

SOCIETY ALL AGOG OVER HORSE SHOW

Many Handsome Gowns Will Be Seen Then for the First Time.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS

Marrying and Giving in Marriage Continues at a Great Rate—Interesting Announcements—Personal and Social News of a Week.

The gowns worn by the "Smart Set" of Richmond at the October Horse Show will certainly set the pace for the season's fashions.

The waist of this costume has a round yoke of bias satin bands held together with rows of fancy stitching.

Evening wraps will be a feature of the Horse Show toletta. Many of them seem extravagant in their make-up.

Were the full account of smart frocks and their accessories written, however, there would be nothing left to look forward to.

WEDDINGS.

One of the most important of the week's society weddings was that of Mr. Oscar H. Cranz, the well-known and much-liked young book-keeper at the American National Bank.

The ceremony was performed Tuesday, 26.30 A. M., September 23d, in Grace Episcopal Church by the Rev. J. J. Gravatt of Holy Trinity, Richmond, assisted by the rector, the Rev. Mr. Jones.

Dr. E. J. Moseley, of this city, was best man and Miss Adah Mann, the bride's sister, was maid of honor.

At the marriage of Miss Anne Burwell Cates to Mr. Edward Deleware Quarles scheduled to take place at 10.30 A. M., October the 8th, in St. James Episcopal Church, Ashland, Va., the best man will be the cousin of the groom.

The wedding of Mrs. Mary Blair Pitts to Mr. S. Horace Hawes was solemnized very quietly in the home of the bride.

The marriage of Mrs. Mary Blair Pitts and Mr. S. Horace Hawes took place very quietly in the home of the bride.

Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present. Dr. and Mrs. Edward Payson Terhune were among the out-of-town guests of distinction.

lina, in Chapel Hill, was the scene of a noteworthy celebration last Wednesday.

The bride was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Mary Gregory Hume, and by four bridesmaids—Miss Susie Foltard, of Bowling Green, Va.;

The bride wore a gown of satin de chine with panels of Duchesse lace.

A beautiful wedding of last Tuesday—that of Miss Mary Harris Huggins, of Nottoway, and Mr. Joseph Whaley, of Petersburg—was solemnized in the Episcopal Church at Crews, Va., by the Rev. S. W. Guyer.

The church was handsomely decorated and Miss Ladda Goodwin, of Nottoway, directed the music.

Miss Janie Rogers and Mr. Thomas Todd were among the attendants at the marriage of Miss Pearl Ethel Adkerson, of South Boston, and Mr. Robert Henry Powell, of Boykins, Va., which took place in the Baptist Church at South Boston, September 24th.

MILLER & RHOADS

IF we had a crier on the top of our building calling out the merit of our wares in tones to be heard all over Richmond he wouldn't have half the influence on the people of the town that the goods themselves have.

The garments your wear, and the goods you use in your home advertise us best.

October is the month in the Southland for the housekeepers needs.

You've come home from Seashore and the Country to find all sorts of things necessary in the housefurnishing line.

Maybe, though, you've not been away but a day or so, and if that's the case, we know your eyes will welcome a retouching of the homefurnishings, now that summer is about over.

There's no such stock of upholstery in Richmond as you'll see on our third floor.

Rugs and Druggets from the Orient, selected not only with a view as to their beauty, but also priced so as to put them within the reach of everybody that prizes such beautiful floor coverings and who have the artist's eye to appreciate them.

Portieres are here in the richest designs and patterns. Better than we've ever had before and we've always tried to do our best.

Lace Curtains, both foreign and domestic, whose fineness of texture and wealth of beauty are a pleasure to look at as we display them, even if you don't purchase.

Every Rug, every Lace Curtain and everything else we sell proclaims loudly every time you look at it or use it, where it came from. Isn't it a good business policy (to put transactions even on that low basis) to keep reliable goods?

We think so.

Lace Curtains

Of Hand-Made Irish Lace with very effective borders (hand-made). Some of the patterns have plain centers—others figured. 3 1/2 yards and 4 yards long—$5.00 pair.

Antique Arabian Lace Curtains with plain centers, wide ribbon and imitation Mexican drawn work borders. These curtains are made of a good quality of cable net—$3.98 pair.

The best value in Richmond is here in $1.75 Heavy Nottingham Lace Curtains fully 60 inches wide. All new designs.

Fine Ruffled Bobinet Curtains with lace insertion and lace edging with a very wide ruffle, 3 yards long, in white and Arabian. From $1.50 up to $5.00. Very pretty curtains.

We have twenty-five different patterns of genuine Irish Point Lace Curtains that we offer for $7.50 per pair. They are sample goods and only two pairs of each design, but they represent curtains worth $10.00, $12.00 and $15.00. All new and we think very low priced.

Portieres.

Heavy Rep Portieres in solid colors with tapestry borders for $5.00 per pair, and at the same price (5.00) we also have a large assortment of Heavy Tapestry Curtains in all colors, 3 yards and 3 1/2 yards long. Some of the latter are Bagdads.

A handsome Portiere is a Heavy Mercerized Silk in solid colors with two tone effects. Tasseled fringe and pretty floral border and center—$12.50.

Satin Derby Silk Portiere of fine quality, in floral designs of great richness, with a tasseled fringe that is very heavy—$15.00.

Silk Frou-Frou Portieres (Frou-Frou is the name given to it because it's a double weave). Extra heavy tasseled fringe—rich colorings and perfectly reversible—$18.00.

Some of the Autumn Silks and Dress Goods

"Some" of them just about expresses it, as the news columns can only hint at what we have.

There's a surety and a satisfaction to you in purchasing Dress Fabrics here.

We don't go up and down ringing a bell proclaiming "cheap prices" which generally means cheap goods, but when comparing time comes you'll always find that you're getting the best goods for the littlest prices at Miller & Rhoads'.
