

FOUGHT FOR DELAY UNAVAILABLELY

Trial of a Rich Trucker Begun in Portsmouth.

DREW PENSION FRAUDULENTLY

Negro Woman Arrested on This Charge. Preacher Criticized Norfolk Government in His Sermon on Sunday.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

NORFOLK, VA., Sept. 23.—The trial of Captain Wm. H. Buntin, a rich trucker, who, on July 23d last, during a quarrel, struck James Bell, his overseer, with a plank a blow which resulted in Bell's death, was begun at Portsmouth today.

Admiral Cotton, commander of the Norfolk Navy yard, who during the Spanish war, commanded the scout ship Yale, has gone to Washington to testify in the Schley investigation.

Norfolk Presbytery, today, upon request, dissolved pastoral relations of Rev. Edward Mack, who goes from the First Church of Norfolk to probably Shreveport, La.

Two candidates for the ministry, Mr. Merrill, of Hampton, pastor of Chesapeake Presbytery, Va., Mr. Mason, of Norfolk, to Arkansas.

Mrs. E. L. Capps, aged 59 years, and hitherto of good standing, was arrested today charged with shoplifting, stealing a waist from the store of Watt, Bettow & Clay.

DREW PENSION FRAUDULENTLY. Elizabeth Hopper (colored) was arrested today charged with having for fourteen years drawn a pension from the government, she meantime representing herself falsely to be the widow of Henry Hopper, while she is really the widow of Charles Scott.

Mrs. Bettie Smith, who was on Thursday last at Portsmouth burned by the explosion of a can of kerosene, from which she was feeding a fire, is dead. Her remains were taken to Rocky Mount, N. C. today for burial.

A stranger, a middle-aged white man, is held by the Portsmouth police, who believe he is deranged, and they seek to find his friends. He had upon his person, when apprehended, papers bearing the address No. 319 Lafayette Avenue, Newport News, and also notes that seem to indicate that a brother lives in Raleigh and a sister in Sanford, N. C.

CRITICIZED CITY GOVERNMENT. Rev. H. E. Johnson, pastor of Cumberland Street M. E. Church, in a sermon yesterday said that Norfolk's municipal government, although her people pay a million dollars a year in taxes, and the police draw sixty thousand dollars a year, is a failure because the supervision of the sale of liquor and of immorality is not accomplished. He charged the police with having in two instances, last detected walking the streets with women ill-dressed and with falling to enforce the laws.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NOTES.

A Dozen or More Will Attend the Association in Staunton.

The Virginia State Firemen's Association will meet in Staunton to-morrow, and will hold a session for three days. Some fifty or twenty representatives of Richmond's fire-fighters will attend, headed by Captain J. H. Redwood, William Kinnear, A. R. Lawrence and Mrs. Leslie McChandler. The association numbers 1,470 members and covers all the Virginia towns. It will be remembered that it met in Richmond last year. The headquarters of the association is Captain Kivlighan, of Staunton. The next meeting will probably be held in Portsmouth.

Mr. Gordon is Back.

Mr. R. Lindsay Gordon, who went up to Louisa to act as counsel for Mr. Geo. H. Brown in the suit with Mr. John Armstrong Chandler, is back in Richmond to look after his duties as a member of the constitutional convention.

Mr. Brown bought the "Hawkwood" farm when it was sold under deed of trust to secure the deferred payment due by Mr. Chandler, who bought the property from R. Lindsay Gordon.

Mr. Chandler paid $12,000 cash, giving a deed of trust for $12,000, and when it was sold at auction Mr. Brown became the purchaser for $6,000. The action now is to recover by Mr. Chandler the excess of the sum paid by Mr. Brown for the farm.

The First Baptist Church.

The First Baptist Church will be opened next Sunday after three months of extensive repair work, during which time the congregation has been assembling in the basement. Very handsome stained glass windows have been put in, the interior painted and frescoed, and the seats newly upholstered, and a new altar has been put down. The work will combine to make one of the most handsome and complete church interiors in the city.

A business session of the congregation was held last night, at which routine business was transacted.

Temperance Tent Meeting.

The temperance meetings in the tent at the corner of Floyd Avenue and Beech Streets are proving of the most successful character, the services being conducted by Dr. N. W. Tracy, the well-known Kentucky evangelist. The attendance is increasing at every service.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A Poor Relation" was played at the Academy last night with Frederick Summerfield in the role of Noah Vale. There was a fair-sized audience, and the play pleased. Last season Frank Russell appeared in this play, and now Russell in the role of the miserly inventor, Mr. Summerfield made a conscientious effort, and his work seemed satisfactory to his auditors. The cast was fairly complete throughout, and the settings were patterned after the originals.

Tao Bijou Opera.

A large audience was present at the opening of the Bijou, and it was a well-pleased audience, judging from the applause that the various acts received. There was not a weak feature on the bill. The Mortons carried off the honors of the evening. The dancing of Sam and Clara Morton was better than their comedy, but Kittle Morton was the favorite of the audience. She has a very attractive personality, and her singing and dancing were warmly received. Stuart also received a splendid reception. His songs were old, but his gowns were new and beautiful, and he sings better than ever. He received several curtain calls and finally sang a fourth song. Leon Morris' educated ponies were equally as great favorites. They were attractively trained, and the wrestling ponies created much laughter. Smith and Cheholm gave a wonderful exhibition of strength and skill. Their feats were original and some of them really new. Morris, and Stetley did some good dancing and a very little good comedy. The Tanagers in a musical specialty were very good, although the act would go better if they would cut out most of the so-called comedy.

As a special feature of the attractions at the Bijou this week Manager Wells yesterday secured the services of a moving-picture machine and a roll of films showing the scenes incident to the funeral of President McKinley. An operator with the necessary equipment will arrive here this morning, and the pictures will be shown matinee and night today and to-morrow. The pictures were completed yesterday afternoon and a few managers so advised, and the Bijou will be one of a few theatres that will exhibit them for the first time to-day.

Other Attractions.

A new dramatization of that time-honored, word-read novel "East Lynne," will be given at the Academy this afternoon and night by the actor-writer, Miss Leah Lessi, daughter of the Countess von Leach, of Austria. Miss Lessi has already written herself a strong emotional actress, and this season but adds to that reputation, as critics declare her Lady Isabel equal to that of any of the great actresses who have previously portrayed the trying dual role. Miss Lessi does not seek to occupy the center of the stage to the exclusion of other characters in the story, therefore has surrounded herself with a strong supporting company.

The appearance of that popular and sweet actress, Adelaide Thurston, in "Sweet Clover," at the Academy of Music Wednesday matinee and evening, will be the appearance of that society event, Miss Thurston and her play both bear reputations that appeal to the best class of playgoers. It is said that the costuming of "Sweet Clover" is exceptionally rich and the scenic mounting of a realistic quality. Otis B. Thayer is principal in the support of Miss Thurston.

"Winchester" the new melodrama, will receive its first production in this city at the Academy on Friday night. It is a new play, with scenes in the Shenandoah Valley, and, like most plays of its kind, has to do with the love of a Southern girl for a Northern officer, who always gives just in time, in spite of her great devotion to the South, to save her lover from calamity or death. The end of each act is certain to arouse rounds of applause, when the actors work up to a proper climax.

THE WORDS OF GOD OUR ONLY HOPE

This Alone Can Make Our Nation Moral and Safe.

DR. KERR ON BUFFALO TRAGEDY

In a Sermon on the Nation's Sorrow He Draws Some Practical Lessons from the President's Assassination.

A great congregation assembled at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening to hear the sermon of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Robert P. Kerr, on the Nation's Sorrow. The text of the discourse was Psalm 107, 19-20. Dr. Kerr said, in part: "For the third time in our generation the people are called upon to mourn the death of an American President. William McKinley was stricken down by the hand of an anarchist, who, presumably, had not personal grudge against him, but who, like all of his kind, are placed in the van of the whole social order. It was the black bloom of anarchy. It would have been a violation of law to have torn the wretch to pieces on the spot, and the fact that he was spared is due to the supremacy of the social order he tried to destroy, and was a vindication of the majesty of the law which is the basis of our national life."

"William McKinley was an able, conscientious and patriotic statesman, and, above all, a devout Christian, faithful in every relation, public and private, and whose name is written in our national history in letters of gold. While he lay suffering, millions prayed that he might live, but it was decreed that he should die, as he said: 'It is God's will. His will be done.' God answered the nation's prayer in that he gave his servant grace to submit to his will, and to die in such a way as to impress mankind with the power of Christian faith and sympathy."

"Moreover, his death occasioned such a demonstration of universal sorrow and sympathy as showed the oneness of the nation; the oneness of the American people, and, indeed, of all mankind, the like of which has not been seen before. Political, sectional, national, social differences were all forgotten and all people were united in grief and sympathy. In Canada there was a marvelous demonstration of grief on the part of the Crown Prince and Princess, then visiting there, and of all the people that Americans will not forget. The universal sorrow was of a deep, religious character. All felt that God had spoken, and the feeling was: 'The Lord is in his holy temple, let all the earth keep silence before him.' It showed in a surprising way what a vast faith underlies the life of mankind, a faith which calls upon God in timely trouble. And the people did call upon the name of the Lord."

SHOULD MAKE US HUMBLE.

"This whole sad history should have the effect of making us humble. As a nation, we have been too proud and boastful of our wealth and greatness. It should also cause us to look at the things of national life what it should be. Have we not become irreverent towards law, authority of all kinds, the Sabbath, the civil magistrates and God? It is a question how much greater reverence and respect we should have for the part of fanatics. At any rate, this appalling calamity should make us feel the absolute importance of teaching all the youth of the nation the word of God, which alone can make a nation moral and keep them safe. May it be said of us: 'They cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses. He sent his word, and healed them, and saved them from their destructions.'"

WEALTHY HEIRESS ELOPES.

Miss Duke Becomes Bride of a Richmond Drummer—Couple Here.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 23.—Mabel Duke, daughter of Mr. Broadie Duke, of Durham, eloped with Mr. H. R. Goodall, of Richmond, Sunday afternoon, and they were united in marriage that evening at 8 o'clock at the Albemarle Hotel, in this city. Rev. W. D. Hubbard, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating. Mr. R. L. Stevens was best man and Miss Blanche Blakey, a popular society lady of Raleigh, was an attendant. Mr. and Mrs. Goodall left this morning for Richmond, where they will make their home.

Mr. Goodall travels for the Owens and Minor Drug Company, of Richmond. Immediately after the ceremony the bride telegraphed her father at Durham that she was married. The cause of the elopement was that Mr. Duke was very much opposed to the marriage.

Mr. Goodall went into Durham on one train and left on the next with his bride elect. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. Broadie Duke, one of North Carolina's wealthiest heireses, and is popular in social circles.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT Expects to Visit Georgia Before Expiration of His Term.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt was at the White House early today. He walked over from the residence of his brother-in-law, Commander Cowley. A large number called to pay their respects to the President, and Representative Lester of Georgia.

President Roosevelt's mother lived at Roswell, in Mr. Lester's district, and several of his relatives reside at Savannah. In reply to Mr. Lester's expressions of the personal interest of the Georgia people felt in his success, the President said he expected to be able to make a visit to Georgia before the expiration of his term.

The personal effects of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley at the White House are being packed and forwarded to Canton.

HAVE NO SUCH FUNDS. Uncle and Brother of Oberlin Carter Summoned to Court.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Lorenzo D. Carter and I. Stanley Carter, uncle and brother of Oberlin M. Carter, have been ordered by Judge Kohlsaat in the Federal Court, to show cause, on or before October 23, why they should not be punished for contempt for failure to turn over to Receiver Max Whitney the funds of Captain Carter, which are said to be in their possession.

This order was entered in the United States Circuit Court to-day, notwithstanding the sworn statements of the Carters, that they had no funds, and were representing a part of the funds said to have been embezzled by their relative.

INSURGENTS WERE WARNED. Commander of the Machias Told Them to Take Care.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Official advice received by the State Department from the United States consul at Colon says that on the 3d instant he received from the insurgent commander a letter

What Makes the Home?

Not the house, however fine it may be; not its furniture, pictures and appointments. The wife and mother makes the home, and to speak of going home means to go into the shelter of the mother's love and care.

And when womanly life saps the mother's strength, the home-life suffers. The food is not cooked as she cooks it. Everywhere the lack of wisely supervision and motherly thoughtfulness is apparent.

What a change, then, when this wife and mother comes back to take her old place in the family. Thousands of women who, before the onset of womanly ills, had been shut out of home life and home happiness, have been enabled to once more take their place in the family after being cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"I commenced taking your 'Favorite Prescription' or 'Golden Medical Discovery' about the 10th of December, one year ago," writes Mrs. Eliza Wright, of Mountaineer, Howell Co., Missouri. "I have been very slow about writing to you, although I am thankful I am here today and have the privilege of saying I thank you for the kind advice and your medicine and the will of the Lord that I am now in better health than I have been for three years. I have taken one-half dozen bottles of your medicine, and I am able to do my washing for four in family, and all my housework, cooking and milking. In fact, I feel like a new woman."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its almost countless complications. They do not react on the system nor beget the pill habit.

announcing a contemplated attack upon Colon. The letter was sent immediately to the commander of the U. S. Marines. The consul informed the insurgent commander by letter that any interference with the free transit of the Isthmus would be a violation of the treaty rights of the United States, and that this government would act accordingly.

Subsequently, upon the arrival of a small force of Colombian troops, the insurgent force decamped.

(By Associated Press.) SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Sept. 23.—Eight new cases of yellow fever have developed among the crew of the British steamer Ethel Brytha, which arrived here September 19th from Jacksonville, with three cases of the fever on board. The eleven sufferers are being treated at the yellow fever hospital, and all are doing well.

The remainder of the crew, twenty-six in all, are in quarantine on the faming-gate ship Rough Rider. The cargo of the Ethel Brytha, consisting of railroad ties intended for the Cuba Company, has been fumigated twice and has been released.

WARRANTS FOR PROMINENT MEN

They Are Charged With Robbing an Old Soldier of His Money.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Sept. 23.—Warrants were issued to-day for the arrest of the most prominent young men in Hampton, charging them with highway robbery. It is alleged in the warrants that Jones and Lawson stole $15 in gold from Will Martin, an old soldier from the Home.

Martin came to Hampton Thursday night. He claims that when he started home the young men were with him and that when they crossed the Hampton bridge one of them threw him down and held him, while the other took his money from him. He was found two hours later in a critical condition, and is now in the hospital. The young men cannot be found. The affair has created a great sensation in Hampton.

Impaled Horse on Pole of Wagon. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) KING GEORGE COUNTY, Sept. 23.—At the recent meeting of the Board of Supervisors of King George county, the levy for the coming year was completed for the fiscal year beginning June 30. The tax levy was made the same as last year, viz: Sixty per cent, on every $100 of personal estate, and fifty cent on every lighthable person.

A young man named Ellis in riding very rapidly along the public highway on Saturday ran into a wagon to which two horses were hitched. The pole of the wagon ran through the side of the horse young Ellis was riding, and injured it so severely it had to be killed. The driver was thrown and knocked insensible, but was not seriously injured. The horses of the wagon were quite badly scared.

WILL CONTINUE PRACTICE. North Atlantic Squadron Will Remain in Virginia Waters Indefinitely.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NORFOLK, VA., September 23.—The North Atlantic squadron will remain hereabouts for an indefinite period, certainly for a week or two, unless something shall occur to change present plans. This was ascertained definitely to-night by the correspondent from a source which may not be questioned. Reports to the contrary in print and aboard the battleships prove to have been incorrect. The squadron will, on Wednesday or Thursday next, should the weather be favorable, and some targets now being constructed at the Norfolk Navy yard be completed, proceed to Lynnhaven Bay to conduct operations. The practice interrupted by the news of the death of President McKinley.

There will be no tests by the squadron of the relative merits of the single and the superimposed turrets. That question, one who knows says, was settled so far as it may be until the two types may be tested in battle with opposing war ships, while the Kearsarge was under command of Captain Folger.
