EX-CONVICTS

Engaged In a Shooting and Cutting Scrape In Smoky Hollow—One Lands In Jail.

There was a lively moving picture mixup yesterday afternoon at the maison de joy of Sis Cash, in 'Smoky Hollow,' between Bob Warner and Charley Martin, the latter being ex-convictary birds, and all negroes.

The shooting was without result, as the men were struggling for possession of a gun, which was discharged and led to the report that a regiment had been killed.

UNJUST

And Slanderous Are Charges Against Trustees of Hayswood Hospital Declares J. Foster Barbour

Records Show That Everything Concerning Purchase and Management of Hospital Is Perfectly Square

Editor of The Public Ledger: The article of Mr. A. Clooney in the Daily Independent of yesterday on Wilson Hospital is directed particularly at me.

His first statement is that the property belonged to my father-in-law, the late Dr. Hays, and the price paid was considered high at the time, being about $5,000.

I will say the property was sold at public sale, it was offered in parcels and as a whole. Mrs. Wilson's bid was a few dollars more than the other bids. The executors of the estate of Mrs. Wilson were allowed the usual fees for winding up her estate.

The charge that the money was placed in bank or government bonds to be used at some future time when the urgency for charity is greater than now is not true. The bulk of Mrs. Wilson's personal estate was in government bonds when we received it.

The name has not been changed since Mrs. Wilson's death. The name was not to honor any family. Mrs. Wilson requested that her name should not be used. It was given by Dr. Pickett and he gave it this name because it was the name of the site, which fact is recognized by Mrs. Wilson in her will, WRITTEN BY HERSELF, in twice referring to it under that name.

Editor of The Public Ledger: I wish to add to the above statement, that the trustees of Hayswood Hospital, who acted as executors of Mrs. Wilson, have contributed in excess of double the amount of money to the hospital that the same gentlemen received as statutory fees as executors, in selling the estate of Mrs. Mae V. Wilson.

SO THAT INSTEAD OF DERIVING PROFIT FROM THE INSTITUTION, AS HAS BEEN SLANDEROUSLY CHARGED, the trustees have contributed their means and devoted their best efforts to the interests of the hospital, receiving in return a great deal of unkind and unjust criticism.

PEACE DOVE IS FLUTTERING

Washington, December 1.—Henry Van Dyke, the ambassador from the Netherlands, is expected to urge in conference tomorrow with President Wilson that another effort be made to bring about peace in Europe, with the United States and Holland co-operating to that end.

Zeppelins Are Preparing To Destroy British Fleet (?)

Rotterdam, December 1.—I am informed that Zeppelins are now practicing how to sink the allies' fleet. My informant, who has returned from Bavaria, watched the maneuvers of the Zeppelins over the military area. They ascended to a height considered sufficient to safeguard them against gun fire and dropped unloaded bombs.

London, December 1.—The arrival of Emperor William in Poland marked a turn in the tide of battle. The Russians, it is declared, had nearly surrounded that part of the German army near Lodz, and it narrowly missed annihilation. The emperor took hold of the situation. Fighting with indescribable fury, the Germans broke the encircling cordon of Russians. Reinforcements arrived in the nick of time.
