MRS. L. T. KEY PASSES AWAY AT DAYTON, KENTUCKY.

Mrs. L. T. Key, a former resident of Mason County, near Orangeburg, died at her late residence in Dayton, Ky., Monday afternoon. She is survived by her husband, Mr. L. T. Key, and three sons and two daughters.

Mrs. Key was a sister of the late Attorney T. C. Campbell of this city. The remains will be brought here Thursday morning on the 9:26 train and will be taken directly to the Maysville Cemetery for interment.

LET UNCLE SAM GIVE YOU THE FACTS

Government reports show the steady output of coal during the last few years has made the dealers push for wider markets. We are going to get more value—your trade—by giving you a greater value for your money. You will never get out of debt unless you buy wisely.

INSURANCE

Twenty-five years ago we paid 75c. per $100 on a frame building with five coal stoves in different parts of the building. Today on same site, $2.60 per $100 on building now of brick and metal, one fire, and heated by steam. Then the city had a volunteer fire department and now a fine up to date paid system and yet look at the increase.

Looking at the changes in our own business every department is from 25 cents to 100 per cent. better and cheaper. Why is Kentucky's insurance rate higher than any State in the union and 4 per cent. higher than the average for the entire United States and territories.

DEATH CALLS J. W. OSBORNE

Typical Kentuckian and Native of Tuckahoe Ridge Passes Away at His Home in Dover.

Mr. John Walton Osborne, one of Mason County's most esteemed and leading citizens and tobacco dealers died at his home in Dover at 8:30 o'clock last night of the infirmities due to his advanced years—81.

Mr. Osborne had been ill for many months but the fact that he had a remarkable constitution and great good humor, lengthened his days and years to over four score. He led a strictly temperate life and although he had plenty he worked hard, hard as one of his own hired hands, in his tobacco fields and tobacco warehouses.

Deceased was born on Tuckahoe, January 18th, 1833, and was the oldest son of Charles Osborne and Melvina Osborne, than whom no more noble, Christian and exemplary people ever lived. The old couple were of the "sale of the earth," and reared a large family of sons and daughters to Christian manhood and womanhood.

John W. Osborne was of lordly and dignified address, but loved his joke to the very limit, as this writer can painfully bear witness.

He was united in marriage to Miss Judith Frazer, daughter of the late Col. Sam A. Frazer, of near Germantown, on the 14th day of October, 1858, and next October they would have been married 56 years. They had one idolized son, Homer, who died only a short time after his marriage to Miss Mamie Rice, a sister of Judge W. H. Rice, leaving one daughter, now Mrs. Dan Lloyd, who as the beloved granddaughter to Mr. and Mrs. Osborne has been as their own daughter.

Deceased was a leading member of the Christian Church and died full in the faith of the promises of the redemption of his soul through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Funeral Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his late home, the service and sermon to be spoken by his dearly beloved friend and youthful companion, Rev. W. W. Hall.

Burial in the Minerva Christian Church Cemetery.

May the bliss grass he loved so well wave gently and bloom sweetly over his earthly resting place.

1852 HUNT'S 1914

MEETING OF LADIES' AID SOCIETY. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Third Street M. E. Church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church. Everyone bring their thimbles. The House of Representatives in Frankfort passed a bill raising the State liquor license from $200 to $300; a bill making it unlawful to give or accept tips, and one prohibiting common carriers giving passes or reduced rates to public officials. IT'S DIFFERENT IN OHIO. (Mt. Olivet Advance.) As showing the difference between this and the other side of the Ohio River we cite this instance: The New Richmond, Ohio, people voted by a majority of 328 to 17 on a $50,000 proposition for a modern school building. It will be the handsomest of the kind in the State. If it is not impertinent we might take the liberty to inquire what has become of Mt. Olivet's proposed school building.
