TRYING CONSOLIDATED SCHOOLS IN OHIO.

(Manchester Signal.)
Over in Engle township, Brown county, an election was held recently to centralize the schools, where there are eight white and one colored school. The vote stood 147 for and 80 against. This is the first township in Brown county to make the move. Next is a bond election to raise funds to erect a suitable building. The scholars will be hauled in from a distance over two miles. Other townships are expected to follow suit.

"He is the sort of fellow," said Eph Wiley yesterday, "who honors women and neglects his wife."

FOUR SUITS

Filed in Mason Circuit Court To Come Up At Next December Term.

Mary A. Mark, through her attorneys, F. H. McCarthy and B. S. Granis, filed suit against M. F. Coughlin & Company for $2,000 damages for physical and mental pains which she suffered as the result of the grossly careless and negligent manner in which the defendants handled their automobile, causing her horse to scare, overturning the buggy, throwing her out and dislocating her shoulder, fracturing her shoulder blade and breaking her collar bone, and otherwise injuring and bruising her, shocking her nervous system and causing her great and permanent injury.

Pearl Dorin filed suit against Coughlin & Company for $250 for damages done to her horse and buggy as the result of the negligent, careless and reckless manner in which the defendant's employee, Thornton Owens, operated and drove automobile belonging to said company.

James Delenty, administrator of J. J. Downey, deceased, filed suit against Frank Miller for $101.65, said amount being due for beer and ice which the decedent, J. J. Downey, sold and delivered to the plaintiff, Dan Miller.

James Delenty, administrator of J. J. Downey, deceased, filed suit against Dan Miller for $117.91, said amount being due for beer and ice which the decedent, J. J. Downey, sold and delivered to the plaintiff, Dan Miller. Worthington, Cochran & Browning are the attorneys for the plaintiffs in the three latter cases.

LIMESTONE LODGE

Knights of Pythias Elect New Officers—Honey Boy Minstrels Next Big Thing Planned.

The election of officers took place last night at the Castle Hall of Limestone Lodge No. 76. Much interest was shown, as there was a large attendance of old members, something unusual. The following were elected:

- G. C.—Walter Rudy.
  - V. C.—Arthur Helmer.
  - Prelate—George Hill.
  - M. of A.—Henry Helmer.
  - M. of W.—W. B. Baldwin.
  - M. of E.—J. W. Lee.
  - M. of E.—W. Watkins.
  - K. of R. and S.—Sherman Ara.
  - O. G.—Joseph Thompson.
  - I. G.—Sam McNutt.
  - Trustee—Major Picklen.
- The minstrel is now all the talk, and old Limestone will endeavor to show our good citizens some of the excellent talent among the members. The date has not been decided, but will be some time during the first of December.
- Seldom is there shown as much rivalry for offices as was at the election. Twelve nominations for the Inner Guard office. Let every member pull hard for a greater membership.

BROOKSVILLE, BRACKEN COUNTY COURT NEWS.

A jury returned a verdict for $1,200 in favor of A. L. Murray of Walcott, against the Bracken County Insurance Company. This suit grew out of the destruction of the store building at Walcott, the question being whether or not the insurance was in force. A verdict for the full amount sued for was given.

The suit of Mrs. Viola Jett against Mrs. Etna Jett and W. A. Byron resulted in a verdict of $984.55 in favor of the plaintiff, Mrs. Viola Jett. This suit grew out of a compromise in a proposed slender suit, and was warmly contested on both sides. Each spiced testimony, mixed with tobacco sauce, was introduced, much to the edification of the bald-headed reserves who crowded the front seats.

Mrs. Joseph Litzing was awarded $200 damages against Herbert Byar, of near Minerva.

General train in Arkansas checked the forest and grass fires that threatened a large part of the state.
