HEALING THE REPUBLICAN DIVISION.

The regrettable division in the Republican party in 1912, brought about by the ambition of Theodore Roosevelt to break all precedents and become President for a third term, has brought in its trail such serious disaster to the country that the growing evidences of a reunited party are among the most cheering auspices of the New Year. Not all of the bitterness can die at once, nor all of the rancor disappear, but that charity which covers a multitude of sins—our own as well as those of others—should be invoked as the guiding motive of parties as well as of individuals.

The Republican party can not be a majority party unless it welcomes back to its ranks the men who formerly marched under its banner and are still loyal to its cardinal policies. In a recent speech in Boston, Senator Lodge expressed the sentiment that all should entertain:

I have never found it in my heart to attack those who went out from the Republican party and called themselves Progressives. The division in our party in 1912 seemed to me to be a great calamity, because it allowed the Democrats to come into power by a minority vote. When the Republican party was united we had a majority of 1,500,000 throughout the country. Now that we are reunited, we may reasonably expect such a majority in the national elections of 1916. We hope that the others will come in. I want to wipe out from memory the two unhappy years—years which resulted in placing the affairs of the nation in the hands of men whose administration has brought us nothing but depression at home and ridicule abroad.

ILLOGICAL FREE TRADERS.

The free traders yet have to learn that in warring on capital, as in war itself, you can't pick out the officers and leave the rank and file immune; that where one officer is killed, thousands of common soldiers yield up their lives. The Protection party is constructive; the free trade party is destructive. One stands primarily for the producer of wealth; the other for what it chooses to designate as the "ultimate consumer," ignoring the fact that practically all consumers are producers of one sort or another, and forgetting that if there were no producers there would be nothing for the consumer to consume.

DRIVING FORCE OF THE FREE TRADE TARIFF.

So powerful is the driving force of the new tariff still to rush imports into the United States from all parts of the world where the terrible war is not an embargo, in part or in whole, that those imports come flooding into our markets as yet with so great a sweep as to obliterate all high-water marks for every year preceding 1912.—New York Press.

Unquestionably, before the contest is ended, the British government will be driven to all possible expedients to raise money. It is more than likely that it will be compelled to abandon its free trade policy and levy a stiff protective tariff on all manufactured articles.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Our Democratic friends are now crying, "Let the tariff issue rest." This might have been good advice two years ago, when the nation had a trade balance in its favor and the revenues of the country did not need a "war tax."—Monmouth (Ill.) Atlas.

Protection is the light which brightens the home. Free trade is the darkness of gloom.

TAKING THEIR PLACES.

The two Progressives in the Illinois House, like the two in the Massachusetts House, take their places with the Republicans. And one of them is no less a leader than Medill McCormick.—Boston Herald.

RABBITS NO WITNESSES.

The Virginia game warden who wants Mr. Bryan for the Christmas day rabbit hunt is like death in that he loves a shining mark. But he can't prove it on the Secretary by the rabbits.—New York World.

IMPOSSIBLE DECREES.

"Provisional President" Carranza decreeing the cancellation of all concessions since 1876 reminds one of the Queen of Hearts ordering every one's head chopped off indiscriminately.—New York Sun.

THE SEA NO PLACE FOR WHALES.

The fate of the North sea whale that was mistaken for a submarine is merely another example of what happens to the innocent bystander.—Washington Star.

AN OBSOLETE CROP.

Prohibition has made great strides in several states that have become so solicitous about cotton that they do not care what becomes of the mint.—Washington Star.

NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS.

The woman's waist line is to be restored. But where?—Times-Star.

Investment statistics show that more municipal securities were sold to investors in ten months of 1914 than in twelve months of any previous year.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

Laughter is merely a smile set to music. Words of wisdom are few, but there are many echoes. It's easier to fall in love or a river than it is to climb out. True happiness is founded upon the rock of a eradle.

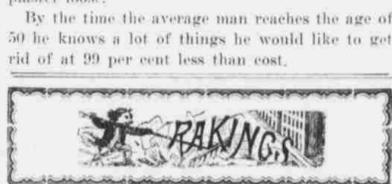

We feel sorry for a deaf mute when he steps on a tack in the dark. It's a poor mirror that will not enable a man to see his best friend.

A foolish woman grows old about as gracefully as she climbs a fence. What most married men would rejoice to see is a war tax on old bachelors.

Eliminate politics, religion and the weather and there would not be much left to talk about. Toadstools are frequently mistaken for mushrooms, just as gall is frequently mistaken for genius.

Nearly all men are doomed to death by the doctors, but occasionally the doom is postponed for years. The real difference between a porous plaster and a sponging relative is that you can pry the porous plaster loose.

By the time the average man reaches the age of 50 he knows a lot of things he would like to get rid of at 99 per cent less than cost.

Some Doctor, This.
"Now," said the professor in the medical college, "if a person in good health, but who imagined himself sick, should send for you, what would you do?"
"I," said a student, "would give him something to make him sick, and then administer an antidote."
"Don't waste any more time here, young man," said the professor, "but begin practice at once."

How Many Have You?
One day is just the same as another to people who have the calendar collecting habit.

Must Hear Both Sides.
"May it please your honor, I am deaf in one ear," remarked the unwilling jurymen. "Then leave the box," replied the judge, "a juror must hear both sides."

CRYING FOR HELP

Lots of It in Maysville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed. Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood. Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble. It is often the kidney's cry for help. Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys. Read what Doan's have done for Maysville people.

Lang Stevens, Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had backache, which extended into my kidneys. The kidney action was irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family, so I gave them a trial. They helped me greatly."

Mr. Stevens is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Stevens had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. LIST OF MERCHANTS

Who Contributed To Boys' Corn Club Public Is Thanked By the Committee For Their Part In the Success of the Club.

The following is a list of subscription to the Boys' Corn Club contestants. Those subscribing to this worthy cause are to be congratulated on their public spirit and it is hoped that their generosity will encourage the Corn Club boys to increased efforts for another year.

Your interest in these contests is solicited, as it is desirable that more interest be taken in raising better corn and more corn, more grain, alfalfa, forage and hay crops. Thousands of dollars' worth of feed have been shipped into Mason county in the last year at very high prices and thousands of dollars' worth of tobacco is being sold at very low prices.

Mr. D. L. Hunter, who has taken great interest in this contest, and has assisted in the management, acting as custodian of the Corn Club funds, will mail checks to the winners, who will present themselves to the merchants for the different articles they so kindly contributed.

We wish to again thank those who contributed.

THIS WOMAN'S SICKNESS

Quickly Yielded To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bridgeton, N.J.—"I want to thank you a thousand times for the wonderful good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered very much from a female trouble. I had bearing down pains, was irregular and at times could hardly walk around my room. I was unable to do any housework or attend to my baby I was so weak. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me a world of good, and now I am strong and healthy, can do my work and tend my baby. I advise all suffering women to take it and get well as I did."—Mrs. FANNIE COOPER, R.F.D., Bridgeton, N.J.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

BUSH LEAGUE STUPH

Opens Around the Stoves At Ripley—Billy Maddox To Start Something.

(Ripley Bee.)
Billy Maddox, manager of the Ripley baseball club, has purchased the seats of the Bartine circus, with canvas side wall, stakes, poles, etc., which he expects to use at the Ripley ball park the coming summer. He also secured a frame up for a large air-dome which he contemplates conducting if a suitable location can be secured. If the air-dome is opened he will use feature films exclusively. The ball park will be greatly improved, and the best baseball talent of this section will be signed and Ripley is assured of a fast club in 1915.

DECISION AFFECTING HIRING OF TEACHERS.

Frankfort, Ky.—"Trustees of the graded school may at any time in the calendar year select teachers for the ensuing school year that begins in the year in which the election of teachers is held," said the Court of Appeals in an opinion by Judge Carroll, reversing the Lawrence Circuit Court in the case of Emory E. Wheeler against John Burke et al.
