

Times... The Daily Times, when delivered by carriers, is ten cents per copy...

but they showed as much antipathy as the southern people to their brother in black.

The Pennsylvania man further mentions that the Commercial Advertiser, a Republican newspaper of New York, in commenting on the proposed appointment of a negro to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, took the ground that it was foolish and impolitic, because the young man never would find a berth on a naval vessel until he had one officered entirely by negroes.

Now, says this man in conclusion: "If the President wants to distribute patronage to the southern negro, let him supply it at Washington, D. C., beginning at the White House in some capacity higher than an assistant doorknocker, bootblack, waiter, cook, or hostler."

LIKE A FAIRY STORY.

In his admirable report to the Chamber of Commerce, President Henry L. Cabell in a forcible manner directed attention to the progress which Richmond made during the past year in trade and industry.

A TIMELY REMINDER.

In his inaugural address, Mayor Collins, of Boston, among other things said: "We are all charged by our constituents to serve the city—not ourselves. It is a contract of our own making."

Every officeholder in the United States should paste that paragraph in his hat and get the sentiment well into his head and into his heart.

GOOD IN ALL THINGS.

An esteemed correspondent writing from Buchanan, Va., refers to an editorial article in The Times on the Indiana affair, and says: "If you will kindly look at the United States Census reports, I think you will see Philadelphia has 70,000 or more negro residents in it, more than any other city in the United States."

THE SHIPYARD.

Mr. Lillburn T. Myers, receiver of the William R. Trigg Shipbuilding Company, brings the pleasing news from New York that in all probability work will be resumed at that institution within thirty days.

THE LITTLE SOPRANO.

The Aftermath. Now is the winter of our discontent; Oh, the bags that we hold! The fags we lament!

What Congress is Doing.

"Dada, is Congress sitting now?" "No, sen; it is standing and yelling Mr. Speaker's bill to regulate the trusts in each hand."—Brooklyn Eagle.

It is True.

The refusal of an electric car line in Virginia to employ single men will doubtless result in many current weddings in that State.—Birmingham News.

Interviewing Old Luna.

"If you can send a wireless message across the Atlantic, why can't we communicate with the moon?" "I dunno. What do you want to communicate with the moon for?"

To Exterminate.

The mountain lion and the bear. Our Teddy bold has vexed, And would he earn our gratitude, The street-car hog comes next.

Company B's Dance.

Company B, Walker Light Guard, will give another of their delightful dances Wednesday, January 28th, at the armory. Preceding the dance a full dress inspection will be held.

Miss Blair's Lecture.

By special request Miss Maria Blair's lecture on the "Seven Great Pictures of the Olden Time" will be repeated next Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Social and Personal

The Richmond Collier had his first german in the new year last night at the Masonic Temple, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Miss Louise James, in blue mousseline tucked and blue ribbons.

Miss May Drake, in lilac chiffon, eury lace, coral trimmings.

Miss Louise Herbert, in white mousseline, tucked diagonally to a point in front, lace and pink ribbon.

Miss Lily Wemple, of Danville, in tucked peach blossom, pink chiffon over silk, pink ribbon and white ribbons.

Miss Mary Cloutier, in white crepe de chine, real lace bertha, white ribbons.

Miss Marie Lightfoot, in blue etamine lace yoke and sleeves, blue chiffon trimmings.

Miss Rose Morris, in black chiffon over white silk, red roses.

Miss Josephine Tyler, in pink crepe de chine, medallions of white lace.

Miss Adair Howe, in yellow panna crepe de chine, real lace, yoke of white shirred chiffon, white silk applique.

Miss Linda Baramania, in white mousseline inserted with white lace.

Miss Rebecca Walker, in white crepe de chine, in blue and white ribbons.

Miss Eugenie Taylor, white tucked organza over pink silk, valencienne lace, large bows of pink ribbon, pink sash.

Miss Mattie Lambert, satin striped white muslin, over coral silk, real lace yoke and bertha.

Miss Mattie Shields, in white crepe de chine, accordion-plaited ruffle, tucked skirt and shirred waist.

Miss Thelma Lewis, in blue tucked chiffon, trimmed with white lace, turquoise necklaces.

Miss George W. Stevens, in black crepe de chine, dechasse lace.

Miss Constance Tilton, in white tucked chiffon, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Helen Stevens, white silk chiffon, embellished with poppies and trimmed with blue lace and narrow black velvet ribbon.

Miss Anne Morris, in embroidered and tucked pink mousseline, pink ribbons and pink roses.

Miss Adamson, of Bon Air, in red crepe de chine, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Margaret Watkins, in pale blue chiffon, over blue silk, white lace and white satin ribbons.

Miss Barbara Keane, in Persian striped mousseline over pink satin, shirred satin bertha.

Miss Bessie Doyle, of Norfolk, in white chiffon over white silk, applique in white lace, lace yoke and pink ribbons.

Miss Margaret Keane, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Helen Stevens, white silk chiffon, embellished with poppies and trimmed with blue lace and narrow black velvet ribbon.

Miss Anne Morris, in embroidered and tucked pink mousseline, pink ribbons and pink roses.

Miss Adamson, of Bon Air, in red crepe de chine, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Margaret Watkins, in pale blue chiffon, over blue silk, white lace and white satin ribbons.

Miss Barbara Keane, in Persian striped mousseline over pink satin, shirred satin bertha.

Miss Bessie Doyle, of Norfolk, in white chiffon over white silk, applique in white lace, lace yoke and pink ribbons.

Social and Personal

The Richmond Collier had his first german in the new year last night at the Masonic Temple, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Miss Louise James, in blue mousseline tucked and blue ribbons.

Miss May Drake, in lilac chiffon, eury lace, coral trimmings.

Miss Louise Herbert, in white mousseline, tucked diagonally to a point in front, lace and pink ribbon.

Miss Lily Wemple, of Danville, in tucked peach blossom, pink chiffon over silk, pink ribbon and white ribbons.

Miss Mary Cloutier, in white crepe de chine, real lace bertha, white ribbons.

Miss Marie Lightfoot, in blue etamine lace yoke and sleeves, blue chiffon trimmings.

Miss Rose Morris, in black chiffon over white silk, red roses.

Miss Josephine Tyler, in pink crepe de chine, medallions of white lace.

Miss Adair Howe, in yellow panna crepe de chine, real lace, yoke of white shirred chiffon, white silk applique.

Miss Linda Baramania, in white mousseline inserted with white lace.

Miss Rebecca Walker, in white crepe de chine, in blue and white ribbons.

Miss Eugenie Taylor, white tucked organza over pink silk, valencienne lace, large bows of pink ribbon, pink sash.

Miss Mattie Lambert, satin striped white muslin, over coral silk, real lace yoke and bertha.

Miss Thelma Lewis, in blue tucked chiffon, trimmed with white lace, turquoise necklaces.

Miss George W. Stevens, in black crepe de chine, dechasse lace.

Miss Constance Tilton, in white tucked chiffon, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Helen Stevens, white silk chiffon, embellished with poppies and trimmed with blue lace and narrow black velvet ribbon.

Miss Anne Morris, in embroidered and tucked pink mousseline, pink ribbons and pink roses.

Miss Adamson, of Bon Air, in red crepe de chine, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Margaret Watkins, in pale blue chiffon, over blue silk, white lace and white satin ribbons.

Miss Barbara Keane, in Persian striped mousseline over pink satin, shirred satin bertha.

Miss Bessie Doyle, of Norfolk, in white chiffon over white silk, applique in white lace, lace yoke and pink ribbons.

Miss Margaret Keane, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Helen Stevens, white silk chiffon, embellished with poppies and trimmed with blue lace and narrow black velvet ribbon.

Miss Anne Morris, in embroidered and tucked pink mousseline, pink ribbons and pink roses.

Miss Adamson, of Bon Air, in red crepe de chine, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Margaret Watkins, in pale blue chiffon, over blue silk, white lace and white satin ribbons.

Miss Barbara Keane, in Persian striped mousseline over pink satin, shirred satin bertha.

Miss Bessie Doyle, of Norfolk, in white chiffon over white silk, applique in white lace, lace yoke and pink ribbons.

Social and Personal

The Richmond Collier had his first german in the new year last night at the Masonic Temple, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Miss Louise James, in blue mousseline tucked and blue ribbons.

Miss May Drake, in lilac chiffon, eury lace, coral trimmings.

Miss Louise Herbert, in white mousseline, tucked diagonally to a point in front, lace and pink ribbon.

Miss Lily Wemple, of Danville, in tucked peach blossom, pink chiffon over silk, pink ribbon and white ribbons.

Miss Mary Cloutier, in white crepe de chine, real lace bertha, white ribbons.

Miss Marie Lightfoot, in blue etamine lace yoke and sleeves, blue chiffon trimmings.

Miss Rose Morris, in black chiffon over white silk, red roses.

Miss Josephine Tyler, in pink crepe de chine, medallions of white lace.

Miss Adair Howe, in yellow panna crepe de chine, real lace, yoke of white shirred chiffon, white silk applique.

Miss Linda Baramania, in white mousseline inserted with white lace.

Miss Rebecca Walker, in white crepe de chine, in blue and white ribbons.

Miss Eugenie Taylor, white tucked organza over pink silk, valencienne lace, large bows of pink ribbon, pink sash.

Miss Mattie Lambert, satin striped white muslin, over coral silk, real lace yoke and bertha.

Miss Thelma Lewis, in blue tucked chiffon, trimmed with white lace, turquoise necklaces.

Miss George W. Stevens, in black crepe de chine, dechasse lace.

Miss Constance Tilton, in white tucked chiffon, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Helen Stevens, white silk chiffon, embellished with poppies and trimmed with blue lace and narrow black velvet ribbon.

Miss Anne Morris, in embroidered and tucked pink mousseline, pink ribbons and pink roses.

Miss Adamson, of Bon Air, in red crepe de chine, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Margaret Watkins, in pale blue chiffon, over blue silk, white lace and white satin ribbons.

Miss Barbara Keane, in Persian striped mousseline over pink satin, shirred satin bertha.

Miss Bessie Doyle, of Norfolk, in white chiffon over white silk, applique in white lace, lace yoke and pink ribbons.

Miss Margaret Keane, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Helen Stevens, white silk chiffon, embellished with poppies and trimmed with blue lace and narrow black velvet ribbon.

Miss Anne Morris, in embroidered and tucked pink mousseline, pink ribbons and pink roses.

Miss Adamson, of Bon Air, in red crepe de chine, in eury lace, with medallions and crush giraffe of pink panne velvet, necklaces of pearls.

Miss Margaret Watkins, in pale blue chiffon, over blue silk, white lace and white satin ribbons.

Miss Barbara Keane, in Persian striped mousseline over pink satin, shirred satin bertha.

Miss Bessie Doyle, of Norfolk, in white chiffon over white silk, applique in white lace, lace yoke and pink ribbons.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST (OF PHILADELPHIA) Founded A. D. 1728 by Benjamin Franklin

PAPERS BY DE BLOWITZ THE SATURDAY EVENING POST is now publishing what is perhaps the most interesting and important series of articles that will appear in any American magazine this year.

THE MONEY KINGS OF THE WORLD By W. T. Stead. This is the title of six extraordinary articles by the editor of the London Review of Reviews, on such men as Morgan, Witte and Rothschild.

OLD GORGON GRAHAM A new series by George Horace Lorimer, author of The Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to His Son, in which old John Graham, the self-made merchant, tells the story of his early struggles and his rise to wealth.

THE ADVENTURES OF A TITLED FORTUNE HUNTER By David Graham Phillips. A foreign nobleman comes to America in search of an heiress. He is promptly taken up by the smart set and meets with many absurd adventures.

GEORGE ADE'S BRILLIANT HUMOR Mr. George Ade, whose fables in slang have made a whole continent laugh, will hereafter be a frequent contributor to THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

SOME POST STORY TELLERS Among the hundreds of clever writers who will have stories in early numbers of the magazine are:

- OWEN WISTER, MAX ADELER, JEROME K. JEROME, ROBERT BARR, DAVID GRAHAM PHILLIPS, LLOYD OSBOURNE, F. HOPKINSON SMITH, EDGAR JEPSON, GEORGE HIBBARD, JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS, MORGAN ROBERTSON, EMERSON HOUGH, CHARLES M. FLANDRAU, JOSEPH BLETHEN, WILLIS GIBSON, FORREST CRISSEY, M. E. M. DAVIS

PUBLISHED WEEKLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR The price will be increased to Two Dollars a Year February 1, 1903. Five Cents the Copy at Leading Dealers. Will be delivered to any address. By ROY DUDLEY, Distributing Agent 212 1/2 Marshall Street, Richmond, Va.

door and children will be charged half-price.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

The vicomte de Frouse, a French nobleman, at present traveling through the South, will lecture at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon at half past four.

Miss Costello Entertains. Miss Mary Costello entertained her friends on Wednesday night at her home, No. 37 East Byrd Street.

Miss Jean Christine Mercer, of Williamsburg, is in the city, and is stopping at No. 3 East Grace Street.

Mrs. Ernest Dennis, of Milwaukee, Wis., who is here to attend the marriage of her son, Mr. Louis C. Dennis, to Miss Julia Kratz, this afternoon, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kratz, of No. 211 Jefferson Place.

Mrs. Thomas M. Emerson, of Wilmington, N. C., who has been visiting relatives here, has returned home.

Miss Sallie M. Bigler, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wyatt, in Baltimore, for the past two weeks, returned home yesterday.

Attorney-General and Mrs. William A. Anderson will go to Hot Springs, Va., for a month, the Attorney-General having been ordered there for his rheumatism by his physician, Dr. George Ben Johnson.

Mr. Louis C. Dennis and Mr. Alfred Knoerschild, of Milwaukee, Wis., are at the Jefferson Hotel.

Miss Anne Lee, the daughter of General Fitzhugh Lee, has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Lloyd Lee in Alexandria, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baskerville are expected to arrive in Richmond to-day. Mrs. Baskerville is most pleasantly recalled as Miss Ethel Pen-Gaskell Marsh by reason of her having visited Mrs. James Allison two winters ago.

Mrs. Ramsay, of Westover, will be the guest of Mrs. S. W. Travers on Tuesday, January 13th. Miss Warwick, of New Jersey, is also Mrs. Travers' guest.

HEAVILY PUNISHED Six Months in Jail and $100 Fine for a Fight on a Train. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) MANASSAS, VA., January 9.—Harry Furr, of Fauquier county, was this morning sentenced to six months in jail and fined $100 in the County Court of Prince William county for assault upon G. A. Smallwood last July. This was the result of a general fight which took place on one of the Southern trains between this point and Wellington on the last day of the Manassas Horse Show.

Furr, with several others, took the train at the show grounds, and almost immediately upon entering the train started a row. Knives and beer bottles were used promiscuously, and before the fight could be stopped seven men were badly cut. The trial of Furr began yesterday morning, and the jury this morning brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment as stated above. The prisoner was ably defended by the Hon. T. H. Lion and Mr. John M. Johnson, of Alexandria, while the interests of the Commonwealth were looked after by Commonwealth's Attorney J. B. T. Thornton. A telephone line in the course of construction from this point to Dumfries, in the extreme lower part of the county, will be established from this place to nearly every part of the county. The town of Manassas now has direct communication by phone with Alexandria and Washington and the counties of Fairfax, Fauquier and Loudoun.

The News from DeWitt. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) DE WITT, VA., January 9.—Mr. W. S. Roade, a prominent merchant of this vicinity, who has been quite sick for the past four weeks, is now able to be out again.

Mrs. Lucy J. Reads continues quite sick at her home, at a few days from town.

Miss May Davis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. E. Lewis, of Borthwick, has returned to her home in Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. Lizzy Greenwald, of Petersburg, has been on a few days' visit to her cousin, Mrs. Kate M. Lewis.

Mr. Baird C. Thwaitt, who has been visiting his father, Mr. F. P. Thwaitt, has returned to his work in Columbia, S. C.

Messrs. John and Willie Thwaitt, who were spending the holidays with their parents, have returned to their work in Richmond, Va.

At the Theatres.

"A Contagious Woman" has drawn the capacity of the Bijou at every performance since the return of the Bijou Musical Comedy Company, and Miss Agnes Ross Lane's portrayal of the title role.

There will be matinee and evening performances to-day, completing the engagement of the favorites.

Ode Skinner's production of "Lazarre," which will be seen in this city next Tuesday, matinee and night, was presented at the first time in Green Bay, Wis.

Mr. Skinner was prompted to select this quaint little northwestern town to give the initial performance of "Lazarre" from the fact that the exciting events of the last act of the play had their locale in Green Bay; and it was in this place that Elizabeth Williams, hero of Mrs. Gatherwood's romance, and of the play, really lived.

Throughout this country the annual visits of Kathryn Kidder are invariably a signal for eager box office attention. This is especially true in this city, where her social favor is scarcely less great than her artistic distinction. On Wednesday at the Academy she was given a fresh opportunity to enjoy this charming player's work.

Manager Wells has secured Edgar Selden's big musical comedy, "Pack and His Mother-in-Law" Company, at the Bijou for the week to commencing next Monday. There are forty-two people in the company who appear in every act, with a complete change of costumes. Among the leading members of the star cast of this company are: Messrs. Mack Lawrence, Edna Henshaw, George Francisco, Lillian Crane, Al Friend, Tom Tempest, Will Goodall, three sisters Faust.

For Horse Stealing. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) CHATHAM, VA., January 9.—Al Shields was on Thursday adjudged insane by a commission of lunacy and taken to the asylum at Staunton Friday morning. During the last days of December Shields was lodged in jail for horse stealing to await the action of the grand jury. Nearly two years ago he was arrested in Lynchburg for forgery and afterwards adjudged insane and sent to the asylum. He has a brother now in the asylum, who was arrested for shooting, but before trial was adjudged insane.

Mr. Andrew J. Lewis died near Mount Airy recently. Mr. Lewis was at one time very well off, but he had lost all.

STIRRED THEM UP. Major Edmondson spoke for appointment with great earnestness and needed attention. Major Edmondson was asked a number of questions and he floored each of his questioners one by one, and kept the conference in a perfect uproar of laughter by his witty replies.

The state of the member from Halifax was extended, and what had appeared to be a "scrappy" meeting developed into a hilarious gathering, highly entertained by the popular humorist.

The pending question was ordered on motion of Mr. Folkes and it recurred upon the motion of Mr. Churchman to strike out the latter portion of Mr. Duke's resolution, making it read for election by the people. The motion to strike out was lost and Mr. Allen pro- tested against any attempt to cut off any one who desired to be heard, and Mr. Clayton moved to adjourn. This motion was lost and Mr. Stearns moved the previous question and it was ordered. The substitute offered by Mr. Duke was adopted after being so amended as to apply to cities. The conference at 10:15 adjourned, the action being for election by the people for the first term, and then for appointment.

PEOPLE WIN OUT IN REVENUE FIGHT (Continued from First Page.)

a strong speech on the same line, declaring that he favored the election of all officers by the people, from constable to President of the United States. Mr. Bland said that to take this power from the people would be to arouse them and put them in many quarters at enmity with the Democratic party in the State.

STIRRED THEM UP. Major Edmondson spoke for appointment with great earnestness and needed attention. Major Edmondson was asked a number of questions and he floored each of his questioners one by one, and kept the conference in a perfect uproar of laughter by his witty replies.

The state of the member from Halifax was extended, and what had appeared to be a "scrappy" meeting developed into a hilarious gathering, highly entertained by the popular humorist.

The pending question was ordered on motion of Mr. Folkes and it recurred upon the motion of Mr. Churchman to strike out the latter portion of Mr. Duke's resolution, making it read for election by the people. The motion to strike out was lost and Mr. Allen pro- tested against any attempt to cut off any one who desired to be heard, and Mr. Clayton moved to adjourn. This motion was lost and Mr. Stearns moved the previous question and it was ordered. The substitute offered by Mr. Duke was adopted after being so amended as to apply to cities. The conference at 10:15 adjourned, the action being for election by the people for the first term, and then for appointment.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. SICK HEADACHE. Positively cured by these Little Pills. They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Congestion, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Cholera, Dropsy, Pain in the Side, TORRID LIVER. They Regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable. Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.