GIRL KILLS BROTHER
To Save Him From Life of Drunkard—Turns Gun on Self.

St. Louis, Mo., April 3.—Miss Aimee Gutzell, 24 years old, today shot and wounded fatally her brother, Archibald, 30 years old, at their home, to save him, she stated, from the life of a drunkard.

After shooting him twice in the back, Miss Gutzell turned the pistol on herself, but it missed fire. The man died half an hour later.

"I resolved to kill him to relieve my mother of the grief he had been causing her," said the girl, "and decided also to kill myself."

She was sent to the observation ward of the City Hospital.

CHURCH NOTES

Following is the attendance at the various Maysville Sunday schools for Sunday, April 4:
Christian 275
Third Street M. E. 205
Baptist 151
Second M. E., South 133
Forest Avenue M. E. 125
First M. E., South 121
First Presbyterian 101
Central Presbyterian 75
Mission 70
Total 1,256

The idea of running attendance contests at young people's meetings is gaining ground rapidly. The Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church began one recently and the result thus far is that their attendance has increased about three-fold and the interest at the meetings is much better. The Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. church has for several years past conducted such contests and now they have one of the leading Epworth Leagues in the United States. Now that the interest in the young people's meetings is increasing, it does not seem out of place to suggest a revival of the old Union Association of Young People's Societies, which existed several years ago. This union would promote a greater interest in the work such as would tend to increase the attendance at the various societies and would bring forth results which can only be attained by co-operation.

Do not forget the revival which begins in earnest tonight at the Third street M. E. church. Dr. Lee Ault man of Cincinnati will arrive this afternoon and will preach his first sermon tonight. Yesterday was a banner day at this church. Several weeks ago the teachers in the Sunday school pledged to have 200 present on Easter Sunday, but they went beyond this and had 205 present. At the morning church service the pastor, Rev. J. M. Litaler, preached a fine sermon on "The Atonement," and in the evening the choir rendered the beautiful Easter cantata, "The Conquering King," by Ira B. Wilson.

A very beautiful sunny spring day dawned upon the people of Maysville yesterday morning and of a consequence all Sunday school and church services were well attended. The total attendance at all the local Sunday schools yesterday reached a total of 1,256, which is about 200 better than the regular attendance. There were no Sunday school services held at the Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rash, Mr. Charles Moore and daughter, Miss Catherine, Misses Maud Elliott and Mary Nell Royce, Mrs. W. H. Leaming and son, M. C. Donaldson, Mr. John P. Morgan and Mrs. C. C. Degman composed a delegation from Springdale and were guests of Mrs. J. M. Litaler's Sunday school class at the Easter services at the Third Street M. E. church yesterday morning.

Do not forget that 3,000 is the mark set for the Maysville Sunday schools on "Go-To-Sunday-School-Day," April 25.

Several converts who wished to join the Baptist church were baptized yesterday afternoon in the Ohio river.

The decision meetings held in the Christian church last week resulted in thirteen accessions to the church.

19 INCHES OF SNOW
Fell Saturday In Philadelphia—New York and Eastern End Buried Under Blizzard.

Philadelphia, April 3.—Nineteen inches of snow fell in Philadelphia in twelve hours today, breaking all records for any twelve hours in the history of the Federal Weather Bureau here.

Coming up from the South Atlantic Coast, the storm struck this vicinity at 8 o'clock in the morning. At first the snow melted, but after an hour it began to stick, with the result that an average of fifteen inches are on the ground tonight, according to an estimate by the weather forecaster. Despite the gale, which reached a maximum velocity of fifty-two miles an hour, the snow did not drift much as it was too wet and heavy. The temperature at 8 a. m. was 29, and to night it had fallen to 31 degrees.

New York and the entire Atlantic coast from Maine to the Virginia cape were in the grip of the blizzard. Shipping was forced to seek shelter and wire communication was interrupted in many places.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

England.
The three-masted steamer Paquetette was sunk by a German submarine off Focamp. The crew was rescued. The British steamer Lockwood was torpedoed off Start Point by a German submarine. The crew was saved. A Norwegian steamer was damaged during the bombardment of Liban.

Russia.
The Germans are pouring reinforcements into Hungary to support the Austrian armies, which are being hard pressed by the Russians in the Carpathians, where battles continue by night and day. The Russians claim considerable success in forcing the passes, and say over 7,000 prisoners have been captured.

Serbia.
Bulgarian irregulars have attacked the Serbians along the border with great force.

Austria.
It is officially denied in Vienna that Austria has opened negotiations with Russia for a separate peace.

Turkey.
Hostile mine sweepers made an attempt to approach the Dardanelles, but retired before the fire of the Turkish forts, according to a Constantinople official report. Warships unsuccessfully bombarded the straits and retreated, the report adds.

'Defense of Constantinople Useless.'
Paris, April 3.—A dispatch to the Balkan Agency from Pedeaghatich says:
"At a council of war held in Constantinople, and presided over by the Sultan, the German General, Liman Von Sanders, commander of the Turkish forces in Europe, declared that the German officers and engineers would do all that was possible to defend the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus, but if, in spite of all their efforts, the allied fleets force the straits, it would be useless to try to defend Constantinople. He advises the transfer of the capital to the interior of Asia Minor."

Italy To Declare War, Deputy Asserts
Paris, April 3.—Giuseppe Bayone, the Italian deputy, declared today that Italy would declare war on Germany if the German fleet forced the Dardanelles. He said that Italy would not be able to defend Constantinople if the German fleet forced the straits.

editor of the Turin Stamp, and also a number of the Italian Chamber of Deputies, told an American correspondent today that he had a deep conviction that Italy would begin war against Germany and Austria before the end of April.
The belief was expressed by Signor Bionvino that the Vatican would not be opposed to Italy intervening in the war.
He said also that it was not necessary for the government to convene Parliament for the purpose of declaring war.
"Belgaria Joins Cause of Teutons."
New York, April 3.—A London cable, unconfirmed, to the New York American, says:
"Belgaria has entered the war on the side of the Teutonic allies, and it is entirely within the possibility that all the Balkan nations may become involved."
