WARFARE AGAINST TICKET SCALPING

Ticket and Passenger Agents to Take Vigorous Action.

CONVENTION AT ASHEVILLE.

Many Courtesies Extended Those Present. Minister Wu Responded to a Toast at a Banquet Tended by the Southern Railway.

(By Associated Press.) ASHEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 16.—Vigorous warfare against ticket scalping is to be waged by the American Association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents, which opened its annual convention here to-day.

Seven new members were admitted to the Association, among them being H. Hardwick, general passenger agent of the Southern Railway, and F. C. Smith, general passenger agent of the Oahu Railway, the railroad in Hawaii.

The discussion of the ticket fraud question was precipitated by the presentation of two reports, one by George H. Daniels, of the New York Central, on anti-scalping legislation, and the other by F. C. Donald, of the Western Traffic Association, on the establishment of a protective bureau.

The propositions involved in the report were so important that the entire subject was made a special order for to-morrow.

S. W. Cummings, of the Vermont Central, presented the report of a committee recommending the organization of a life insurance benefit, insuring the members of the association. The proposition was opposed vigorously and finally went over until to-morrow.

An invitation was received by the association from Colonel B. Hemphill, of Charleston, S. C., to visit Charleston on Friday as the guests of the promoters of the Charleston and West India Exposition. It is likely that many of the members will avail themselves of the opportunity to visit Charleston.

This evening, on invitation of Mr. Vanderbilt, the entire party took a carriage drive to Baltimore. Mr. Vanderbilt's immense estate.

This evening the members were tendered a banquet by the Southern Railway at the Battery Park Hotel. It was an elaborate and beautiful function. Those who responded to toasts were: Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister; Mr. Turk, assistant manager of the Southern Railway; F. E. Boothby, of the Maine Central Railway; P. S. Eustis, of the Burlington Route, and George H. Daniels, general passenger agent of the New York Central.

The evening's entertainment was concluded by a hop.

GREETED HIS PALLBEARERS.

Arrangements Made to Bury Man Who Was Not Dead.

A strange story comes from Bluefield, W. Va., of all arrangements being made to bury Captain E. M. Lyons, a conductor on the New River Division of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, before he was dead.

He was Western injured in an accident at Eckman last Monday night, and the telegraph operator at that place wired his home that Captain Lyons had been crushed in the wreck and to prepare for his arrival.

The message as read to the conductor's wife left her under the impression that her husband had been killed, and caused her to allow an undertaker's wagon to meet the train to convey her husband's remains to the home. When the train upon which the remains were supposed to be arrived and the man whom the hearse awaited had been unburied from the car, his pallbearers stood aghast.

His injuries were only slight and he is now recovering.

ENJOY YOURSELF

Feel good towards all of the world. This is easily said, but how can you do it when your body is sick? If you want a good feeling towards everybody you have to feel well yourself.

Good health is the basis of all enjoyment. Pile up money, obtain a reputation as a lawyer or doctor or an expert in any line and then wind up with poor health, what have you got? Bowel trouble, constipation, causes more trouble than all other diseases together.

It is indeed the root of all physical ailments, and you will never feel well and enjoy life as long as you suffer with constipation. It does not make any difference what your disease is, if you want to get your health back, start out from the very foundation of all good health and set your bowels right.
