THE ASTOR-HUNTINGTON WEDDINGS.

New York.—Upon a tall, fair-haired girl of twenty years, raised in the country and loving it, knowing little of society but destined to know much more, the eyes of the fashionable world are centered today. She is Miss Helen Dinsmore Huntington, who today is to become the bride of Vincent Astor, the son of the Astor family in America and the master of a fortune of nearly $100,000,000.

TYPICAL LEXINGTONIAN HERE.

Col. C. F. Brower, one of Lexington's top-notch business men—and, by the way, one of those old-time, wholesome, true-blue Kentuckians, who came down Tuesday to see the lid pried off the baseball season here, was so much surprised and taken with the "Seven Acre City" that he remained over to witness the Lexington-Maysville series. While here he is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Russell.

TRYING TO PATCH UP MEXICAN SITUATION

Washington, D. C., April 29.—The scope of mediation plans for the settlement of the Mexican struggle was suddenly broadened tonight so as to include the entire range of Mexican affairs—not alone the critical issue between the United States and the Huerta regime, but also the conflict between the elements of northern and southern Mexico, which have rent the republic. This signal enlargement of the mediation program followed the receipt of a formal acceptance by General Carranza, chief of the rebel force, of the principle at issue, as proposed by the Ambassador from Brazil and the ministers from Argentina and Chile.

RESIDENCE OF JOHN C. ADAMSON BURNED IN NASHVILLE.

(Dover News.)

Mr. Dan H. Lloyd has returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he had gone the latter part of the week to see his sister, Mrs. John C. Adamson, and his mother, Mrs. Evan Lloyd, who has been spending the winter there.

Mr. Adamson's home in Nashville burned last Wednesday. By hard work the belongings on the lower floor and the furnishing of two second story rooms were saved in a damaged condition, the balance being a total loss.

Mr. Lloyd was accompanied home by his sister's little son, Master Evan Adamson. Mrs. Lloyd will remain awhile longer with her daughter.

DRY WORKER MURDERED

Thugs Killed Rev. Lewis Patmont Whose Body Was Exhumed and Identified at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Ohio.—A body exhumed from the Rockport cemetery, near here, was identified as that of the Rev. Lewis Patmont, formerly of Milwaukee, who disappeared from Danville, Ill., on April 1. The identification was made by a brother, Oscar Patmont, who lives in Canton, Ohio.

The body of the Rev. Mr. Patmont was found along the Big Four railway tracks southwest of the city on April 6. The coroner decided that a murder had been committed, probably on a freight train, and that the body was then thrown off. The identity of the man remained unestablished, and after several days was interred.

Prior to his disappearance the Rev. Mr. Patmont had been holding a revival meeting in Danville.

The Rev. Mr. Patmont's body was exhumed at the request of Oscar Patmont. It will be taken to Canton for burial.

MAYSVILLE WON

From Lexington in Yesterday's Contest By the Score of 6 to 4—Thompson Allows Only Three Hits.

With the team crippled by the absence of Barrett on first base, Maysville defeated Lexington in the second game of the series here yesterday by the score of 6 to 4.

Manager Chapman selected Thompson to do mound duty for the home club, while Manager Guyn of the Colts selected Lefty Hartwig to do the hurling.

In the first inning Cain started the ball rolling by getting a walk. Konnick sacrificed and McEvoy forced Cain at third. Clouser booted Hub Dawson's roller and McEvoy scored. Dawson was thrown out when he tried to go down to second.

Lexington made their second score in the third inning. Hartwig walked and was sacrificed to second by Cain. Konnick was safe on Curtis' high throw. Hartwig scored on McEvoy's bounder to Clouser, on which a double play was made, but Shaffer's eyes were bad, and he ruled otherwise. McEvoy was out trying to steal second.

As a starter in the sixth Rich walked. Netter singled to center. Rich came in from third when Clouser dumped the ball down the first base line, and Clouser got on while McEvoy was trying to knock the ball foul. Mace sacrificed and Thompson walked, filling the bases. Badel lined one to McEvoy, which was dropped. Mace lost his head and everybody was safe, Netter scoring. Chapman singled over short, scoring Clouser, and Thompson was thrown out at the plate. Curtis singled to center and Badel and Chapman came home. The rally was ended when Curtis was thrown out on an attempted steal.

SOCIETY

After a busy year of work and play the Nomads were entertained yesterday afternoon by the President, Mrs. Lucien Maltby, at her lovely home in the county, this being the closing meeting for the season. Mrs. Maltby was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Clarence Wood and that genial host, Mr. Lucien Maltby. After the business meeting, at which Mrs. Maltby was unanimously elected to succeed herself as president, the ladies adjourned to the broad reception porch, joining the club's guests for the afternoon, Mrs. Moses, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Graham Lee, of the county, and Mrs. Merz and Mrs. Solomon, who are visiting Mrs. Louie and Mrs. Eugene Merz. All were handed slips of paper and pencils and asked to write a story about David Copperfield, introducing the titles to as many of Dickens' works as possible, devoting five minutes to writing. Each lady was asked to read her own story, after which the prizes for merit were awarded to Miss Gill—a dainty pink and lace bag—and Mrs. Johnson—a charming bunch of violets—followed by the luncheon of coffee, beaten biscuits and ham, Pimento sandwiches, club sandwiches, tutti-frutti, and cake, served by dainty little maidens in pink and white, the daughters of the President. The club was happy in having with it again, after her prolonged absence in New York, its honored and loved ex-President, Mrs. Huat, but exceedingly regretful that they were to lose Miss Lucy Lee, one of their oldest and best members, whose resignation they were asked to accept, but who they hope to enjoy seeing at the frequent social functions given, not by, but within connection with this organization.

The Eighth reserve district, which embraces Louisville and Western Kentucky, has not yet raised its $4,000,000 minimum necessary toward its organization.

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it
