BEAUTIFUL CHARACTER GONE

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith Called To Rest Leaving to Her Loved Ones Faded Members of Her Many Virtues.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith, wife of Dr. F. M. Smith, died Wednesday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock at her home in Dover of consumption.

There have been few like her. When such a woman dies the virgin choir and the harps of heaven peal forth their joyous melodies of eternal blessedness; the gates of alabaster and gold roll back to welcome another sainted soul to God's paradise.

In the calling from this life of Mary Lizzie Smith there passed away a most remarkable woman. As daughter, wife, mother, relative and friend; as house-keeper, manager and entertainer she was the peer if not the superior of millions of such models of her sex.

Not perfect, but perfect enough for God to bless and Christ to welcome and to glorify in the effulgence of and magnificence of the "Mansion in the Skies."

She bore her Cross of suffering, even as the Savior up the weary heights of Calvary. She sang and she smiled and she wept and she prayed and she suffered—aye, much, but her determination and strength of mind and body never deserted her. Her unwavering trust in the promises of Christ bore her triumphantly over every obstacle, until her earthly hopes were realized in the virtues and success of her three children.

Her crown of everlasting glory was won and she sank to eternal rest with a smile of trust and hope in her dreamless sleep.

Deceased was born in Millersburg, Ky., September 23, 1851, and was the eldest daughter of the late Robert Tabb and Elizabeth Collier Tabb.

She was married to Dr. F. M. Smith at Blue Lick Springs, then the home of her parents, January 24th, 1878. Her husband and three children survive, as follows: Austin Smith, cashier of the Bank of Ohio, National Bank; Freeman Smith, employed in the First National Bank at Cincinnati; and Miss Ethelene Smith, each of whom have been God-given blessings to parents and home.

One sister, Mrs. J. J. Tamm, and scores of near relatives mourn for her. The funeral services will take place tomorrow, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at her late home in Dover conducted by a minister of the Christian Church, to which denomination she was faithful and devoted.

The funeral is to be in Rosemont Cemetery in Dover.

MOONLIGHT FETE AT MURPHYSVILLE

There will be a moonlight fete held at Murphysville Saturday night August 22nd for the benefit of the Methodist church.

POPE PIUS X IS DEAD

Rome, Aug. 19.—Pope Pius X died today. His holiness, after suffering a relapse earlier in the day, became unconscious at noon. At that time a priest had been sent for and the last sacraments of the church were administered. Doctors in attendance were compelled to begin the administration of oxygen to keep him alive, pending the summoning to the bedside of the officials demanded by the rites of the church to be present.

Death Was Due to War. The death of the Pope was due to the war. He died practically of a broken heart. For days before the war broke out he was gravely concerned, and he notified all of the heads of the church throughout Europe to work for peace.

Up until hostilities actually commenced, the Pope did not believe that war would come between civilized nations at this late day.

When he heard that Germany had declared war on Russia, and realized that the conflagration had actually been kindled, he broke down. His holiness swooned and was unconscious for several minutes. His physicians were called in and had to administer powerful restoratives.

Entire Heart Set on Peace. There was a slight recovery and the Pope was able to be about the Vatican. He spent most of his time in prayer, and in all of his devotions impressed upon every member of his household that his entire heart was set on the restoration of peace.
