In the recent city election in Boston, less than a third of the registered women voters, entitled to vote for members of the school committee, went to the polls.

The total amount of money in circulation in the United States was stated on January 1 to be $3,447,368,355. The per capita circulation was estimated at $35.71.

It is announced that growers of sugar beets in the West refuse to accept the lower prices offered by beet sugar factories, and will prefer to plant their land with other crops.

A deficit of $600,000 is giving trouble in New Jersey. If there is any state in which the Democrats have secured control without bringing on a deficit the fact should be advertised.

The greatest drawback on government ownership of the telephone and telegraph is that there is no money to pay for them. Probably the anarchists and the socialists mean to take them anyway.

A total of 188,850 idle freight cars on the railroads of the United States and Canada was reported on December 31, as compared with a total 101,545 on the corresponding date of 1912. The increase in idle cars is held to be conclusive proof of the extreme conservatism which prevails in practically every field of industry.

John D. Rockefeller has been driven from Ohio by the hell hounds of Jim Cox's tax laws, who wanted Rockefeller to pay taxes on $900,000,000 worth of property. The utter unreasonableness of such a proposition only shows how insane upstart politicians like Governor Cox can be. A demagogue reformer is the most costly luxury any city or State can have.

In a memorial to Congress from E. H. Rettig, a prominent farmer of the State of Washington, the trust busters were shocked by his declaration that the farmers were neglected by the government and the big trusts, like the Standard Oil, International Harvester Company and the United States Steel Corporation, had accomplished more good for the people than the government.

Says the American Economist: "Secretary Redfield asks Congress to give him an appropriation of $4,000,000 to pay the expense of finding out what ails the country. An honest investigation and an honest answer to the question might be worth the money. But there is really no need of all that bother and cost. Business is suffering from an overdose of Free-Trade policies. That's what ails the country."

AN INVESTIGATION HAS REVEALED THE FACT THAT ON JANUARY 1 THERE WERE 10,000,000 POUNDS MORE OF BUTTER IN THE UNITED STATES THAN ON THE CORRESPONDING DATE A YEAR AGO; BUT THE PRICE WAS CONSIDERABLY HIGHER. BUTTER IS COMING INTO THE COUNTRY FROM CANADA AND OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES, BUT CONSUMERS HAVE TO PAY MORE, NOTWITHSTANDING THE REDUCED TARIFF RATE. THE IMPORTERS MAKE BIG PROFITS WHICH INCREASES THEIR ENERGY IN BRINGING IN FOREIGN GOODS. BUT IS THAT SATISFACTORY TO AMERICAN PRODUCERS OR CONSUMERS?

An article in the London Times says that Mr. Chiosa, long a Free-Trade member of Parliament, asserts that the total number of adult agricultural laborers in the United Kingdom is only 422,000. There were four or five times as many when agriculture was protected in that country. But under Free Trade there has been this enormous decline in workmen and millions of acres of land have ceased to be cultivated. That is the kind of medicine the Democrats are administering to the farmers in the United States.

A JAPANESE CASABIANCA.

The story of the boy who stood on the burning deck whence all but him had fled is one that recurs in every great disaster even in the absence of such a hero or any occasion for such heroism. A most thrilling version of this immortal legend came over the cable from Japan on January 13, or at least appeared in our newspapers of the following day. "The city of Kagoshima with 64,000 inhabitants was totally destroyed by a flood of fire from the Sakurashima volcano." One brave telegraph operator "sat at his key calling for help" while the crowds rushed into the sea and "thousands at least, it is certain, dropt in the streets overcome by heat and fright and foul gases, to be quickly covered by the fall of ashes and incandescent rocks." The writer of the report, be he Japanese or American, surely does have a good command of English. How simple, how dramatic, how effective, are his concluding lines: "I am the last person living and that was the last thing he said." One could make a poem out of that; nay, is it not already a poem such as Mrs. Hemans could not better?

Alas, it is hard for poetry to thrive in this matter of fact age. The toe of the statistician comes so near the heels of our poet, he galls his kibe. The city of Kagoshima was not destroyed. The official report estimates the damage to the city as thirty-five houses collapsed and fourteen persons dead. As for the heroic telegrapher, last survivor of another Lisbon, he seems to be no longer in existence. Perhaps he never was. And the world can ill afford to lose such men.—New York Independent.

"Don't take that job that's offered you, my girl. Take a good man's love instead."
 "What does the job pay?"
 "Sixty dollars, I think."
 "What does the good man make?"
 "Forty dollars."
 "I'll take the job."—Baltimore American.

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, languor, backache; Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney ills.

Endorsed in Maysville by grateful friends and neighbors. Mrs. Dora Mefford, Maysville, Ky., says: "I had been feeling poorly for some time, before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I was entirely better. I was able to sleep well and they improved my health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Concentration is one of the most important elements in successful advertising, and a large proportion of advertising failures can be traced to the fact that the advertiser used media whose circulation was too scattering to really create the concentrated demand which interests the dealers.—Western Newspaper Union.

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:
 CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 1135 Knight St., Camden, N.J.

And this one from Mrs. Haddock:
 UTICA, OKLA.—"I was weak and nervous, not able to do my work and scarcely able to be on my feet. I had backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, trouble with my bowels, and inflammation. Since taking the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am better than I have been for twenty years. I think it is a wonderful medicine and I have recommended it to others."—Mrs. MARY ANN HADDOCK, Utica, Oklahoma.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.
 Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letters will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

LUKE McLUKE'S BITS OF BYPLAY.

Oh, Joy!
 "The first shall be last and the last shall be first," quoted the Sage.
 "If that is the case, I'm going to get a bet on the Reds this season," replied the Fool.

Luke McLuke Says
 The fact that a man doesn't believe in Hell doesn't keep his wife from trying to give the place to him every now and then.

The Prodigal Sons who inspect the fattened calves on rainy days report an apparent scarcity of corn and an evident famine in the land.
 The lightning change artists are not all on the stage. Father and Mother can be busy calling each other porch climbers, snakes and ornery pups when the door bell rings and company calls. And Mother will speak to Father as if butter wouldn't melt in her mouth and Father will sneer so much save when he speaks to Mother that the caller imagines they are the happiest couple on earth.

The old-fashioned man who used to go out to the barn and gather some cobwebs when he cut himself now has a son who keeps bicarbonate of mercury in the house and swallows it by mistake when he is looking for liver pills.
