INJURED MAN LOST

Carl Levi, aged 30, who was hit by C. & O. train No. 7 a few days ago near Short street and injured about the head, was taken to Aberdeen Friday from which place he was to have gone to his home in West Union, can not be found and relatives of the injured man have telephoned to this city several times asking for information. As Levi was hit on the head it is thought that his injury has caused him to lose his mind temporarily and that he has wandered some where out of the general path of traffic while on his way back to his home.

FIRST WIN

"Our Boys" Take the Last Game From The Charleston Senators—New Life and Pep in Team—Batting Order Shifted.

The Maysville Ohio State League team scored eight times against the Charleston Senators and annexed the game which is the first one of the season that Maysville has won. Manager Josh Devore had shifted his line up till it looked like a new team and the change certainly did some good as the team slaped the offerings of Henderson, the Senator's pitcher, for twelve saties, while the Charleston bunch could only annex four off the slants of Brockley of the locals. The team leaves today for Frankfort for a series of four games and they should get at least two of them. They return here the 28th and will be prepared to take the series from Ironton. Frankfort follows Ironton with four games and if the locals do not stand near the head of the column by August the first it will be a big surprise to many fans of this city.

The game play by play:

FIRST INNING
CHARLESTON—Nutter lifted to McGraynor. Beers paraded. Powell registered a single through second. Beers run down in attempting to score. The entire infield making a box about him. Corbin roled. Bateman to Henderson. No runs. One hit. No errors.

MAYSVILLE—Henderson lifted to Nutter. Kelly singled over second. Bateman followed suit. Brockley reached first when Henderson threw wild to third in an effort to catch Kelly, who scored. H. Devore hit through short, Bateman scoring. Emmer put the game on ice when he ranned the old pill to the left field fence for a homer. Brockley and H. Devore rallying. Manager Devore polid a two bagger over second. DeBerry grounded—Henderson to Hudson. McGraynor walked and stole second. Henderson lifted to Nutter. Five runs. Five hits. One error.

FIFTH INNING
CHARLESTON—Hudson grounded—Bateman to Henderson. Henderson hit by Brockley. Nutter singled over first. Beers hit a liner over second—Henderson scoring. Powell sacrificed. Nutter scoring. Beers reached third on a passed ball. Corbin paraded. Daubert hit a powerful drive to left field which Manager Devore captured after a splendid run. This was the feature of the game from the fielding standpoint. Two runs. Two hits. No errors.

MAYSVILLE—Henderson singled through third. At this point of the game Umpire Steve Kane called a decision that was rotten as was ever made. Kelly tried to bunt the ball and missed it a half yard and Henderson reached second on the play but was sent back to first when Kane called it a foul tip. This made the fans very angry and several threatened to get the arbitrator. Kelly flew to Powell. Henderson pitched wild, Henderson going to the keystone. Bateman popped to Curtis. Brockley grounded—Troutman to Hudson. No runs. One hit. No errors.

SCHOOL PATRONS

And Trustees are Reminded of Responsibilities and Urged to Get Ready for School Opening

Let us not forget that our schools are among our most important interests and therefore should receive our most careful attention. The office of school trustee carries with it a great responsibility and should be held by men who are above reproach in every particular. No man who has an ax to grind should be permitted to sharpen it at the expense of the wits of our boys and girls.

In view of these things, every patron of Mason county and every citizen interested in our progress and welfare is urged to interest himself in the election of good men on August the seventh. The election of good men for this office may mean more to you than the election of the governor.

The names following are the trustees whose terms expire on August 7, 1915. Their successors are to be chosen at this election: W. H. Moore, South Ripley; W. R. Lloyd, Moransburg; Ed Rubenacher, Washington; Frank McHugh, Plugtown, James E. Poe, Salem; E. B. Kennard, Pleasant Ridge; Lucien Norris, Hebron; W. E. Downing, Eastland; C. P. Owens, Lewisburg; John Dickson, Wedonia; W. T. Buckner, Sardis; R. G. Bullock, Orangeburg; James Sears, Bali Creek; W. J. Jolly, Mt. Gilead; Q. A. Shipley, Stone Lick; W. H. Valentine, Plumville; W. W. Knight, Dickson; E. D. Frame, Rectorville; C. C. Arthur, Mayalick; vacant, Shannon.

Before the opening of school on September 13, every school plant in the county should be inspected by the trustee and made ready for the use of the school. The clatsrn should be examined and perhaps cleaned, the outhouses should be cleaned and repaired, weeds should be cut, floor swept or scrubbed, blackboards washed, seats repaired and fastened down, window panes put in, chalk provided and other details attended to. You can't expect school to start off right with these things left to take care of themselves. Let us have the best year's work of our lives with trustees, patrons and teachers all doing their duty.

JESSIE O. YANCEY,
Superintendent.
