. H. Stout, 119 South Second Street.
H. L. Jacobs, 720 East Main Street.
B. P. Shackelford, 1918 E. Franklin St.
Pulley & Brown, 317 North Adams St.
CHAS. BROWN & SONS, 121 East Main Street.
JEWELLERS AND OPTICIANS.
D. Buchanan & Son, 111 East Broad St.
C. Lumsden & Son, 71 East Main St.
Jahrike Bros., 142 East Main Street.
LAUNDRIES.
The Model Steam, Twenty-fifth and Broad Streets.
Richmond Steam, 318 N. Seventh St.
LUNCH ROOMS.
Richmond Dairy Lunch Room, 821 East Broad Street.
MILLINERY.
THE COHEN COMPANY, 11 to 17 East Broad Street.
Mrs. S. A. Emms, 313 East Broad Street.
THE BEE-HIVE, Fifteenth and Main Sts.
M. L. BIRCHMAN, 2140 Pleasant Street.
Ewig, 615 E. East Main Street.
Henry Harris, 715 East Main Street.
Louis Ruth, 508 East Broad Street.
Emilia Brown, 121 East Main Street.
MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.
THE CABLE CO., 213 East Broad Street.
SOUTHERN STAMP AND STATIONERY CO., 1206 East Main Street.
TOBACCO AND GOODS.
T. W. Tignor's Sons, 1219 East Main Street, 1719 Franklin.
WALL PAPERS.
John H. Astley, Twentieth and Broad Streets.
Cattell & Walsh, 214 North Fifth Street.
WINE AND LIQUORS.
Chas. Thalheimer & Co., 608 E. Broad St.
Isaac Strauss, 410 East Broad Street.
MANICURE.
H. C. Beattie, 121 East Main Street.
A. Nunnally, Twelfth and Hull Sts.
Jones & Clements, 2311 Hull Street.
J. C. Suttler, 1228 Hull Street.

Ask For Coupons.
Coupons will be paid in cash on presentation to the UNITED BANKING AND TRUST COMPANY, 821 East Main Street, or redeemers, 1728 Main Street, at the store issuing the coupons.

PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

Special Excursion to Buffalo via R. F. & P. - Penn. Railroad.

The Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad will sell iron-clad, signatory, non-transferable excursion tickets to Buffalo, N. Y., on June 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, and 31st. The rate is $12.50 for round trip.

These tickets will be good going only on Pennsylvania Railroad trains leaving Washington 7:50 A. M. June 12th and 17th, and for return on all regular trains leaving Buffalo 10:00 A. M. June 19th or July 2d, at the low rate of $12.50 for round trip.

These tickets will be good going only on Pennsylvania Railroad trains leaving Washington 7:50 A. M. June 12th and 17th, and for return on all regular trains leaving Buffalo 10:00 A. M. June 19th or July 2d, at the low rate of $12.50 for round trip.

Apply to Richmond Transfer Company, No. 902 Main Street; Murphy's Hotel, or Ticket Offices Elba, Byrd-Street and S. A. L. Broad-Street Stations, or at offices of the Richmond Transfer Company, No. 902 East Main Street, and Murphy's Hotel.

W. P. TAYLOR, Traffic Manager.

Sumner rates at the Hygeia, Old Point Comfort: $2.00 per day and upwards; $17.50 per week and upwards; $50.00 per month and upwards.

All drinking water distilled by the Palatable Still Apparatus, endorsed by the Massachusetts General Hospital and surgeons of Fort Mifflin, Philadelphia.

GEORGE A. KEELER, Manager.

Mr. Charles E. Belvin left this morning for Old Point Comfort, where he will spend several days.

Major Albert Akers has returned to his home in Washington, after a pleasant visit to this city.

Mr. R. K. Taylor, of Toano, is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Lee Whitlock is at the Afton House, Afton, Va.

Miss Mamie Harvey will leave shortly to visit her aunt, Mrs. Chase, in Nashville, Tenn.

L. D. BRIGGS,

FIRST-CLASS BAKERY,

412 EAST BROAD STREET.
ALL KINDS BREAD, CAKES AND PIES.
1854. 1901.