LUKE MCLUKE SAYS

With the exception of a lot of ink and adjectives there isn't much in a love letter.

Some married couples always remind you of a horse hitched up with a mule.

We never had the pleasure of seeing September A. M., but we once saw a corn-fed girl climb out of a hammock.

It always makes a man mad when his wife acts as if he had no right to be.

Anyway, the old-fashioned man who wouldn't think of taking a bath until Saturday night arrived had it all over some of the modern muffs who have an idea that Saturday night comes about twice a year.

A fat woman will pin a piece of ribbon around her torso and feel happy because she has a waist line.

About this time of year the June bride begins to wonder what she was smoking when she imagined that her husband was different from other men.

When a Lodge announces that an important business is to be transacted at a meeting a few stragglers show up. But if the announcement is made that a Keg Will Be Tapped there isn't a member absent.

British Press Bureau Declares The General Position Continues Satisfactory And That Allies Gain Ground.

London, Eng., Sept. 8.—The British official press bureau issued the following tonight:

"The general position continues satisfactory. The allies are gaining ground on their left all along the line of the Oureq and Petit Morin.

Paris, France, Sept. 9.—The battle proceeding to the East of Paris appears to be most important and the most stubbornly fought of the campaign. The military authorities decline to give any indication of the number of men engaged, but hundreds of thousands are participating on both sides.

According to those in position to know, the casualties have been so great that the Germans have requested an armistice of twenty-four hours. The armistice was refused with the response: "We will grant that time to get out of France."

An official communication issued by the war office shows that the German lines, while receding, have offered the sternest resistance, delivering several fierce but unsuccessful counter attacks.

In the center of the allies line several encounters have occurred, the two opposing forces ending the day with varying fortunes, which, however, are regarded as more favorable to the allies than their adversaries.

London, Eng., Sept. 9.—The British and French forces north and east of Paris have had further successes against the German invaders, according to a bulletin issued today, while in Galicia the Russians continue with considerable success their attempt to envelop and defeat the Austrian army of 400,000 men under General Auffenberg.

For the moment at least, interest centers in the campaign in France, for it is felt that the battle proceeding there is the first real crisis of the war and will have a vital effect on the outcome.

The allies, according to a bulletin issued by the French War Office, have repulsed another attempt of the Germans to penetrate their left center between Fere-Champenoise and Vitry-Le-Francois.

Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria, is reported stricken with paralysis.

His government said to fear revolution will break out in Carpathians, where Hungarian sentiment is declared in favor of Russia.

250,000 Russian Troops in France.

Rome, Sept. 8.—According to the Rome Tribune there is in France today a total of 250,000 Russian troops. This newspaper attributes Emperor William's presence at Metz to this concentration of Russians.

German Chancellor and Minister Clash With The Kaiser And Resign.

Rome, Sept. 8.—(via London, Sept. 8, 8:10 a. m.)—According to a dispatch from Berlin to the Messagero, a serious controversy has arisen between the German Emperor and Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg and Minister of Foreign Affairs Von Jagow, the two Ministers being regarded as responsible for the unreadiness of German diplomacy which led to the coalition of the other European states against Germany. It is reported, according to the published dispatch that their resignations have been tendered.

Rev. M. S. Clark, pastor of the First M. E. Church in this city, has been named pastor of the church at Wilmore and will move to that city.

WHEAT TUMBLES ON WAR REPORTS

Success of Allies in Staying German Advance Brings Sudden Decline.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—September wheat sold down four cents shortly after the opening today on reports that the Allies at last were meeting with some success in opposing the German advances on Paris. Other options also declined. September wheat, which closed Saturday at $1.19½, opened at $1.16½, and sold off to $1.15½. The volume of trade was not large, although the tone was lively.

A MODEL BATTLE PRAYER

The old Prince of Anhalt, field marshal of Frederick the Great, having been ordered to bring his army to a junction with Frederick's, found himself confronted by a superior body of the enemy through which he must cut a way. Disposing his troops for battle, the marshal took off his hat and said very solemnly:

"Heavenly Father, I ask You to give me Your aid today that I may not be disgraced in my old age. And if You can't help us, please don't help those dogs of Austrians, but just let us fight it out among ourselves."

For true reverence we commend that to several sovereigns who are now assuring their own peasants that heaven is going to assist them in slaughtering peasants who speak a different tongue.

FISH IN WELL 22 YEARS.

(Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.)

In the rear of the poultry house of Thomas Heinrich & Son, on South Queen street, this city, is an old abandoned well which is the home of a three and one-half pound white sucker. The property was originally owned by old "Aunt" Mandy Bell, and twenty-two years ago "Aunt" Mandy caught a minnow out of the Hinkston Creek and dropped it in the well "just to see how long it would live." The minnow grew and grew and apparently thrived in its lonely prison until it became as large as its species get to be. When Mr. Heinrich bought the property he gave "Aunt" Mandy a turkey to allow the fish to remain in the well, and to this day, although twenty-two years have passed, it is still there. The fish has been out of the well on two occasions while his home was being cleaned.

JUST BE KIND. IT PAYS.

Be sparing with the whip. Don't overload. Give the horse a rest at the top of a hill, and if it is a long hill, a rest when part of it has been covered.

A friendly pat on the nose is appreciated even by a horse. See that there is feed and water in abundance.

Be even more careful about the water in hot weather.

Don't neglect the shoeing. It is vital on a slippery pavement.

Don't ever use the whip simply because you have it. It is a very poor driver who makes a blow the starting signal.

Give the horse an occasional full day's rest. It will add to his value. Better yet, there should be a summer vacation for every horse.

Please don't feel that this little talk is an interference with your business. It isn't. You are interested in humane treatment as we can be, and it means more to you, for if you are a driver, it will increase your efficiency, and if you are an owner, it will increase the value of your animals.
