

GREAT SPEAKERS TO PREACH HERE

Christian and Missionary Alliance Begins

DR. ROBERTSON IN THE CITY

Services to be Held in the Churches To-Day—Rev. Mr. Morris at the Monumental—Requiem Mass at the Cathedral.

The first of the big meetings to be conducted here in connection with the Christian and Missionary Alliance Convention will be held to-day—morning, afternoon and night. Three distinguished speakers will be present, and it is expected that large congregations will turn out. The schedule of services is as follows:

Morning Services, 11 A. M.—Rev. John Robertson, D. D., of Glasgow, Scotland, at the Broad-Street Methodist Church; Rev. Henry Wilson, D. D., of New York, at Trinity Methodist Church; Rev. W. F. Meninger, of Chicago, at Park-Place Methodist Church.

Afternoon Services at 3:30 P. M.—Rev. John Robertson, D. D., tent, corner Twentieth and Grace Streets. Men only; Rev. J. H. Earle, of New York, at Trinity Methodist Church, general meeting.

Night Services, 8 P. M.—Rev. John Robertson, D. D., at Trinity M. E. Church; Rev. Henry Wilson, D. D., at Centenary M. E. Church; Rev. J. H. Earle at Union Station M. E. Church.

The convention will continue throughout the week. Meetings will be held each day at 10 A. M. and at 8:30 P. M. in Trinity M. E. Church, and at 8 P. M. in the tent at Twentieth and Grace Streets. The Rev. George H. Wiley, superintendent of the Methodist Institute, is largely identified with the work, and the coming of the alliance is in fact the capstone to a series of tent and revival services begun here by him more than two years ago. It is thought that great good will result from the present movement.

The list of speakers is an unusually strong one, and includes several of the big names, in addition to those mentioned above. The full list includes the following:

Rev. John Robertson, D. D., of Glasgow, Scotland; Rev. W. F. Meninger, of Hamilton, Canada; Rev. Henry Wilson, D. D., of New York City; Dr. R. H. Glover, of South China; Rev. Carl Erickson, of India; Dr. W. F. Meninger, of Chicago; Miss Mary Mullen, of South Africa; and Rev. W. J. Cromer, of the Congo, Africa.

No more noted man has visited Richmond since the days of Mr. Moody than Dr. Robertson. It will be remembered that Dr. Robertson filled the pulpit of the noted A. J. Gordon, for some time after his death, and Rev. A. J. Gordon was, perhaps, one of the most spiritual men on this continent.

Dr. Robertson has travelled extensively over two continents, speaking in the interest of the deepening of the religious life of men, and great multitudes have flocked to hear him everywhere.

Professor S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College, will preach in the morning at the First Church. There will be no services at night.

Dr. J. M. Stuffer will be heard at the Second Baptist Church this morning at 11 o'clock. Some years ago, when the Second Church was without a pastor, Dr. Stuffer filled the pulpit for the Second Church congregation and won many friends and admirers. Dr. Stuffer is a professor in the Crozer Seminary, of Chester, Pa., and is regarded by many as the greatest expounder of the Scriptures in America.

In addition to an excellent pulpit supply, Mrs. Mattie Betts Thomas, a distinguished graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, will sing a solo.

Dr. R. J. Willingham will preach this morning at Grace Street Baptist Church, on the subject, "The Faithful and Fearless Officer."

The Rev. Mr. Perry will preach at both services at Immanuel.

Rev. H. A. Bagby, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, is just back from Carolina county, where he has been in a meeting with the County-Line Baptist church. The meeting resulted in more than thirty additions to the church. Mr. Bagby says that community probably has more Smiths to the square miles than any other part of the world, and good Smiths, too.

Mr. Bagby will be in his pulpit to-day and extends a hearty invitation to friends to worship at Calvary Sunday night.

Dr. J. Powell Garland will preach in the morning at Union-Station. At night the pulpit will be filled by the pastor, Dr. John Hancock.

The Rev. Joseph D. Langley will preach morning and night at St. James.

Dr. W. V. Tudor will preach in the morning at Centenary. At night the pulpit will be filled by the Rev. Henry Wilson, D. D., of New York.

Dr. Henry Wilson, of New York, will preach in the morning at Trinity. At night Dr. John Robertson, of Glasgow, will preach.

The Rev. L. B. Betty will preach in the morning at Clay-Street on "Suggestive Lessons in Connection with the Conversion of a Fugitive Slave." Dr. W. V. Tudor will preach at night.

Dr. John Robertson, of Glasgow, Scotland, will preach in the morning at Broad-Street. At night the pulpit will be filled by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Beauchamp.

Contagious Blood Poison

Is the name sometimes given to what is generally known as the BAD DISEASE. It is not confined to dens of vice or the lower classes. The purest and best people are sometimes infected with this awful malady through handling the clothing, drinking from the same vessels, using the same toilet articles, or otherwise coming in contact with persons who have contracted it.

It begins usually with a little blister, a red eruption breaks out on the body, sores and ulcers appear in the mouth, the throat becomes ulcerated, the hair, eye brows and lashes fall out; the blood becoming more contaminated, copper colored spots and pustular eruptions and sores appear upon different parts of the body, and the poison even destroys the bones.

S. S. S. is a Specific for this loathsome disease, and cures it even in the worst forms. It is a perfect antidote for the powerful virus that pollutes the blood and penetrates to all parts of the system.

Unless you get this poison out of your blood it will ruin you, and bring disgrace and disease upon your children, for it can be transmitted from parent to child. S. S. S. contains no mercury or potash, but is guaranteed a strictly vegetable compound.

Write for our free home treatment book and learn all about Contagious Blood Poison. If you want medical advice give us a history of your case, and our physicians will furnish all the information you wish without any charge whatever.

who will preach on "The To-morrow."

The Rev. Philip Johnson, of Bethany, W. Va., will preach in the morning at Seventh-Street. There will be no service at night.

The Rev. Henry Pearce Atkins will preach morning and night at West-End. The usual services will be held at Marshall-Street by the Rev. F. W. Troy.

Rev. P. A. Cave, who has been spending the week with his father, in Louisa, will occupy his pulpit on Sunday morning. There will be a prayer and song service at night at 8:15 o'clock, conducted by the pastor and Endeavor Society.

The regular services will be held morning and afternoon at the Second Church. The Rev. R. B. Graham, D. D., will preach morning and night at Grace-Street.

The Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., will preach in the morning at the Church of the Covenant. Owing to the absence of the pastor there will be no service at night during the month of August.

The Rev. W. W. Elwang will preach in the morning at the Third Church. There will be no service at night.

Divine services will be conducted at St. Paul's by Dr. John Moncreaf.

Regular services will be held at Monumental, at St. Andrew's, at All-Saints and at Grace Church.

The Rev. G. Otis Meade will preach morning and night at Christ Church.

During the month of August there will be no afternoon service at Monumental Church, but the morning service will be conducted by Rev. James W. Morris, one of the missionaries to Brazil for the past ten years, who is here now to secure proper surgical treatment for his little daughter. He is supported in part by the Richmond Protestant Episcopal Missionary Society.

At 7 o'clock in the morning a requiem mass will be offered at St. Peter's Cathedral by Richmond (Va.) Council, No. 33 Knights of Columbus, for the repose of the souls of Juan A. Pizzini and John H. Nagle.

POWELLS HALL, 2303 EAST LEIGH STREET. "Let us make man in our image after our likeness, let him be like unto us, and he shall be." To be answered in a sermon by John W. Daugherty to-night at 8 o'clock.

HAS A NEW SHERIFF

Fourth One to Fill the Office in Dickenson in a Few Months.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) CLINTWOOD, VA., August 15.—The County Court on Wednesday appointed Harrison Johnson, the constable that led in the attempt a few days ago to arrest the two Mullins and George Potter, in which Potter was killed, they being charged with criminal assault on Clara and Sallie Wallis, as sheriff of this county, in place of William P. Stanley, who was killed about two months ago by John Henry Bartley.

This is regarded as an appropriate reward to Johnson for his efforts in the arrest. The two Mullins are still at large.

This is the fourth sheriff for Dickenson county since the last regular election. James Swindall, who was elected, having died with fever. Charles W. Powers was appointed and held the office about one year and resigned, and William P. Stanley was appointed and was killed in a few months after his appointment, and Johnson was to-day appointed.

PLANS FOR A BIG EXCURSION

Odd-Fellows of State to Have Annual Celebration—Tripto West Point This Year.

Plans are being rapidly perfected for a great Odd-Fellows' excursion to be run from this city to West Point on August 20th.

The trip will be of the nature of an experiment, which, if it proves successful, will be made an annual event among the Odd-Fellows of the State. It is planned to have each year a similar gathering of the clans at some resort for a day of pleasure. The scheme, it is thought, will meet with great favor, and doubtless will be taken up and perpetuated.

The arrangements for the present excursion are in the hands of a joint committee of all the Richmond and Manchester lodges. This committee, representing thirteen lodges, three Rebekahs and three encampments, met Friday night and entered upon its work. Mr. N. C. Redford was chosen chairman.

While the excursion is local to the extent of plans, etc., it is by no means to be confined to Richmond. Odd-Fellows from all over the State are expected to attend. Grand Master W. D. Hill, of South Boston, will be along and will make a speech. Quite a number will be over from Norfolk and other places.

Blister or sore, then swelling in the Ten years ago I contracted a bad case of Blood Poison. I was under treatment of a physician until I found that he could do me no good. Then began taking S. S. S. I commenced to improve at once and in a very short time all evidence of the disease disappeared. I took six bottles and today am sound and well.

SIX THOUSAND IN HORSE SHOW PRIZES

Association Issues Complete List of Classes.

FALL EXHIBITION TO BE GREAT

All Boxes Taken and More Than Four Hundred Reserved Seats Applied for at This Time—Amphitheatre Will be Ready.

The Richmond Horse Show Association received from the publisher yesterday afternoon the first copy of the official prize list for the show to be held here the second week in October. The list is gotten out in splendid style and is most carefully arranged, giving besides the list of classes and prizes in each, such information as may be desired by the public of the horseman who contemplates entering his horses for the exhibition.

Thirty-six classes are catalogued, including roadsters, hunters, jumpers, harness horses, tandems, four-in-hands, ponies, in harness and saddle, ladies' turnouts and others which will go to make up the most complete show ever given in the South.

The prizes offered in these classes will aggregate $6,000, the majority of them running, first, $100; second, $50, and third, $25.

On the front page of the catalogue appear the names of officers, directors and honorary vice-presidents of the association as follows:

OFFICERS.

J. T. Anderson, president; Harry C. Beattie, vice-president; W. Warthen, secretary; J. Spotswood Crenshaw, treasurer; C. W. Smith, manager.

Travers, W. R. Trigg, Henry Lee Valentine, J. A. White, T. Ashby Wickham, R. Lancaster Williams, T. C. Williams, Jr.

REDUCED RATES.

Following these the announcement is made that all railroads entering Richmond will sell from points in North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia round trip tickets at one fare rate, good from October 14th to 20th, and the old August rates will close on Saturday, September 27th.

Concerning the new Horse Show building the officers of the association say:

"This amphitheatre will be complete in all its appointments, and will be more commodious and better constructed in every way than the old Amphitheatre, and is arranged to accommodate about ten thousand people. The building will be 176 feet wide, 500 feet long and 60 feet high. The exhibition ring is about 200 feet long by 70 feet wide, and is traversed across in one clear span.

The new building will contain seventy-eight boxes, all of which have been taken, and in addition applications have been made for more than four hundred reserved seats.

These applications are being filed in the order they are received and seats assigned accordingly.

More than half of the catalogue is given to rules and regulations governing the show and to rules for judging.

All judges have been chosen with the exception of those in the hunters' and jumpers' classes. These will be named in a few days.
