

BEAUTIFUL LADIES GIVE VALUABLE ADVICE TO SUFFERING SISTERS.

Peruna the Great Tonic Cures For Ills Peculiar to Women, Catarrhal Dyspepsia of Summer. Peruna is an Invaluable Remedy.

KATHLEEN GRAHAM.

Miss Kathleen Graham, 1459 Florida Ave., N. W., Wash., D. C., writes: "At the solicitation of a friend I was advised to use Peruna, and after the use of one bottle for dyspepsia I felt almost entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending your remedy to any one who needs an invigorating tonic."

FLORENCE ALLAN.

Miss Florence Allan, 75 Walton Place, Chicago, Ill., writes: "As a tonic for a worn out system Peruna stands at the head in my estimation. Its effect is truly wonderful in rejuvenating the entire system. I keep it on hand all the time and never have that 'fired feeling' as a few doses always makes me feel like a different woman."

Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio, a prominent authority on women's catarrhal diseases, will take charge of as many cases of female catarrh as make application to him during the summer months. Address: DR. S. B. HARTMAN, Columbus, Ohio.

RECESS PROBABLY UNTIL SEPTEMBER

Much Talk of Convention Adjourning for Two Months.

THE PROPERTY-HOLDING CLAUSE

Seemingly to Be Crystallizing in Favor of Such a Feature as a Qualification for Voting—Convention Gossip.

The chances are that the Constitutional Convention will take a recess about the end of the present week until some time in September. Members who were sworn last night, as a rule, favored this plan, which has been very much discussed of late.

It has been found difficult to get a quorum of the committee together. Delegates complain of the heat in the rooms where they are to meet. No electric fans are there. The delegates, or most of them, think the best results can be obtained by giving time for the various propositions submitted to be thoroughly considered and digested. In the event of a recess, the adjournment will probably be taken from Friday. The fact is pointed out that the work before some of the committees will require weeks, if not months.

There is a strong and, apparently, a growing sentiment in favor of providing a property-holding qualification in the suffrage clause. Most of the resolutions now offered in regard to the franchise provision are based upon the property-holding provision. Some three out of four will be thoroughly considered. The amount of property to be held in order that a man may have the right to vote is variously rated. It runs all the way from $100 to $500, and it is pointed out that the latter will be the minimum amount for which he is assessed before being permitted to vote. There is a strong sentiment in favor of requiring the payment of a poll-tax of one cent to the State before being permitted to exercise the right of suffrage.

There is much regret expressed on account of the enforced absence of Hon. Eugene Withers, who is sick in Danville. His condition is not serious, and he will probably be able to be back here in two weeks. Mr. Withers was named by President Johnson as chairman of the Committee on Reduction of Expenses. This body will meet probably to-day to map out its work, and until Mr. Withers returns Judge James W. Marshall, the second member of the committee, will be chosen by the committee. It is thought that the field given this committee in which to work is a very broad one, and there is opportunity afforded for many reforms to be recommended.

The proposition to elect all State officers by the direct vote of the people seems to meet with considerable favor, though there are influential men in the convention who are unalterably opposed to the proposed change. Some very influential delegates think it would be wise to give to the Governor power to appoint all judges. Most of those who want judges chosen by popular vote are in favor of choosing the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Auditor of Public Accounts, Second Auditor, State Treasurer, Railroad Commissioner, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioner of Agriculture and Commissioner of Labor by the same method. Most of the delegates would have the Adjutant-General appointed by the Governor, and there is a very strong sentiment in favor of the President of the Penitentiary, Superintendent of Public Printing and Register of Land Office should be chosen.

Judge D. W. Bolen, the able member of the convention from Carroll, has prepared a resolution in verse on the subject of taking the oath, and will present it to the convention to-day. He takes vigorous ground against taking the oath in his poem. Judge Bolen is a poet of no mean distinction, and his verses will no doubt "bring down the house" when they are read. Some years ago the judge filed a copy of his poem in the State Library, and it attracted much attention, having been printed shortly thereafter in the Virginia Law Register.

When President Goode raps the convention to order he uses a gavel that is out of date. It is made of the cheapest kind of wood and is coated with a cheap black varnish. Mr. Jefferson M. Levy, the member from Jefferson, has a word that in the near future he will present the President of the convention with a gavel made from wood taken from a desk used by Thomas Jefferson. It is supposed that Mr. Jefferson used this desk while studying the great constitutional questions of this time.

It is probable there will be a big crowd at the Capital to-day to hear the continuation of the debate on the oath question. In the hotel lobbies last night the anti-oath people were loaded with arguments to convince them that Mr. Thorne had waded up the floor with Senator Daniel, while, on the other hand, the oath advocates contended that Daniel had smashed Mr.

RIOT IN ROCHESTER.

Police and Striking Laborers Come to Blows Serious Hurts Inflicted.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 26.—Striking laborers to the number of 1,900 had a hand in the riot in the city to-day, in which eleven policemen and twenty strikers were injured. The strikers had set out, as several times before, to drive off the policemen, who were at work on street improvements.

At Mill and Commercial Streets, they encountered fifty laborers employed by the Rochester Gas and Electric Company, in digging a trench, and advanced on them and drove them from the trench. The workers sought refuge in the power-house of the company, and the police undertook to disperse the mob. A volley was fired over the heads of the strikers, who, in turn, assaulted the policemen, with bricks, stones, shovels, and pieces of wood. After hurling their missiles, the crowd dispersed.

The injuries sustained by several of the policemen are of a serious nature. The hurts of the strikers are of a less serious nature, but several of them were severely lacerated by the officers' clubs.

STATE TO PAY THE PRICE.

Alabama Convention Provides for Victims of Mob Violence.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26.—Governor Jones this morning, in the Constitutional Convention, offered a separate article providing for dependent members of the families of sheriffs killed while defending prisoners. It covers the right of action for damages against the county and the courts a right of action against mobs.

Winn, of Barbour, offered an ordinance giving the railroad commission plenary powers, but giving the railroad the right of appeal to the courts. This was accompanied by a petition from the citizens of Barbour county declaring that the present commission was a failure.

Similar petitions were also presented by Ashcraft, of Lauderdale, and Banks, of Russell.

An important feature of the convention to-day was the report of Chairman Barker, of the committee on the change of County Boundaries. Material changes were reported, one permitting the State to acquire additional territory as in the case of the proposed purchase of West Florida.

It permits the Legislature to change county boundaries when requested by two-thirds vote of the qualified electors residing in the proposed territory to be taken from one and added to another county. The territory can only be ceded or reduced from six hundred to four hundred square miles.

FIREMAN KILLED.

Engineer Seriously Hurt and Seaboard Engine Badly Wrecked.

SAVANNAH, GA., June 26.—A freight train of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad ran into a freight of the Plant System at the crossing of the Atlantic Coast Line, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and Pennsylvania lines into Washington this morning.

The train ran via Selma, South Rocky Mount, Richmond and Quantico. Trains No. 25 and 26 will be run via the Southern main line to-day, as it is thought that track repairs can be made in time.

The damage to the Southern's track was caused by a cloud-burst near Greensboro yesterday afternoon. A trestle about eighty feet long and twelve feet high, located about three miles this side of Greensboro, was washed away. Main line traffic was thus interrupted. So far as can be learned no other damage was sustained by the Southern, and it is thought that repairs can soon be made.

LIMITED TRAINS DELAYED.

Southern Railway Flyers Held Up by Cloud-burst.

The Southern Railway limited trains north, Richmond and Quantico, Trains No. 25 and 26 will be run via the Southern main line to-day, as it is thought that track repairs can be made in time.

The damage to the Southern's track was caused by a cloud-burst near Greensboro yesterday afternoon. A trestle about eighty feet long and twelve feet high, located about three miles this side of Greensboro, was washed away. Main line traffic was thus interrupted. So far as can be learned no other damage was sustained by the Southern, and it is thought that repairs can soon be made.

Pretty Wedding in the County.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Monroe Wade, Lilly alley farm, in Hanover county, was the scene of a brilliant wedding last night, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Agnes Nicholson, to Mr. John Wagner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Leake, pastor of Fulton Baptist Church. Mr. F. S. Anderson, of Manchester, acted as best man and Miss Mamie Nicholson, sister of the bride, as maid of honor.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wade threw open the dining-rooms and served an elegant supper. A large number of Richmond people were in attendance. Mrs. Wagner is the daughter of the late Dr. S. Leake, of the same name, of the same place, with the Virginia and North Carolina Wheel Company.

INSANE NEGRO GETS A PRIZE. HEAVY RAIN IN HEAD OF ELKHORN

The Times offers prizes to successful guessers of the next Menagerie animal and in Art Contests for children. See particulars in

APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT.

Important Meeting of the Street Committee. All-Day Meeting at Mt. Hermon—News.

Personal and Brief Items from Manchester.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, No. 1102 Hull Street.

KAPPA ALPHAS WELCOME HOBSON

(Continued from First Page.)

gia, representing the active members, made response.

Colonel Stern then indicated that in the exercises of the evening he had reached the leading feature—the presentation to Captain Hobson of the beautiful fraternity pin, the gift of the fraternity. He referred to the large number of Kappa Alphas who had taken part in the Spanish-American War on land or sea. Many had served nobly when the opportunity offered. One had created the opportunity and magnificently measured up to its full requirements. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

CAPT. HOBSON'S SPEECH. When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

INSANE NEGRO GETS A PRIZE. HEAVY RAIN IN HEAD OF ELKHORN

The Times offers prizes to successful guessers of the next Menagerie animal and in Art Contests for children. See particulars in

APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT.

Important Meeting of the Street Committee. All-Day Meeting at Mt. Hermon—News.

Personal and Brief Items from Manchester.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, No. 1102 Hull Street.

KAPPA ALPHAS WELCOME HOBSON

(Continued from First Page.)

gia, representing the active members, made response.

Colonel Stern then indicated that in the exercises of the evening he had reached the leading feature—the presentation to Captain Hobson of the beautiful fraternity pin, the gift of the fraternity. He referred to the large number of Kappa Alphas who had taken part in the Spanish-American War on land or sea. Many had served nobly when the opportunity offered. One had created the opportunity and magnificently measured up to its full requirements. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

CAPT. HOBSON'S SPEECH. When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years.

When the motion picture arose to respond it was some time before the applause and uproarious ovation subsided sufficiently to permit him to proceed. When quiet was restored, he began to speak in a full, rich voice. His speech was a noble expression of the meditations of a scientist upon the profound questions which the developments of science propound. They lead to guide the seeker after truth up towards the Infinite, towards the Spiritual, thus making the life of the world of to-day capable of a larger, richer, and more noble life. He introduced Mr. Ralph H. Holland, of New York, who presented the pin to Captain Hobson. The latter, in very eloquent speech, which he referred to the Lee tablet in the Hall of Fame and the magnificent reception with which it has met at the hands of a country reunited after forty years