the matter of the request of the Republicans for a joint debate between Messrs. Montague and Hoge. It is stated that it is probable that no further action will be taken, and that the matter will rest where it is.

Hon. George Y. Hunley, of Mathews, was in the city yesterday. He is making an active canvass of his county and Gloucester for re-election to the House. "There is not much enthusiasm on either side, and the vote will probably be small," said he.

Major John T. Cowan, of Montgomery, member of the House of Delegates from that county and Democratic nominee for re-election to the House, was on the floor of the convention yesterday and was warmly greeted by his friends.

Judge W. L. Jeffries, of the County Court of Culpeper, in the city. He is engaged in private business, and will leave for his home this afternoon.

Hon. H. R. Polard said the speech of "Cyclone Jim" Marshall at Louisa has ever listened to. "It will do our party much good," he added.

Mr. D. Lawrence Groner, the Republican nominee for Attorney-General, was here yesterday and expressed himself as very much pleased with the outlook.

SUPPER FOR CAR MEN.

Passenger and Power Employees to Be Entertained.

The Passenger and Power Company will give a very pleasant entertainment to all of its employees in every department at the Masonic Temple at 12 o'clock next Friday night.

It is proposed by the company to invite all of its men to a supper to be furnished by Colonel Murphy. This late hour is fixed upon because otherwise a large number of the men would be unable to attend.

The Richmond Passenger and Power Company feels that this record of having had not one single accident or serious mishap, even to its cars, during the entire week is most remarkable and that this is a most fitting time for a general justification.
