PUBLIC LEDGER

SALE OF THE MITCHELL PROPERTY.
Yesterday afternoon Master Commissioner Gordon Sulzer sold the property of the late Mrs. Martha Mitchell in East Third street, following by the purchasers:
Lot and frame dwelling, corner of alley, occupied by Ernie Ort, to Postmaster Clarence Mathews at $3,775.
Lot and frame dwelling occupied by Major Walsh to Omar Dodson at $1,940.
Vacant lot corner Fourth street and the alley to J. C. Jefferson at $1,380.
The lot and two story frame dwelling occupied by James Egnew was retained by Mrs. Walter S. Watson, an heir; she also retained the two small brick dwellings on the alley in the center of the property.
The sale of the three parcels for only $4,995 shows that it was dirt cheap.

NEW BASEBALL TEAM

Committee Meeting With Success.—Meeting Last Evening—Subscriptions Pouring In.
Maysville baseball enthusiasts held another enthusiastic meeting at the Council Chambers last night.
The temporary organization is still maintained and right here, let the Ledger say, this should be the permanent organization.
It means business.
The stock and subscriptions to the new company indicate that the business men are alive to the proposition of putting a first-class team in the field this season.
It may be all right to have $2,000, but $3,000 would sound better.
There are times that a reserve fund comes in quite handy.
While we are at it, let us make it $5,000 capital stock.
Maysville has a good park and a comfortable grandstand, conveniently located. If there are any objectionable features let us cut them out now.
Give Maysville a clean, classy game and a team that's a winner and it will do more to advertise the old town than anything else.
Get together and push the subscription and stock.
Talk is good, but it's money that counts.
When the committee comes to you, give them the glad hand—and sign up for one or more shares.

The silver offering received will be used in buying pulpit furniture. In organizing the chain of teas Miss Anna McDougale was elected president, Miss Ada Emmitt, Sec.-Treas., and the following are directors: Misses Rosa Lee Watson, and Emma Luman, and Mesdames J. Thomas, H. H. Barkley and Fannie Davis. Other socials will be held next week.

PRAYER—JUST PRAYER.

The final words of President McKinley were the words of the Lord's Prayer. The great statesman was conscious that he was soon to go to his Heavenly Father. Of all time it then behooved him to be able or at least to have the disposition to pray.
A lady once remarked to Canon Tristram of Japan, that she would pray for the success of his mission. The missionary replied: "Thank you; you have undertaken the most important and the most difficult part of the work."
Prayer is not a mere matter of saying words or repeating sentences. It is rather, the asking for something definite or the expression in words of real praise to the Great God of the universe.
God is our Father, so Jesus taught and we are to receive His best blessings and to be of the most service to our Father by praying to Him.
We go limping along in our moral and social work because we do not pray. We do not need any new fangled method which attracts the attention of the city. All the church members need to do is to pray—just pray.
Prayer like other old-fashioned and time honored things has been neglected. People in this county who claim to be Christians pray about as often as they call the doctor, and with some folks that's not very often. Yet Jesus said, "Ask and ye shall receive." It may be we do not want the things (neither the dispositions nor the experiences) which will come as an answer to our prayers. You know brother, you can't pray and still hate your enemies, or pray and cheat or falsify. No, no. When you really pray you get right with your fellows. You see God knows how you act and you know He knows. How could a gambler pray and continue to take his opponents' money. What a lot of sins would stop if all the men of Maysville would pray, real prayers. That is, mean what they say and say what they mean.
However much Maysville would change, if all men and women, too, would pray. Be this known that there are hundreds in the county whose prayers are never heard in public but who are what they are in character and in fluence because of their praying to God. Prayer helps them to keep right.
Finally let it be said we should not pray by proxy. Every person should pray for himself. Therefore let this service close by this exhortation, PRAY, BROTHER PRAY.

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad.
It is the Sign of the Times.
