others of the Hampton Stable horses, Mr. J. B. McComb, on Lightfoot; Mr. Allen Potts, on Bachelor; Mr. R. L. Tritton, on Fearless and Brandon; Mr. Tom Carter, on Arthur Charles; Mr. C. C. West, on David Harum; Mr. Dan Matthews, on Dan Gray; Mr. Julian Morris, on Gray Dawn; Mr. John P. Delaney, on his Manchu; Mr. Richard Wallach, on The Liar; and Mr. W. B. Thayer, on his Fearless.

Mrs. Blair Johnson's horse, Robin Adair, is her only entry. His is a beautiful bay gelding with four white feet, and in the show ring has been most successful during the summer.

Many admired him yesterday, and several times his picture was taken by the kodak fiend, who is on the scene.

Mrs. Courtland H. Smith's three hunters, Barriester, Sea Gull and Tip Top, were surrounded by enthusiasts, and were picked as winners.

Mr. Smith brings only hunters to the show this year, having gone out of the harness horse business.

HARNESS HORSES.

At 11 o'clock the ring was cleared of saddlers, and the harness horses were called.

One of the first in was Mr. Richard Wallach driving a handsome bay gelding, Mr. George Cole Scott followed, swinging his tandem around the enclosure.

Among the others were Mr. C. W. Smith, Mr. W. Gordon McCabe, Jr., Mr. C. C. West.

Several pony carts were seen in the ring. The only thing missed was the four-in-hand. This morning, however, there will be four each turnout, being entered by Mrs. Albert Young, Mr. W. W. C. Drexel, Wyeth and West and Dr. F. D. Owsley.

Mr. Drexel's horses were not in yesterday, but were expected to arrive last night on a special car, and will be unloaded this morning.

SOME HORSES AND RIDERS

Personal Mention About Exhibitors and Exhibitors.

The string to be exhibited here by Mr. and Mrs. Courtland H. Smith is composed entirely of hunters and among them are several of the most celebrated horses to appear this past season in the Virginia shows.

Mr. Smith enters McLimore, a thoroughbred five year; Mountaineer, five year; Ogonquit, a horse which has won twenty-seven ribbons during the season; Up-to-Date, the winner here last year; The Lamb, a gray hunter, and Lord Allen, a bay heavy weight hunter.

Mrs. Smith exhibits her famous trio of hunters Tip Top, Barriester and Sea Gull. These horses were greatly admired yesterday. Mrs. Smith did not accompany the horses, but is expected to arrive to-day. She will ride her entries in all classes.

The horses of Mr. G. W. C. Drexel, whose stalls were empty yesterday, will be at the amphitheatre this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Drexel arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and are stopping at the Jefferson.

Judge Moore, of Chicago, who brings string of seventeen hunters and harness horses from Hot Springs, where he has spent the summer, will arrive this morning.

No hunters were placed in the ring yesterday, but this morning the hunters will be put over the timbers for a time. Among the ladies who will be seen at the amphitheatre this morning and during the week riding in the saddle and hunter classes will be Mrs. Blair Johnson, Mrs. Allan Potts, Mrs. Courtland H. Smith, Miss Minnie Daniel, Miss Gertrude Shelton, Mrs. Thomas N. Carter and Miss Louise Selden.

These ladies are among the most expert horsewomen in the State, and have ridden in many Virginia Shows.

In to-night's programme there will be shown a number of horses well remembered as appearing in the classes of last year's Show. Prominent among these are David Harum, exhibited by Wyeth and West; Luena, exhibited by W. Bailey Saunders; Gray Dawn, exhibited by Dr. F. D. Owsley; Buck, exhibited by Mrs. Alfred E. Dieterich; Squeedunk, exhibited by Mrs. Thomas N. Carter; Kathleen, exhibited by John P. Delaney; Elevator, exhibited by John Stewart Bryan; Amaret and Hornpipe, exhibited by Charles H. Hurkamp; Up-to-Date, exhibited by Courtland H. Smith, and Bachelor, exhibited by Allen Potts.

The programme to-night carries classes for horse and victoria, horse and runabout, horses in harness, saddle horse, and a hunter and jumper class open to all.

EXTRA CAR SERVICE

Passenger and Power Company Announces Horse Show Schedule.

In order to accommodate the travel that is anticipated during the Horse Show, it has been decided to operate a special car service, in addition to the regular service, and to make slight changes in the operation of two existing lines.

The additional lines will be as follows: One operating between Broad and Twelfth and the Horse Show building via Broad and Robert streets, and another between Broad and Twelfth and the Horse Show building via Main Street. The Laurel Street Hollywood loop will be continued over Broad Street via Robinson Street to the Horse Show building, with a car connecting at Laurel and Broad Streets, and making the circuit of the Hollywood loop.

The line of the Oakwood and Hollywood line will continue over Main Street to the Horse Show building, and transfer to and from the Broad Street and Oakwood and Hollywood line at First and Main Streets. In addition to the regular Manchester schedule, extra cars will be run through from First and Hill Street. These cars will not receive passengers between Broad and Seventh Streets and the Reservoir, either coming or going.

The destination and route of cars will be plainly indicated by card-board signs attached to the front of cars, and to each of these cards, and so far as possible, take cars that will carry them direct to their destination, and thus avoid the inconvenience of transferring.

Railway Department Virginia Passenger and Power Company.

S. W. HUFF, General Manager.

Notice to Motormen and Conductors: On each night of the Horse Show, from 7 o'clock until the heavy travel is over, a line wagon, equipped with tools for replacing cars, as well as for repairing trolley wires, a track foreman with several men, and a shop foreman will be located in easy reach of the superintendent's office at the Reservoir, and can be reached by old phone No. 231 or new phone No. 2311.

Please bear this in mind, and in event of any trouble that would result in a blockade of cars, report it promptly to these men.

I wish to urge you especially to exercise great care during the period of heavy travel in the matter of running through places in which there is danger of the car leaving the track or the trolley coming off. The serious derailing of a car or the pulling down of trolley wire would result not only in severe loss to the company, but would evoke criticism that I feel you, as well as I, wish to avoid.

(Signed) S. W. HUFF, General Manager.

PROMINENT PEOPLE HERE

Many From Large Cities Registered at Jefferson and Elsewhere.

Prominent people from every section of the great country are Richmond bound to the Horse Show. As early as Sunday they began coming in and yesterday many came. The people within a radius of fifty miles of Richmond will not come before to-day and many will not come before to-morrow or Thursday. Among the known horsemen registered at Reuger's are: Mr. Julian Morris, of Louisa; Dr. Shirley Carter and friends, of Warrenton; Mr. Porter, of Louisa, and Mr. J. B. McComb, of Orange.

Fitz Lee Will Be Here.

General Fitzhugh Lee will arrive in the city to-morrow and will be a prominent figure at the Horse Show to-morrow night. He has reserved rooms at the Westmoreland Club, where he will make his headquarters during the remainder of the week.

Mr. Potts in the City.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Potts, of Cincinnati, arrived in the city yesterday morning and will remain during the week attending the Horse Show. Mr. Potts is an honorary vice-president of the Richmond Horse Show Association.

Social and Personal

Richmond is quite show-crazy, and seems to enjoy the craziness. This morning the brilliant sunshine, the soft October air and the gaiety of all outdoor surroundings, turned thoughts and footsteps towards Reservoir Park and the amphitheatre. There every one found sufficient occupation and entertainment in seeing Mrs. Francis Lee Thurman on "Princess," "Deep River" and "Pathfinder," Mrs. Allen Potts sitting true and riding straight on Royal Rival, Miss Gertrude Shelton showing off the good points of Mr. J. E. Porter's "Dorwell" and Forest King, Miss Louise Selden, Mrs. Blair Johnson and Miss Daniel, who has four mounts—all by their grace and fearlessness winning the plaudits of the crowd.

The visitors seemed never to weary of looking at the horses, and it is thought the week to follow will be a triumph indeed.

The marriage of Miss Mary Emma Guffey and Mr. Carroll Miller will take place quietly in the home of the bride, Edw. Miller, at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Miller, of No. 309 East Grace Street. Since his graduation at Stevens Institute some years ago, he has been sent by the gas company, with which he is associated in business, to England and to Japan. He is now in Chicago, and his mother, Mrs. William G. Miller, left this morning for Pittsburg and will remain until after the wedding.

To-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church, of Decatur, Ga., Miss Lucy Mable, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mable, of Chicago, and Mrs. Fontaine LeSueur, of Ore Bank, Va., will be married by the Rev. J. G. Patton. The bride's sister, Mrs. Obedia Lewis Cloud, will be matron of honor, and will wear white and carry a sheaf of white carnations. The bridesmaids will have on white and yellow chrysanthemums, thus elaborating the color scheme in white and gold. Mr. W. A. LeSueur, of Newport News, will be his brother's best man.

The bride will be attired in a handsome tailored cloth costume. Her flowers will be bride's roses. After a wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home in Newport News, where the groom is associated with his brother in the Peninsula Flour and Feed Company.

Miss Norma Sweeney, the attractive daughter of Mr. Charles W. Sweeney, and Mr. Harold Sweeney, of the general department of the Trigg Shipbuilding Company, will be married at 8 o'clock to-night in the home of the bride by the Rev. Carey E. Morgan.

One of the social events of last evening was a beautiful dinner, in which Miss Anna Potts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Street, was the hostess, and Mrs. Marye, the wife of Colonel William Marye, of the United States army, was the guest of honor. Beautiful floral decorations for dining-room and table were in pink roses, lilies of the valley and maiden hair ferns. Those invited to meet Mrs. Marye were Governor and Mrs. Andrew J. Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bolling, Mrs. W. J. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Cabell, Mr. John T. Anderson, Miss Lewis, Colonel Jo. Lane Stern, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Mayo and Mr. John Walker and Mr. Ormond Young.

Miss Ruby Bodeker gave a brilliant reception last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Emma Clark, of Washington. Miss Bodeker received her guests assisted by Miss Clark and Miss Pearl Bodeker. The receiving party stood around a background of palms, which brought out the handsome toilets worn. Miss Ruby Bodeker being gowned in white taffeta, with corn lace as trimming; Miss Clark having on an imported pink crepe creation, embroidered in pearls, and Miss Pearl Bodeker being tastefully attired in black and white.

The folding doors between the hall and parlors and those dividing the two parlors were outlined in frosted magnolia leaves and yellow dahlias. Palms in groups and massed as backgrounds were most effective. Mantels were banked with ferns and dahlias, and the color scheme in white and gold was carried out by scarfs of yellow and white gauze ribbons, fastened from the chandeliers and mirrors to the corners of the room. A band from a palm screen in the hall played throughout the evening, and delicious refreshments were served.

Among the married and single contingent of Miss Bodeker's friends who met Miss Clark were: Dr. and Mrs. George F. Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Yarborough, Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. John Hobart Reed, Miss Baldwin, Mrs. A. W. Whitehurst, of Petersburg; Dr. and Mrs. Bassett, Miss Hester Cabell Tabb, Miss Dora Pugh, Miss Ingersoll and Mrs. Carradine, of Keswick; the Misses Ellett, Miss Magher, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Lucy Claire Atkinson, Miss Nellie Haggarty, Miss Louise Prosser, Mrs. Charles Crews, Miss Susie Harrison, Miss Lucy L. Harrison, Miss Lena Warwick, Messrs. Leslie Reed, Garnett Tabb, Thomas Pollard, Mr. J. P. Swords, of Alexandria; Captain W. J. Harvey, and Mr. John Chamblin.

One of the most delightful suburban house parties to be given during Horse Show week will open the hospitable doors of lovely "Westbrook" and gather within its walls again a party of people who will be most warmly welcomed by their Richmond friends. The assembly will include Mrs. Albert Young, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deltreich (formerly Miss Edna Young), and Mr. Lewis G. Young, of New York, all of whom at one time had their home in Richmond; Miss Joe Arents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hurkamp, of Fredericksburg; Dr. and Mrs. Clemens, of New York; Miss Smith, of Philadelphia; and Mr. Lewis Haight, a well-known New York whip, who will drive Mrs. Young's four, Mrs. Hurkamp, before her marriage, was the beautiful Miss Male Murchison, of New York, and was at the Richmond Horse Show of 1902.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

The State convention of King's Daughters will meet in Roanoke, October 23d. Mrs. Kate Barbour Howard, the leader of St. John's Circle; Miss Clara Chalk, Mrs. James Tallaferra and Mrs. Stephen R. Beveridge will be appointed delegates to the convention. Mrs. Charles W. Clemmitt will go from the Forget-Me-Not Circle, and Mrs. Emmett Dickinson from the former auxiliary of St. John's Circle, a faithful band of workers whose motto is "I serve." The convention will be largely attended, and Mrs. Clarence G. Burton, of Richmond, will preside.

In the sewing department of Grace has been organized a senior class for the making of plain and fancy shirt waists. Pupils who desire to join will apply at the school room at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

In the Junior class it has been decided to give a large doll as a prize to the child making the neatest set of doll clothes during the session. The doll can be seen each week at the school room, where no doubt it will prove an incentive to the little seamstresses.

The Richmond delegates have returned from the meeting of the Grand Division Daughters of the Confederacy, at Lexington, Va. They are delighted with their trip and with the hospitable entertainment they received. The attention of the Richmond Chapter is called to the meeting for 4:30 P. M. on Wednesday next, as it is most important; delegates to New Orleans to be elected and matters in regard to the bazaar to be discussed.

The parlors and auditorium of the Woman's Club were well filled last afternoon. Miss Jessie Craig, of Brooklyn, who presented several selections delightfully, and was heard with hearty enthusiasm and applause. Miss Belle Johnson was the skillful accompanist of Miss Gair. She, Mrs. Craig, and Miss Gair were the guests of the occasion.

During the social hour, Mrs. Waddill presided, and the social hour presided at the coffee urn. The afternoon altogether was one of the brightest and most charming of the entire autumn.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen, of Chicago, are at the Jefferson Hotel. Mr. Allen and his wife have been staying at Keswick for several weeks, and Mr. Allen has purchased several very fine horses from Mr. William Morris, which he will show in the Richmond ring.

Miss Emma J. Baker, of Norfolk, will be Miss Gertrude's Cann's guest for the week. She and Miss Baker are invited to a number of box-parties, among them Representative H. D. Flood's, Mr. Forbes', Mr. John Walker's and Mr. Archer Anderson's.

Mrs. J. I. Tallaferra, of Church Hill, will have as her Horse Show guests Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Moss, of Rocky Mount, N. C.; Miss Edna Walker, of Luray, Va., and Mrs. Le Blanc, of New Orleans.

The engagement is announced of Miss Myrtle Smith to Mr. Henry B. Woodward, formerly of Staunton, but at present connected with the Bell Book and Stationery Company. Miss Smith is the attractive daughter of Colonel W. P. Smith.

Mrs. William A. Marye, the wife of Colonel William A. Marye, of the United States army, is visiting Miss Annie E. Walker.

Mrs. W. Frank Powers has as her guest during the Horse Show Miss Kate Olmstead, of Elizabeth, N. J.
