KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

MR. GOODE IS A GOOD RULER.

Last night that he was so much discouraged at the failure to secure a single change in the convention from the action of the Committee of the Whole...

When the Bill of Rights shall have been adopted, the coast will be clear for the legislative department report...

The Committee on Education was prevented from holding a session yesterday afternoon by reason of the session of the convention...

The general assembly shall apply the annual interest on the Literary Fund, that portion of the capitation tax provided for in this constitution...

Each county, city and town (if the same be a separate school division), is hereby authorized to raise additional moneys by a tax on property within their respective limits...

A strong effort was made in the convention yesterday to have that body adjourn without pay until Thursday, November 8th.

Mr. Meredith made the motion and there were a number of amendments and then all the propositions were passed by a majority.

There is hardly a reasonable doubt, however, that the matter will be brought up and settled as early as possible.

The pages of the convention will meet to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a Pages' Club.

Col. Joseph Button, secretary of the convention, created a great laugh during the afternoon session.

The subcommittee, composed of Messrs. Withers, Walker and Eggleston, which was recently appointed by Chairman Hunton, of the Judiciary Committee...

Delegate Wood Bouldin, of Halifax, made his maiden speech in the convention yesterday afternoon.

Chairman Ayers and Messrs. Eggleston, Portlock, Waddill, Moncreu, C. J. Campbell, Cobb, Hardy and Yancey went to Petersburg Friday to inspect the Central State Hospital...

Judge Ingram and several other members of the convention accompanied the committee, and all were well pleased with the management of the institution.

At 2 o'clock speaking was again resumed by Mr. P. H. Dillard and ex-State Senator W. H. Hale...

SWANSON MAKES OPENING SPEECH

The Montague Club for a glorious time and a field day for Democracy.

There was great disappointment, however, over the failure of Colonel Willard and Delegate Charles M. Wallace to be present.

About one thousand people were present, and after the speaking a sumptuous repast was served.

A large crowd was addressed in the courthouse here to-night by Delegate Charles M. Wallace, who was delayed and only reached here at 6 o'clock this evening.

CHASE CITY ACADEMY EQUIPPED WITH CABLE PIANOS.

GREAT VICTORY FOR THE CABLE COMPANY.

Hardly does a week pass but that The Cable Company has a great sale to record from some well-known institution in the Virginias or Carolinas.

In each case it is clearly shown that the Cable Pianos are superior in tone, durability and artistic design to other makes.

Then again, people as well as institutions are awakening to the many advantages that wait them in dealing direct with the makers.

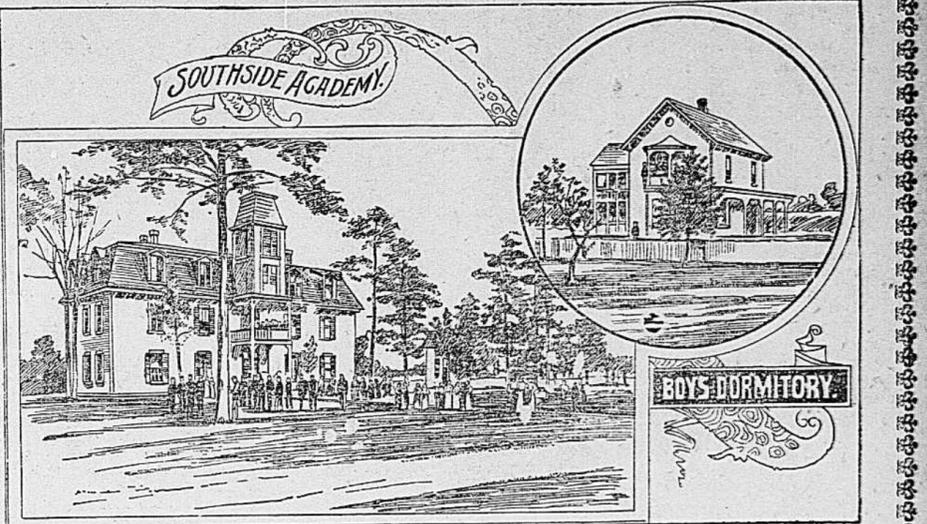

Mr. T. H. King, principal of this progressive Southern School, after investigating the many different makes of pianos on the market, decided that the Cable Piano embraced every quality necessary to withstand the hard usages of school work.

Then again, the irresistible tone quality of the Cable was a feature not overlooked by Mr. King and his able corps of teachers.

Would do well to be governed in the selection of Pianos by the advice and experience of large institutions, making investments involving large sums of money, and who, at the same time, must have the best instrument to be obtained.

AN ARREST MADE IN O'BRIEN CASE (Continued From First Page.)

o'clock at his home on Chelsea Hill, was brought to the courthouse, and was immediately locked up.

When questioned "Squire James T. Ledyard, whom the warrant was issued, informed Mr. Edwards that he could not then consider the question of bail.

Mr. Smith, when seen after his interview with Edwards, didn't have much to say, but such utterances as he made were emphatic.

When Mrs. Edwards came down after her talk with her husband there was a considerable commotion.

Mrs. Edwards' statement was earnest and straightforward. She told how Mr. Edwards had worked off end on at the Locomotive Works for years, stating that he was still employed there.

There is no doubt about it! There is no thinking or supposing in the case. I know (with a strong emphasis on the word) that my husband did not kill Mr. O'Brien, either accidentally or otherwise.

Then Mrs. Edwards went on her way, leaving the reporter profoundly impressed with the truth of her words.

OTHER CHARGE NOT BROUGHT. No charge has been made against Edwards of having fired the shot that struck C. Manly Parker, another Locomotive Works' employe, a few minutes before O'Brien was killed.

HAD PLEASANT TRIP. Governor and Party Spent Day at Newport News.

The Governor and his party returned from Newport News about 8 o'clock last night. They spent a most delightful day at the city at the mouth of the James.

There was a great crowd to witness her launching on the steamer Siberra, which was christened by Miss Belle Tyler.

The gubernatorial party made the trip in a private car. His Excellency was greatly pleased with his reception.

One of the party said: "Miss Tyler was not a bit excited. Her aim was good, and the bottle of champagne was completely smashed against the side of the steamer as it slid down the ways."

waited until to-day to hold their Ohio convention and to try their platform.

Senator Hanna spoke in part as follows: "I am not going to retire from politics or public life. (Applause, during which someone in the country to-day as affecting those who have the responsibility. (Prolonged applause.)

After repeated demonstrations the Senator continued: "I am going to stay there and see Nash and Foraker and they through, if it takes ten years. (Loud cheers.) We will stay with you. (Cheers.) This is no time to bring into the contest any side issues of State affairs such as taxation, three cent fares, Henry George theories, or anything else of that kind."

After this reference to Mayor Johnson, Senator Hanna urged his hearers to continue the regular State administration in power on the principle, "let well enough alone." "Continue the conditions as they are to-day," said the Senator, "and if Ohio goes as she ought to go, 100,000 plurality for Governor Nash will be created in connection with the election of the mind among financial circles among the great commercial and industrial interests, that will add strength to the foundations of our prosperity, which will make it lasting, not one year, nor two years, but as Senator Foraker has said, for fifty years."

ENTERTAINED BY DR. M'VICKER. Washington Said to Have Been Received by Him in Philadelphia.

There is, perhaps, no subject more generally discussed in Richmond than the dining of Booker T. Washington at the White House in Washington by President Roosevelt.

Whenever one goes he is sure to hear some comments upon the incident. The white Republican leaders, for obvious reasons, will not consent to be quoted, but some of them privately express themselves in no unmistakable terms.

The Democrats, as a rule, think the President has furnished them with material for excellent campaign speeches. Members of the Congressional Convention and liberal yesterday in their criticisms of the President, as will be seen by interviews with them printed in to-day's Times.

A Virginian of well known family, now residing in Philadelphia, in discussing this matter at Murphy's Hotel last night said: "This is not the first time that Booker Washington has been received in high social circles. Not very long ago a party of which Bishop McVicker, of the Quaker City, and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., were members, went through the industrial, speaking and lecturing in Tuskegee, Ala., and were greatly impressed with the work Washington is doing there.

Washington came to Philadelphia soon thereafter and was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the Bishop's residence. I may readily be mistaken, but I believe that John Wanamaker has entertained Washington in Philadelphia."

Nearly every prominent official of the United States offices here, when seen yesterday in their respective offices in the Custom House building, expressed deep surprise and sincere regret at the neglect of the President. Most of them acknowledged that the President could not have done anything which would have more certainly injured his party at this time, when the leaders are earnestly working to advance his interests in this State.

Prominent Republicans here seem to be evidently rejoicing at the universal condemnation the President is receiving from Washington a Richmond.

Booker Washington has been to Richmond frequently. On the occasion of his last visit here, which was during the extra session of the Legislature last winter, he made an address in the Academy of Music. The audience was composed largely of white people. He made a splendid impression. Washington pleaded with the representatives of his race to pay less attention to politics and save money and acquire property.

The well-known Campbell & Co., who have pleased the public for so many years with the best photographs made in Richmond, have reopened an attractive studio at No. 329 East Broad Street, where you can get a beautifully finished cabinet-sized photograph as low as 35 cents per dozen. Having secured one of the best operators in New York city, you will certainly receive the finest work ever produced in Richmond. We will be pleased to have the public call and see the work.
