

RANGE OF THERMOMETER.
The thermometer ranged as follows at The Times office yesterday: 9 A. M. 61; 12 M. 65; 3 P. M. 71; 6 P. M. 67; 9 P. M. 62; 12 midnight, 60. Average, 64.8.

VOL 16 NO 221

FINE MEETING ON CHURCH HILL

Hunter, Gordon and Parks Score Republicans.

MAKE GOOD SPEECHES

Declare That No White Man Will Lose His Vote.

RECORDS OF PUBLIC EDUCATION.

They Are Compared and Republican Statements Are Rebutted as to This and Suffrage—President Roosevelt Touched Up—and Democratic Nominations Praised—Political Notes and Gossip.

The second of the series of Democratic rallies for this city was held at the coronal hall last night, the orators being Delegates Eppa Hunton, Jr., R. Lindsay Gordon, and R. S. Parks. A good sized crowd was present and J. A. J. Band discoursed sweet music.

Among the prominent leaders on the stage and in the audience were: President Gordon, Mayor Taylor, Captain R. S. Parks, Delegates Barbour and Richardson, Mr. John M. Higgins, Judge D. C. Richardson, Mr. F. A. Bowers, Judges Turnbull, Jones, and Lovell, Messrs. Moore, Green, and Fairfax, Judge W. S. Gooch, Gordon, O'Neil, Smith, of Alexandria; Moore, of Fairfax, and Colonel George Wayne Anderson.

The speakers were all in fine trim and the meeting was most successful. They went over Messrs. Pedigo, Summers, T. L. Moore, Hoge and Roosevelt in particular, and other Republican leaders in general, and in common parlance they fairly made the wool fly. All they fairly made the wool fly. All they fairly made the wool fly.

"I want to strike him from the political arena," the speaker declared, "and at one fell swoop, and place the white people once and forever safely in control of the State." "They all said striking and many of them, Mr. Hunton, after paying his respects to Messrs. Summers and Pedigo without mincing words, said: "We may take them from us, but we will not let them go. We will not let them go. We will not let them go."

Mr. Gordon said: "If it be true that Roosevelt, after insulting the white people of the South by having a negro dine with him at the White House, is amused at the criticisms he has introduced in the Times, I would like to see him. I would like to see him. I would like to see him."

All the speeches were "red hot" and they were loudly cheered by the audience. Chairman Doherty called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock and introduced Mr. Justice D. C. Richardson, who presided and presented the distinguished orators of the evening, Mr. Richardson made a brief but eloquent appeal to his neighbors and friends to strike down the negro and to help to roll up an old-fashioned majority in Richmond on November 5th.

In closing he introduced Hon. Eppa Hunton, Jr., of Fairfax, who came from the audience. It was Mr. Hunton's first appearance before a political audience in Richmond, and he spoke with great earnestness and ability, and was listened to with great attention. He often loudly cheered by his enthusiastic hearers. Mr. Hunton devoted himself almost exclusively to a discussion of State issues, and he handled them with characteristic ability.

"By their fruits shall ye judge them," was his text as he went on to review the administration of government by the Democratic party in Virginia, and said if the party had not been faithful to the people he would not ask his hearers to support their ticket in this election. He said the party presented to the people a clean sheet and had given them an honest administration of the public affairs since they had come into power.

SETTLED THE STATE LEFT.

Mr. Hunton pointed out that they had settled the public debt and that now the credit of the State was admirable and her bonds were in great demand. He said there were 1,200 more public schools in the State now than a few years ago, and $2,000,000 were expended yearly for this purpose, which was the largest of any State in the Union when total incomes were considered.

Training schools for male teachers had been provided, and appropriations were continued to William and Mary College for this purpose. Coming to a discussion of pensions, Mr. Hunton paid a glowing tribute to the Confederate soldier, and said the State was contributing $170,000 yearly to the care of the old soldiers and their widows.

He referred to the fact that the Democratic party, under the leadership of Mr. Montague, had declared for an employers' liability bill and that the coming Legislature would carry it into effect.

WHITE SUPREMACY.

Mr. Hunton went for the Republican party in a severe but genteel manner, and created great enthusiasm by declaring that the proper name for the Republican party was the "black" Republican party and always would be. He said the great issue was whether the white people should continue to control the affairs of this State or whether the "black" Republican party should come into power. He referred to the speeches of Republicans in the convention and said the whole trend there among them was to refer to the negro like that which prevailed in the South among the members of that party. He read the speech of Colonel Summers, in which he had declared that negroes were as good as white men, and scored the party to which that gentleman belonged with gloves on.

On speaking of Mr. T. L. Moore's statement that his father was a Confederate soldier, but that he was glad the Confederacy had failed, Mr. Hunton said he would die before he would see the son of a Confederate soldier, would stand before an audience and utter such a sentiment. Mr. Hunton then came to Mr. Pedigo's speech and fairly tore it in shreds. He referred to the men as "old Pedigo" and "old Summers."

He said if anything would down the Underwood Constitution it was that Pedigo endorsed it. He said Summers was a sort of a good natured, irresponsible fellow, who made wandering speeches, while the speech of Pedigo was a studied slander upon the people of Virginia. He said Mr. T. L. Moore had by his silence endorsed the speech of Pedigo, while he had faintly repudiated that of Summers, and that Mr. Moore had named J. Hampton Hoge for Governor and wanted to foist Pedigo's ideas upon the people of Virginia. He discussed the reconstruction period in the South, and showed that Confederate soldiers and one-half of the white people of Virginia were disfranchised under military rule.

Continuing, Mr. Hunton said: "We have considered them from Pedigo, the lowest, through Summers and Moore, and the end is not yet. We find a few days ago the President of the United States and Booker Washington dining together in the White House on 'possum and sweet potatoes.'" There was great applause at this reference to the dinner, and it was some time before the speaker could proceed.

In conclusion, Mr. Hunton asked if the white people of Virginia were willing to trust the Pedigos, the Moores, the Summers and the Roosevelts to run the government of this State, he said he would continue to trust the people of their own race. He assured his hearers, taking another moment, that no white man would be disfranchised as a result of the convention work, and counselled patience, and thought it would end well for the white people of Virginia.

RICHMOND, VA. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1901

STARS AND BARS IN PETERSBURG

Confederate Flags Entwined With Old Glory.

CHEERFUL WELCOME

To the Thousands of Confederate Veterans and Visitors.

MANY BEAUTIFUL DECORATIONS.

Governor Tyler to Be Entertained by the Petersburg Club in its Handsome New Quarters—Business Houses and Schools Will Close in Honor of the Veterans' Visit—Central State Hospital.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
PETERSBURG, Va., Oct. 22.—The final arrangements have been made for the meeting of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans, which will assemble in Petersburg to-morrow. A very large attendance of delegates from the various camps in the State is expected, as all indications point that way. The city is beautifully decorated in honor of the visiting veterans. The streets are brilliantly lighted, and red and white bunting and Confederate battle flags, as well as the stars and stripes, wave from every building.

Private residences in every part of the city are elaborately decorated for the occasion. All the veterans, military organizations and others who will be in the city to take part in the grand parade on Thursday will be given lunch at the Farmers' Warehouse, which has been fitted up for the occasion.

TO ENTERTAIN GOVERNOR.

Governor Tyler, who is to visit Petersburg to attend the meeting of the Grand Camp, will be entertained by the Petersburg Club Wednesday evening at their handsome furnished rooms on Spycamore Street. It is hoped that Governor Tyler will make an address before the Grand Camp at one of its sessions.

The banks, freight depots and business houses will close Thursday. The public schools will give holiday on Wednesday and Thursday.

REMARKS ON ANNIVERSARY.

Petersburgers generally have expressed themselves as highly gratified at the Times in the Confederate reunion, and handsome interest shown by the some of them have written letters congratulating and thanking The Times for the splendid display of the reunion arrangements in its columns, as follows:

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 21, 1901.
Editor of The Times, Richmond, Va.:
Sir,—The A. P. Hill Camp of Veterans and all connected with them are loud in their praise of the Richmond Times for the handsome display that was given in your issue of the 19th inst. in connection with the reunion of the Grand Camp in Petersburg last Sunday's issue. They recognize the time, trouble and expense involved in such an undertaking, to say nothing of the interest that must have prompted it. While our local newspapers have been most generous in their commendation to all these matters, we especially appreciate such favors from the press of other cities, in recognition of the fact that this is an occasion in which the whole State is interested.

Yours truly,
CARTER B. BISHOP,
JUDGE MULLEN,
Petersburg, Va., Oct. 21, 1901.
Editor of The Times, Richmond, Va.:
Dear Sir,—So many have spoken in commendation of the excellent account in Sunday's Times of the reunion of the Confederate veterans to be held in Petersburg this week, that I wish to assure you of the appreciation manifested for the interest that paper took in the occasion.

Yours very truly,
J. M. MULLEN,
COMMANDER HARWOOD.
Among those who wrote letters thanking The Times was W. E. Harwood, commander of A. P. Hill Camp Confederate Veterans, who, as hosts of the reunion, appreciate the aid of The Times. Petersburg, Va., Oct. 21, 1901.
Editor of The Times, Richmond, Va.:
Sir,—Confederate veterans, citizens, all are loud in their praise of the splendid account contained in your Sunday paper of the reunion to be held in Petersburg this week. The account, I can assure you, was appreciated by every one interested in the coming reunion.

Yours very truly,
W. E. HARWOOD.
MANY WILL GO FROM HERE.

Richmond to Be Largely Represented at the Grand Camp Meeting.

Richmond will be well represented at the Grand Camp meeting in Petersburg this week. A large number of veterans will go over to-day and much greater numbers to-morrow. The attendance from this city will probably be larger than at any previous session of the Grand Camp. The delegations from Lee and Pickett Camps will go over this morning on the 9:30 train and the two camps will go over to-morrow with full ranks to take part in the parade, which promises to be an imposing affair. The camps and the First Battalion of the Seventh Regiment will take the 11:15 train. The veterans from the Soldiers' Home will also go to Petersburg to-morrow and mingle with their old comrades in arms. Seventy or more will probably make the trip and the day will mean more to them than to any others in attendance. J. A. J. Band will accompany Lee Camp, while the battalion will have Stein's Band.

Governor Tyler will go over this evening accompanied by Colonels Skilton, Cameron, Carrington, Pleasants and Tennant, and by Colonel J. Lane Stern, assistant inspector-general, Colonel Mann, of Nottoway; Harman, of Pulaski, and Moore, of Wythe, will meet the party in Petersburg. A dozen saddles, for the use of the Governor and staff, were shipped yesterday. The horses to be ridden in the parade will be furnished by Petersburg citizens.

Advance in Wages Granted.

(By Associated Press.)
FALL RIVER, MASS., Oct. 22.—Notices have been posted in the Iron Works Cotton Mills increasing wages 5 per cent, to take effect November 4th. This is the

RICHMOND, VA. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1901

PANIC CAUSED BY CRY OF FIRE

Many Hurt in Mad Rush From Theatre.

ROLLED DOWN STEPS.

Weaker Were Knocked Down and Trampled Under Foot.

ONE WILL PROBABLY DIE.

Ushers, Theatre Attaches and Actors Displayed Great Coolness and Prevented Much Greater Catastrophe—There Was No Fire, Scare Being Caused by Bumping Out of a Fuse.

(By Associated Press.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

Every incoming train to-day has brought crowds of people from all parts. There are already ten thousand visitors here.

Tarboro, S. Suffolk, Va.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—In a warmly contested football game at Tarboro, N. C., this afternoon, the Suffolk team was beaten by the home eleven five to nothing. Powell made the winning touchdown.

NORFOLK CASE IS NOT SETTLED

Executive Committee Fails to Act and Both Tickets to Remain in the Field.

There will be two sets of Democratic candidates in Norfolk county at the election on the 5th of November, because the State Democratic Executive Committee last night declined to decide the regularity or the irregularity of the Coleman and the Cromwell factions. The committee was present for several hours thrashed over the old straw of the factional troubles. There was present barely a quorum. Those in attendance were Chairman Ellison, Congressman Jones, Kelly, Walter A. Watson and Edward E. Marshall.

The meeting was held in Mr. Ellison's private office. There were on hand some twenty-five or thirty persons from Norfolk county. Mr. Cromwell, the nominee for the Senate, and Mr. Owens, for the House, representatives of the so-called Coleman faction, were present. Sheriff A. C. Cromwell was on hand in the interest of his brother's cause. Colonel R. C. Marshall was there to do the talking for the Cromwell element.

Mr. C. W. Coleman, Mr. G. W. Jones and many others were in attendance at the meeting. The meeting was held in Mr. Ellison's private office. There were on hand some twenty-five or thirty persons from Norfolk county. Mr. Cromwell, the nominee for the Senate, and Mr. Owens, for the House, representatives of the so-called Coleman faction, were present. Sheriff A. C. Cromwell was on hand in the interest of his brother's cause. Colonel R. C. Marshall was there to do the talking for the Cromwell element.

When the committee first heard this case it decided in favor of the Cromwell faction. A rehearing was granted the Coleman people, who are anxious to have every member of the committee pass upon the contest. There were only six members present last night. Colonel Marshall, as spokesman for the Cromwell faction, briefly protested against reopening the case without a full attendance of the members. After he had spoken the committee retired into executive session. Nearly two hours were spent in conference. Finally the candidates were called in. It is understood that each side was asked if it would abide the action of the committee. The Coleman people said they would. Mr. Cromwell and his friends asked for time to confer, which was granted. After the matter had been talked over, Colonel Marshall stated, on behalf of the Cromwell faction, that they would adhere to their former position; that was, that they were willing to abide by a decision of the entire committee, but on the other side having gotten the rehearsal upon the ground that all the members were not present at the first hearing.

The representatives of both factions retired, and very soon thereafter the members of the committee came out of Mr. Ellison's private office and the chairman read to the assembled representatives of both factions the following, which had been adopted:

"Whereas, the petition of those asking a rehearing of the Norfolk county case based in part upon the desire to have the judgment of a full committee; and whereas, the other side to the controversy have this day protested against a rehearing without a full attendance of the same; and whereas, after two unsuccessful efforts to secure the regularity of the committee, it is apparent that it is wholly impossible that there can be secured any larger attendance at any date prior to the election; therefore, it is

Resolved by this committee, That it is inexpedient for us to consider the case to-night, but that we will, after the election, call a meeting of the committee and endeavor to secure a full attendance of its members to pass upon the regularity of the party organization in Norfolk county.

Mr. G. W. Jones asked Mr. Ellison if the candidates are recognized as regular or as irregular, but that all will stand upon an equal footing?"

"Are we to understand that none of the candidates are recognized as regular or as irregular, but that all will stand upon an equal footing?"

"That is my interpretation of the action taken," replied the Chairman.

"The action, too, was unanimous," remarked Congressman Jones.

Mr. Watson explained that the committee having agreed to reopen the case and then decided that it was inexpedient to settle it, left the matter where it was originally. In other words, there will be two sets of Democratic candidates in Norfolk county, and whichever way one will be admitted to the party caucus.

RICHMOND, VA. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1901

INSURRECTION IN SAMAR.

New York Has Sailed to Land Detachment of Marines.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Navy Department has received the following cablegram from Rear-Admiral Rogers: "Cavite, October 22. "Secretary Navy, Washington: "Active Insurrection in Samar. New York leaves to-day for Catlogan with 300 marines to return to Basey and Balangiga to co-operate with army. Nearly all naval force concentrated on Samar patrol. Services of Thusa and Sanitro, two colliers needed and being utilized. (Signed) "ROGERS."

Naval officials construe the dispatch to mean that the New York will go first to Catlogan and then to Basey and Balangiga, landing detachments of marines at each point.

Flagman Kelley Killed.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

Every incoming train to-day has brought crowds of people from all parts. There are already ten thousand visitors here.

Tarboro, S. Suffolk, Va.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—In a warmly contested football game at Tarboro, N. C., this afternoon, the Suffolk team was beaten by the home eleven five to nothing. Powell made the winning touchdown.

PANIC CAUSED BY CRY OF FIRE

Many Hurt in Mad Rush From Theatre.

ROLLED DOWN STEPS.

Weaker Were Knocked Down and Trampled Under Foot.

ONE WILL PROBABLY DIE.

Ushers, Theatre Attaches and Actors Displayed Great Coolness and Prevented Much Greater Catastrophe—There Was No Fire, Scare Being Caused by Bumping Out of a Fuse.

(By Associated Press.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

Every incoming train to-day has brought crowds of people from all parts. There are already ten thousand visitors here.

Tarboro, S. Suffolk, Va.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—In a warmly contested football game at Tarboro, N. C., this afternoon, the Suffolk team was beaten by the home eleven five to nothing. Powell made the winning touchdown.

INSURRECTION IN SAMAR.

New York Has Sailed to Land Detachment of Marines.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Navy Department has received the following cablegram from Rear-Admiral Rogers: "Cavite, October 22. "Secretary Navy, Washington: "Active Insurrection in Samar. New York leaves to-day for Catlogan with 300 marines to return to Basey and Balangiga to co-operate with army. Nearly all naval force concentrated on Samar patrol. Services of Thusa and Sanitro, two colliers needed and being utilized. (Signed) "ROGERS."

Naval officials construe the dispatch to mean that the New York will go first to Catlogan and then to Basey and Balangiga, landing detachments of marines at each point.

Flagman Kelley Killed.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

RICHMOND, VA. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1901

PANIC CAUSED BY CRY OF FIRE

Many Hurt in Mad Rush From Theatre.

ROLLED DOWN STEPS.

Weaker Were Knocked Down and Trampled Under Foot.

ONE WILL PROBABLY DIE.

Ushers, Theatre Attaches and Actors Displayed Great Coolness and Prevented Much Greater Catastrophe—There Was No Fire, Scare Being Caused by Bumping Out of a Fuse.

(By Associated Press.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

Every incoming train to-day has brought crowds of people from all parts. There are already ten thousand visitors here.

Tarboro, S. Suffolk, Va.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—In a warmly contested football game at Tarboro, N. C., this afternoon, the Suffolk team was beaten by the home eleven five to nothing. Powell made the winning touchdown.

PANIC CAUSED BY CRY OF FIRE

Many Hurt in Mad Rush From Theatre.

ROLLED DOWN STEPS.

Weaker Were Knocked Down and Trampled Under Foot.

ONE WILL PROBABLY DIE.

Ushers, Theatre Attaches and Actors Displayed Great Coolness and Prevented Much Greater Catastrophe—There Was No Fire, Scare Being Caused by Bumping Out of a Fuse.

(By Associated Press.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

Every incoming train to-day has brought crowds of people from all parts. There are already ten thousand visitors here.

Tarboro, S. Suffolk, Va.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—In a warmly contested football game at Tarboro, N. C., this afternoon, the Suffolk team was beaten by the home eleven five to nothing. Powell made the winning touchdown.

INSURRECTION IN SAMAR.

New York Has Sailed to Land Detachment of Marines.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Navy Department has received the following cablegram from Rear-Admiral Rogers: "Cavite, October 22. "Secretary Navy, Washington: "Active Insurrection in Samar. New York leaves to-day for Catlogan with 300 marines to return to Basey and Balangiga to co-operate with army. Nearly all naval force concentrated on Samar patrol. Services of Thusa and Sanitro, two colliers needed and being utilized. (Signed) "ROGERS."

Naval officials construe the dispatch to mean that the New York will go first to Catlogan and then to Basey and Balangiga, landing detachments of marines at each point.

Flagman Kelley Killed.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

RICHMOND, VA. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1901

PANIC CAUSED BY CRY OF FIRE

Many Hurt in Mad Rush From Theatre.

ROLLED DOWN STEPS.

Weaker Were Knocked Down and Trampled Under Foot.

ONE WILL PROBABLY DIE.

Ushers, Theatre Attaches and Actors Displayed Great Coolness and Prevented Much Greater Catastrophe—There Was No Fire, Scare Being Caused by Bumping Out of a Fuse.

(By Associated Press.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

Every incoming train to-day has brought crowds of people from all parts. There are already ten thousand visitors here.

Tarboro, S. Suffolk, Va.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—In a warmly contested football game at Tarboro, N. C., this afternoon, the Suffolk team was beaten by the home eleven five to nothing. Powell made the winning touchdown.

PANIC CAUSED BY CRY OF FIRE

Many Hurt in Mad Rush From Theatre.

ROLLED DOWN STEPS.

Weaker Were Knocked Down and Trampled Under Foot.

ONE WILL PROBABLY DIE.

Ushers, Theatre Attaches and Actors Displayed Great Coolness and Prevented Much Greater Catastrophe—There Was No Fire, Scare Being Caused by Bumping Out of a Fuse.

(By Associated Press.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

Every incoming train to-day has brought crowds of people from all parts. There are already ten thousand visitors here.

Tarboro, S. Suffolk, Va.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—In a warmly contested football game at Tarboro, N. C., this afternoon, the Suffolk team was beaten by the home eleven five to nothing. Powell made the winning touchdown.

INSURRECTION IN SAMAR.

New York Has Sailed to Land Detachment of Marines.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Navy Department has received the following cablegram from Rear-Admiral Rogers: "Cavite, October 22. "Secretary Navy, Washington: "Active Insurrection in Samar. New York leaves to-day for Catlogan with 300 marines to return to Basey and Balangiga to co-operate with army. Nearly all naval force concentrated on Samar patrol. Services of Thusa and Sanitro, two colliers needed and being utilized. (Signed) "ROGERS."

Naval officials construe the dispatch to mean that the New York will go first to Catlogan and then to Basey and Balangiga, landing detachments of marines at each point.

Flagman Kelley Killed.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Oct. 22.—A west-bound extra freight train, for Catlogan with 300 marines, left the Southern Railway yard at a down grade near Franklin to-day. When the sections came together again six cars were derailed and Flagman Kelley had a leg cut off. He died soon afterwards. His remains were taken to Emporia for burial. He leaves a mother, sister and one brother there.

North State Fair.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—The opening of the State Fair here to-day was the most auspicious in the history of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The annual opening of the Governor Aycock, the ceremony being at noon.

WEATHER FORECAST.
Forecast for Wednesday and Thursday: Virginia—Partly cloudy Wednesday and Thursday; fresh west to southwest winds. North-Carolina—Fair Wednesday and Thursday; light variable winds.

PRICE TWO CENTS