TO REST

In Noted Frankfort Cemetery—Body of Senator Bradley Back Home

Great Outpouring at Kentucky Capital to Honor Great Kentuckian's Funeral This Afternoon

Washington, May 25.—The United States Senate, through Sergeant-at-Arms Charles Higgins, yesterday took charge of the arrangements for the funeral of the late Senator William O. Bradley, of Kentucky, under the custom which prevails when one of its members dies in active service.

The Senate will deliver the body at its final resting place in Kentucky, pay all expenses incident to the funeral, of whatever character, and will appropriate for the use of Mrs. Bradley, the Senator's widow, the sum of $7,500, which represents his salary for one year as a Senator.

The body of the late Senator rested yesterday at the undertaking establishment to which it was removed immediately after his death Saturday night.

When the Senate met this morning Senator Ollie M. James arose and informed the Senate that Saturday night at 9:45 the senior senator from Kentucky passed away.

Vice President Marshall named as the Senators who are to escort the body to Kentucky the following:

James, of Kentucky; Smoot, of Utah; Kern and Shively, of Indiana; Gallinger, of New Hampshire; Warren, of Wyoming; Overman, of North Carolina; Fall, of New Mexico; Hughes and Martine, of New Jersey; Poindexter, of Washington; LaFollette, of Wisconsin; Root, of New York; Reyon, of Iowa; and Chilton and Goff of West Virginia.

House Acts Also.
A similar resolution was offered and adopted in the House, though who will present it is not yet quite certain.

Representative Caleb Powers is the only Republican member here from Kentucky. Representative Langley has been absent in the State.

At an informal meeting of the Democratic members of the Kentucky delegation yesterday afternoon a list of names was agreed upon for members of the Funeral Committee, which does not include the name of Caleb Powers.

However, Mr. Powers had anticipated such action by informing Speaker Clark that he (Powers) would be unable to go to Kentucky and requesting that his name be left off the committee. All of the Kentucky members who are in Washington, except Powers, will be placed on the committee.

Representatives Kahn, of California, will be another member.

Speaker Clark yesterday wired to Representative Cantrill, who is in Kentucky, asking him to join the funeral party there.

Special Train Engaged.
A special train of three coaches will leave at 3 o'clock this afternoon. One coach will bear the body and the family party, another will be used for the Senators and the third for the members from the House.

The train will arrive at Frankfort about 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The funeral services will take place at 3:30 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. South, the Senator's daughter. Interment will be in Frankfort Cemetery. The special train will start back to Washington immediately after the funeral.

The family party, as made up at present to accompany the body, includes Dr. and Mrs. South, Colonel and Mrs. Eph Lillard, Robert B. Mays, of Richmond, Ky.; the Senator's nephew; Frankford Fortune, the Senator's messenger, and Mrs. Traube, sister of Dr. South.

Senator Bradley's only son George, who died 17 years ago, is buried at Lancaster, Ky., but it is understood his body will be removed to Frankfort and interred by the side of his father.

Suffered Great Agony.
Senator Bradley, it is learned, suffered great agony in his last illness. To alleviate his suffering the physicians gave him morphine until they were afraid to administer more of the opiate, but still the pain did not leave him. A few hours before his death he was delirious and talked wildly about dictating letters and introducing bills.

For 10 days or two weeks the Senator had a presentiment that he was going to die soon. On starting back to Washington during his recent trip to Kentucky, he bade Dr. and Mrs. South good-by and said:

"I will never see you again."

Recently while at work in his office he startled Miss Lane, his clerk, by remarking that he could hear "the wheels of a hearse."

The New Senator.
It is possible that within the next 10 months Kentucky may have three new United States Senators. The governor may appoint a Senator who will serve until the general election in November. The people may then elect a Senator who will serve until March 4, and another Senator who will take office on March 4 and serve six years.

It is more likely, however, that the one who is elected to fill the short term from November until March 4, will be elected for the full term, beginning March 4.

Funeral Service Simple.

Washington, May 25.—The Senator's body will not lie in state at the capitol in Frankfort, but will be taken immediately to the home of his son-in-law, Dr. South, from which place, at 3:30 o'clock, the funeral services will be conducted. These will consist of a prayer and sermon by the Rev. Dr. Jess R. Ziegler, of the Presbyterian Church, and of hymns. The hymns will be selected by Mrs. Margaret Duncan Bradley, widow of the Senator, who was too ill to make the trip to Washington.

After the services at the South home the casket will be taken to the State Cemetery.

The pallbearers selected are: M. H. Thatcher, L. F. Petty, J. P. Haswell, J. M. Chilton and Homer Batson of Louisville, E. C. Stoll and Wilbur Smith of Lexington, and Frank Taylor of Glasgow.

The list of honorary pallbearers comprises fifty-two of the best-known men in the State and nation, who were friends of Senator Bradley. Among them are: Former President William H. Taft, Charles W. Fairbanks, Gen. W. B. Haldeman, A. E. Wilson, Governor James B. McCreary, T. H. Poynter, W. J. Deboe, E. P. Lillard, Percy Haly, C. C. McChord, Henry Hall, William Marshall Bullitt, L. W. Borah and Lawson Reno.

Telegrams and messages of condolence from all parts of the United States continue to pour in on the members of the Bradley family today. Former President Taft and Mrs. Taft, former Vice-President Fairbanks, many members of former cabinets and distinguished men in all walks of life testified to their grief at the death of the famous Kentuckian. From his home State the messages came in great sheaves.

STAFF OF GOV BRADLEY TO ESCORT REMAINS.

General Wilbur R. Smith, adjutant general under Senator Bradley, when governor, wired the remaining members of the governor's military staff, to meet the train at Ashland and escort the remains to the State capitol.

Of the nine members of the staff, only four are now living besides General Smith, namely: Colonel C. C. Kenner, Louisville, Ky.; Colonel Gus Thibault, Newport, Ky.; Colonel Frank Coles, Ashland, Ky., and Asst. Adj. Gen. Walter Forrester, Louisville, Ky.

BRADLEY'S BODY TO LIE IN STATE.

Frankfort, Ky., May 25.—Arrangements have been made here today for the body of the late senator to lie in state in the old capitol tomorrow until the hours of the funeral at 3:30 o'clock. Colonel L. P. Tarlton wired this morning to Mrs. J. G. South, at Washington, asking her if the family would consent to that arrangement. An immense crowd is expected and a special probably will come from Louisville.

Mrs. Thomas Badgley will hereafter represent The Ledger in Aberdeen.

CLOSELY PLAYED CONTEST

Cubs Defeated the League Leaders by the Score of 3 to 2 in a Well-Played Game—Two Maysville Players Injured.

The lowly Cubs made it an even break by putting it on the champion Babes by the score of 3 to 2. The game was one of the best played on the local diamond this year and belonged to anyone until the last man was retired.

Reily was the man Manager Newnam picked to do the twirling for the Babes and Raemes acted as the same capacity for the home club.

Maysville started the ball to rolling right off the reel. Badel walked and was sacrificed to second by Chapman. Curtis singled down the third base line and Badel crossed the plate. Curtis was out trying to go to second on the play. Donovan bounded to Newnam and was thrown out at first.

Chillicothe tied the score in the second frame. Nesser doubled to right and scored on Eisel's single. Houtz sacrificed. Friend bounded to Raemes, who threw Eisel out at third. Newnam lined out to Emery.

The Cubs forged ahead again in the same inning. Dieterich beat out a hot one to Reily. Emery singled through short, Dieterich going to third. Emery stole second. Barrett and Gohr took four wide ones apiece and forced Dieterich in. Raemes fanned. Badel hit to Nesser, who threw Emery out at home. Chapman was out, Reily to Nesser.

The infants tied the score again in the sixth on Shovlin's single, Nesser's sacrifice and Eisel's double.

The game continued along in the same even tenor until the ninth when the locals slid across the winning run. With two down and Gohr on first, Chapman singled through second and sent the fleet-footed catcher around to the third station. Corbin tried to throw Gohr out on the play and Chapman started for second. Parmelee threw the ball to catch him, but instead of going to the proper destination, the ball hit Chappy in the head and rolled back almost to the home plate. Gohr scored on the play.

RIGHT OFF THE BAT.

The Cubs left this morning to play two games at Lexington and will return here Thursday for two games with the same club.

It looks as if some one else must have stepped on Frank Nesser's batting average. In eight times at bat here in two games he got one lonely bkgie.

As there is no game here today, the regular "Ladies' Day," the management have designated Thursday as the day for the ladies to turn out and root for the home boys.

President Read wired Umpire Brown here last night that his services were no longer needed in this organization. This is a good move by President Read but it should have been done sooner.

Manager Chapman last night released Outfielder Netter and Pitcher Linson. Both these men are good in their respective positions and should have no trouble in hooking on with some other club in the Read circuit.

In the third inning Donovan made a sensational one-hand catch of Corbin's liner to center. The ball almost hit the ground and Dick had to take it at a high speed. Had the ball gone by it would have been good for a homer.

Jimmy Emery, who has been short, stopping here for the past several weeks, shows a great improvement in the last week, both at bat and in the field. In the two games here with the Babes he has secured five hits out of seven times at bat and also got several walks.

Curtis got a split finger in the sixth when Eisel slid into third and was tipped by Chuck.

Harry Griffin came in from Richmond, Va., yesterday to accept a position on the pitching staff of the local team.

PATMONT TURNS UP

Missing Temperance Worker, Thought Dead, Tells Strange Story

Danville, Ill., May 25.—The Rev. Louis Patmont, prohibition lecturer and staff correspondent of the Christian Standard of Cincinnati, who was found in a deserted farmhouse near Columbia, Ill., today presented himself to the Vermillion County grand jury to tell the story of how he was kidnapped from Westville, Ill., March 31.

Following his disappearance he was reported dead and memorial services were held. His body was reported found in Cleveland. It was not until several examinations were made that the mistake was made certain.

Burn's detectives say they have learned whose red touring car was used by the kidnapers. A score of detectives are at work. Some are working independently and other were sent here by the First Church of Christ of Detroit.

State Attorney J. H. Lewman says he has learned that there were seven men in the plot, two Italians, three Americans and two Irish-Americans. It is expected that arrests soon will be made.

Patmont says he was taken two miles on a hand-car, placed in an auto and carried to an old house near here, placed in a cellar through a trap door and kept until a week ago, when he was removed to Columbia, Ill. He believes he was close to Westville all the time. A foreigner attended to his wants, continuing his story of his experience he said:

"I was given a drug in my food which dazed my brain and I can hardly realize what happened to me. The cell that was my prison was about 18x20 feet square. The floor was dirty and damp."

"To keep himself from becoming insane, he composed hymns and repeated poetry.

Mr. Patmont was in Cincinnati last March and expects to return to that city soon. The State attorney today wired the Christian Standard in Cincinnati that Mr. Patmont was without funds, and was instructed in reply to draw on the Standard.
