

Welcome, 1915!

We look down the prospect of the new year with its broadening horizon of prosperity, glad in the knowledge that great things are before us all. And we record it as our resolve, here and now, that we will serve this community to the uttermost of our ability, giving evidence of our right intent with merchandise of integrity. If, perchance, there be any one who believes he has even the slightest cause for grievance in any past transaction at the LIVE STORE, we adjure him to make it known now, so that we may carry no left-over grudges into the bright white ledger of 1915. A joyous and prosperous New Year to you, and many of them.

'QUIT CHER BELLERIN'. LOOK WHAT I GOTTA CARRY.'

(Ripley Bee.) Hanging over Captain Kiker's desk is a picture representing two little waifs gathering driftwood; poor, ragged little urchins are they. The smaller child, having complained of the load, is chidden by the larger with a "Quit cher bellerin', Look what I gotta carry. Look what we all gotta carry." When a man gives pause about Christmas time, and taking a survey of himself, compares the load he must carry with the load carried by others, he will come to the conclusion that there is little use in repining, and that the best resolution he can make is to square his shoulders to the burden.

BANKER ALEXANDER STAR BOARDER.

Paris, Ky.—George Alexander, convicted banker, is not behind the bars of the Bourbon county jail, but instead is occupying a private room in the living apartments of the jailer.

Mrs. Alexander, his wife, spent last night and today with him, and declare that under no circumstances will she leave him. She has suffered several fainting spells since his conviction and is in a state of almost complete nervous collapse.

Alexander still retains his unperturbed composure.

PASSENGER TRAVEL HEAVY.

Railroad men say that passenger business has shown a sudden and very gratifying increase in the last few weeks, and that they fully expect the business for this month to equal that for December of last year. The holiday travel, they say, will be quite as large as a year ago, although the rates this year are lower than a year ago.—Lexington Leader.

CARGOES VALUED AT OVER $10,000,000 GO TO BELGIUM.

London.—A report issued by the American Commission for the Relief of Belgium shows that cargoes valued at over $10,000,000 have been delivered in Belgium or arranged for.

By January the commission says it hopes to have four ships arriving regularly every week at Rotterdam with relief for the Belgians.

HE JUST CAN'T KEEP OUT OF IT.

Colonel W. P. Walton, the widely known newspaper editor of Lexington, who is also a candidate for the Democratic nomination for secretary of state, will early in January begin the publication of a weekly newspaper in Lexington.

Welcome back to the fold, Colonel. Please keep your tag number on here after.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION GETS KNOCKOUT.

Washington, December 23.—The Hobson resolution to submit a constitutional amendment for national prohibition to state Legislatures was defeated in the House, 197 members voting for and 189 against it. An affirmative vote of two thirds was required to adopt the resolution.

A WHITE CHRISTMAS.

Yesterday's forecast was that we would have a "green Christmas," but when this morning came the earth was covered with several inches of snow and it is the old-fashioned kind of a real "white Christmas" we are to have. This is the seventh real snow of the winter.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side. The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair. At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work." If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
