President Morris, of the Chamber of Commerce, has indicated his intention of calling that body together to enter a protest against the action of the Board of Aldermen. President A. H. Meyer, of the Carnival

Association, returned to the city yester-day morning from a business trip to New York, and expressed astonishment at the action of the Aldermen at their last meeting in reference to the bond of $25,-00 demanded of the Association.

"This was certainly done through a misapprehension of facts," he said. "The Association makes no dividends. It is composed of the leading and progressive cutzens, who have the interest of the city at heart. It is not a money-making scheme. Just $$,500 has been subscribed

CLAIM COMPANY'S

Motion in County Court May Give the Petersburg Line Trouble.

CITY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Plan for Legislative Primary May Be Discussed-Death of an Infant-News, Personal and Brief Items of Manchester, Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, No. 1102 Hull Street.

Further litigation confronts the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Railway Company, which in the opinion of some lawyers, who understand the phases of the questions raised, will give the company considerable trouble, and probably pany considerable trouble, and probably stop all work on the line until the next meeting of the Legislature, when a new charter may be secured. The matter comes up on a motion made in the County Court on last Monday by Mr. McIlwaine, of Petersburg, as attorney for Mr. Augustus Wright, of that city, to quash the condemnation proceedings of the railway company on the ground first, that the company's charter is invalid and therefore not a legal corporation; and, second, that if it be a corporation; and condition, it has no authority to condemn land, etc. This case was partially gone into yesterday afternoon, but continued until next Wednesday to give the attorneys more time in the case. Messrs. McIlwaine and Charles S. Page appear for Mr. Wright, while Judge Haner will look after the company's interests.

The officials of the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Railway Company claim the motion is but another turn of the opposition they have encountered from the Passenger and Power Company, and go further to show Mr. Wright a stockholder in the Petersburg Railway Company, owned by the Passenger and Power Company. The Petersburg Company has fought the new company at every point and opposed in every way its entering the city.

The City Central Committee will meet in the Mayor's court-room to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.

Chairman Robert French yesterday issued the call, stating that the business before the committee would be to arrange for the primary, which, in all probability, will be held to nominate the city's candidates for the Legislature. The majority of the committee seem to favor the primary, and will support it in the meeting. Letails will be arranged and a committee appointed to draw up the plan.

FIRED UPON FROM AMBUSH.

Mr. Talle Shot, Presumably by a Negro-Other County News.

Mr. William Talley, a Henrico farmer, was shot from the bushes Wednesday night, while on the Mechanicsville Turnmight, while on the Alechanicsville Turnpike, near his home. Drs. Leftwich and Smith extracted bullets from his left foot and right hand, but do not consider Mr. Talley's injuries serious. The assailant, who is supposed to be a negro, has not yet been arrested.

W. H. Lowe received visitors in the jail office yesterday. His son, Fred., bar-keeper in Henry Fulcher's saloon, No.

2429 East Main Street, was in to see him, and so were two neighbors of the county, one of them John E. Robinson, who has known Lowe for years.

Lowe was dressed in a blue fiannel shirt and gray trousers, and wore a broad-primmed gray felt hat. He has a full beard, rather gray, and a broad, overhanging brow. His face is, however, as far as possible from mysterious-looking, and his manner was hearty and un-affectedly cheerful. He was asking Mr. Robinson how things were down in the county, mentioning Charles Miller, who is taking care of his farm for him in his J. F. Rebinson, who has known him

J. E. Robinson, who has known him well for a long time, says he has not the faintest belief in his gullt. BRINGING MANY KICKERS.

Revenue Collector Stirring Up the Tax Payers--Custom House News.

Each day brings many "kickers" to the office of Captain Asa Rogers, Collector of Internal Revenue, who have been stirred out by the searching canvass of the city being made by the deputies sent out from the office of Colonel Ingram, revenue agent, into the byways and revenue agent, into the byways and hedges on the hunt for parties delinquent in their special taxes.

There is no doubt but that the town is being more closely worked than ever before along this line, and the letter of the law is being enforced. Many cases which have heretofore been overlooked in the discretion of the authorities are now hauled up and asked to contribute to Uncle Sam's general fund. One caller at the office recently was a gentleman having in his possession an old dilapidated pin pool-table long out of use, who had been found out by the deputies and ordered to take out a license for more than twice the table's worth.

Another case was that of an old negro, who had for years been selling to his customers on the side from his ice and coal business, a strengthening dram from a dusty jug. He appeared with jug in head to entite his case.

coal business, a strengthening dram from a dusty jug. He appeared with jug in hand to state his case.

The druggists of the city have also been reminded of license due for the sale of French brandy, while the keepers of soda-water fountains have been approached on the claret limeade question, and many of them invited to make a call at the Federal building with $25 to take out license for retailing spirituous liquors.

Captain Rogers yesterday appointed Mr. B. Taylor McCue, of this city, and Mr. W. W. Snead, of King William county, special deputy collectors. Both have been assigned to the brandy territories and will be kept in that service during the season. Mr. McCue has formerly served as deputy collector, has term having expired only last June.

Application was made Wednesday afternoon by certain creditors for the appointment of a correctiver, in the matter of noon by certain creditors for the appoint-ment of a co-receiver in the matter of L. Baroff, bankrupt, but Referee Robert H. Talley refused to make the appoint-

BUSINESS MOVEMENTS.

Great Activity in Construction Still Observable-Raab Building Almost Ready. The builders are very busy at this time, but in many instances work is being finished off, and it is thought that in a little while the congestion will have loosened and a relaxation have taken

This will not be apparent for some time, however, to the general public, for in many cases the contractors have been working short forces, and when the slightest relief comes in the way of finished jobs, the short forces are added to, and as a result the workmen continue to be as busy as before, but the various pieces of work will be completed sooner.

The Mechanics' Institute building is up to the fourth floor, and with some hustling the contractor hopes to have the roof on and everything ready for the opening of the coming season.

The Raab building, at Foushee and Broad, formerly the Meyer stores, is almost ready for occupancy, and work

The plans for the Elks' Home annex, as presented, will not be used at present, as they ask for more money in the construction than the lodge is willing to spend. An amended plan will be pre-sented at an early date, and a remodeling of the present building will be the result.

The S. A. L. and C. & O. depot on Main Street is nearing completion, and will be ready for the public before snow Many private residences in all sections of the city are being completed, as con-tracts with builders in almost all cases call for a finish before cold weather. The real estate agents are not as busy now as earlier in the summer. This is always a dull month. Moneyed people are away from town and there is little interest taken in real estate deals when capitalists are in the mountains and at the seaside. E. J. Davis has purchased from Myers & Co., of this city, the Oronco Tobacco Warehouse, located in Martinsville, the consideration being $6,500.
