

A Personal Note to the Public

I firmly believe that if every man and woman of moderate means, young and old, married or not, would read the series "How We Saved for a Home" in The Ladies' Home Journal, that thousands would date the beginning of their true living from that day.

Here are 100 young couples, and men with families, working girls and unmarried young men, who tell, step by step and dollar by dollar, how each now own their own home, — some on salaries of $4. per week; none higher than $30. The average is $15.

For 10 cents you can buy the January number with the first 11 of these stories.

LODGE OF ELKS IN MANCHESTER

Mr. Jean Lipscomb is Working to Start One.

MR. J. H. BRYANT IS INJURED

Arm Slightly Hurt at Southern Shops. Mrs. Hammond Fisher Operated on at Virginia Hospital—A Child Dead—Southside News.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, No. 1102 Hull Street.

Mr. Jean Lipscomb, a popular young man, residing on Semmes Avenue, is working hard to secure the necessary twenty-five applications for membership in the Order of Elks, hoped to be started in Manchester before the summer months.

ACCIDENTS OF A DAY. While at work at the Southern shops yesterday afternoon Mr. J. H. Bryant had his arm caught between two heavy pieces of iron and painfully injured.

AN OLD GENTLEMAN. A respectable old gentleman came to the police station last night and applied for lodging. After he had warmed himself by the large stove he told a part of his life's trials and misfortunes and his family record.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS. Mr. Lewis Kidd, who has been ill for several weeks, was much better last night.

Virginians Here. Murphy's—G. Weldon, Portsmouth; S. V. Fulkerson, Bristol; W. R. Abbott, Jr., Bedford; J. S. Browning, Fochontas; A. Miller, Alexandria; J. W. Bowdoin, Accomac; S. F. Rogers, Virginia; F. A. Kearney, Hampton; John B. Moon, Charlottesville; W. G. Loving, Lovingsville; W. E. Sandridge, Amherst; George C. Robertson, Farmville; W. F. Clark, Chase City; E. W. Shield, Yorktown; Carroll Pierce, Leesburg; W. C. Fitzhugh, Urbanna; A. B. Seldner, Norfolk; J. V. Chinn, Jr., Warsaw; W. E. Hathaway, White Stone; T. J. Downing, Lancaster; den change for the worse was noticed about noon, and though Drs. Hill and Rucker were constantly in attendance, they could do nothing to save his life. The mother and father are almost pros- trated with the grief. The little child was just two years and a half old.

VERY SMALL COW. Mr. Charles S. Stein, the butcher on Hull Street, between Thirteenth and Four- teenth, has a real curiosity in a Guinea cow, the only one known to be in Vir- ginia. Several years ago Mr. Stein bought the mother of the little cow he now has from the cattle yards in Richmond.

FOR FIREMEN. Levin C. Tees' border drama of western life, "Tatters," will be put on at Leader Hall about the 20th of February by Charles & Parley's Merry-makers, for the benefit of the firemen of the city.

HIS FINGER BROKEN. Mr. Charles S. Whitlock, a young man of the city, formerly in the newspaper business, met with quite a painful accident last Saturday while firing on the Atlantic Coast Line near Clifton.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS. Mr. L. M. Latham is visiting in Phil- adelphia for the week.

Box party given by the ladies of Grace Baptist Church for the benefit of the "Little Gleaners" was a success in every particular, and quite a neat sum was realized, some of the boxes bringing $2.00.

Prominent Virginians. Among the prominent Virginians seen at Murphy's last night were Colonel S. V. Fulkerson, of Bristol; Professor W. R. Abbott, of Bedford; Hon. T. J. Downing, of Lancaster; Messrs. W. Med. Lee, of Ir- vington; Eugene Ould, of Campbell; H. D. Flood, of Appomattox; John B. Moon, of Albemarle; Robert Catlett, of Rockbridge; Judge W. R. Barksdale, of Halifax; and Mr. Frank T. Glasgow, of Lexington.

P. T. Barrow, Danville; W. T. Mayo, Hague. New Ford's—Charles D. Tate, Gate City; Eugene Ould, Campbell; John D. Moon, Norfolk; T. A. Onby, Lunenburg; E. H. Martin, Lynchburg; Wm. Med. Lee, Irvington.

At the Theatres.

"Audrey" has already been criticised at length in these columns, and there is very little to say at this time, except that the play that was full of good things, in the start, seems, like wine, to have already improved in its presenta- tion by the little age that has been given it since its first production here several months ago.

There is greater finish to the produc- tion, and more completeness in the de- tail, while the indescribable charm that pervades the book appears to have be- come a part and parcel of the play. A brilliant audience filled the Academy last night, and while there was not that great display of enthusiasm that pre- vailed upon the first presentation of the piece, the applause was generous and the appearance of pleasure genuine.

Since the opening night there have been two changes in the cast. Mr. For- rest Robinson, who now plays the part of "Marmaduke," was the original "Mr. Elliot," and the latter part is now taken by Mr. Frank Roberts, one of the old Giffen favorites. The change is an im- provement, and was noticed last night.

Miss Robinson is the same natural, timid creature, with a charm that makes the part of "Audrey" one that impresses itself upon the audience, and the "Hugon" of Mr. Perry was even stronger than before.

The scenery and costumes are details that go far towards making the produc- tion complete. The names listed in the original criticism of the play must be repeated.

Stuart Robson will appear at the Academy on Saturday afternoon in an elaborate revival of "The Henrietta," that startling comedy of American life that has so fastened itself in the af- fections of the theatre-going public of this country that fifteen years have not dimmed the interest.

The veteran actor, as usual, will be seen in the role of "Bertha, the Lamb," supported by a company of strength and excellence. The names include those of Edwin Holt, Adolph Jackson, Charles Lane, Clifford Leigh, Eleanor Barry, Frances Mayo, Victoria Addison, Laura Thompson, Joseph P. Keefe, Cecil King- ston and Walter Pennington.

THIS NOT WORK FOR THE WOMEN

Commissioner Williams Says They Will Not Make Immi- 311 Inspectors.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NEW YORK, January 21.—Immigration Commissioner Williams admitted to-day that he had been ordered to appoint six women immigrant inspectors to be ap- pointed soon.

The duties of the women inspectors will be the same as those of the men to meet incoming steamers on the revenue cutter and climb the ladder that is placed at the side of each ship.

A boarding officer who has been in the employ of the government for many years, said this morning he did not think the women would stay very long in the ser- vice.

"I want to see one of them climb the ladder when it is put against the side of a 'Celtic,' he said. "There is a climb that I have seen strike terror to the heart of many a man. The suspension over a space that is bounded on the top by clouds and underneath by a rushing torrent of water is enough to make a strong man turn pale, as they say in books, and it will require a woman with iron nerve to attempt anything of the kind.

"That is all, however, for after they succeed in getting on board some of the sights that they will witness will surely disgust them far beyond anything that they could ever have seen before, and I don't think the women, if they get any, will stand any more than one week's service, if they last that long."

DR. HART'S LECTURE

Spoke at Richmond College—Other News of the College.

Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard University, delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture at Richmond Col- lege yesterday morning after chapel ser- vices.

Prof. Hart is professor of history at Harvard and an LL. D. of Richmond Col- lege, at which college he graduated many years ago. The subject he spoke upon was "The Advantages of the Present Day Education Over that of Forty Years Ago."

Board of Fisheries. The State Board of Fisheries held a meeting at Murphy's yesterday and trans- acted regular monthly business. The members of the board went up to Ashland in the afternoon and dined with Mr. E. L. C. Scott at the new Henry Clay Inn.

PLAIN TALK BY CHAIRMAN GRAY

This the Feature of the Strike Investigation.

HE IS DOWN ON TYRANNY

Disapproves of it, Whether Practiced by Operator, Miner or Anyone Else—To Hear the Arguments.

(By Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, PA., January 21.—The sessions of the Coal Strike Commission to-day were enlivened by some interest- ing testimony. The feature of the ses- sions was Chairman Gray's rather strong remarks commenting on an incident where district president Fahey, of the Miners' Union, would not grant "permis- sion" during the strike to a contractor to erect a boiler-house at a colliery which was necessary to preserve the mine from damage.

R. S. Moore, a Lehigh colliery superin- tendent, said the company had contracted with a man to build a boiler-house. The strikers refused to permit this to be done; they would not even permit the material to be taken from the railroad cars. Finally the contractor wrote to District President Fahey, asking permission to erect a boiler-house, and the labor leader replied: "On account of existing conditions, I cannot grant you the permission which, as I understood from your letter, you re- quest."

Judge Gray said he did not like the word "permission" as used by Mr. Fahey. This was a free country and he was not educated up to using it in the way Mr. Fahey had employed it. He added he hated tyranny, no matter whether it was practiced by an operator, a miner or any one else. The chairman delivered his remarks with much force, and the in- cident created considerable of a stir in the court room.

During the morning session the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, who presented its case to-day after the Temple Iron Com- pany closed, placed a union miner on the stand to testify about what seemed to be a trivial matter, and on cross-exami- nation he proved a good witness for the miners. He said there would be trouble in the anthracite regions as long as the coal companies insisted upon paying no contract miners by the car instead of by weight. This opened a discussion between counsel for both sides, and the matter continued to consume much time. The result was that the commission will de- vote an entire day to hearing arguments on both sides of the question.

Report on Grievances.

(By Associated Press.) MEMPHIS, TENN., January 21.—The International Bricklayers' Union consid- ered the report of the Committee on Grievances at the morning session. The report covered the differences of several local unions, which were all settled in a satisfactory way.

Lands for Schools.

(By Associated Press.) MONTGOMERY, ALA., January 21.—Joint resolutions were introduced in the Alabama Legislature to-day asking the National Congress to pass a bill granting certain lands to schools in this State.

Given Three Years.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) CHARLESTON, S. C., January 21.—George Dallas, colored, was on Tuesday sen- tenced to three years in the penitentiary for housebreaking. Henry Womack, colored, was on the same day sentenced for six years for malicious shooting.
