GREAT REVIVAL STARTS

At The Third Street M. E. Church.—Rev. Bunton's Eloquent Sermons Appeal to Audiences—Good Music.

Revival services this evening and every evening during this and next week at the Third Street M. E. Church. Services will begin promptly at 7:30 each evening. The first half hour will be devoted to song and prayer, the sermon beginning at 8 o'clock. Rev. Bunton the evangelist, and Mr. Trent the pianist will arrive this afternoon and will be on hand for this evening's service. You will want to attend these meetings. Dr. Bunton is one of the ablest and most eloquent preachers in Kentucky. His services are in constant demand as a speaker on all sorts of occasions. His genial disposition wins for him friends wherever he goes. He has multitudes of friends in Maysville who will come to hear him.

The services of yesterday were a fitting introduction to the revival. During the Sunday School, which was largely attended, the pastor called for a decision for Christ. Practically the whole school came forward and gave their hand to the pastor. Many will be taken into the membership of the church shortly. The pastor preached stirring evangelistic sermons both morning and evening urging the people to prepare for the battle for souls. Come out tonight at 7:30 and join in the song service and then hear a great Gospel sermon. Every one made welcome.
