SPLENDID EXHIBITION OF NATIONAL PASTIME

Maysville Team Takes Series From Ironton and Opening Contest With Frankfort.

At last the local fans can say Maysville has a good ball team. Those who watched the local aggregation take the series from the Ironton Natters and the opening game from Frankfort have branded the present team the best that ever represented Maysville in any league and say that the others will have to fight mighty hard to take the rag from us.

In the first game Saturday the Maysville team should have had the contest, but for the rotten umpiring of Colgate, who has no peer when it comes to seeing them wrong. The hitting of Emper and Timmins and the fielding of H. Devore featured. The second game was very good until the last few innings, when Colgate again pulled a bone by letting the game go on to a quarter of seven, when it was so dark that many fans had to light matches to find their way out of the grandstand. The pitching of Brown of the locals, was the whole show.

Sunday's game was the game of the season, so far. The fast Frankfort Lawmakers were helpless before the slants of Lefty McGraynor, who allowed them only three hits. Kelly, the local shortfielder, pulled some of the most sensational fielding ever seen in this neck of the woods, with H. Devore a close second.

The score of the three games:
Saturday's Games.
(First Game.)
Ironton 2 1 0 1 0 4 0 0 1-9
Maysville 2 0 1 0 2 0 2 1-8

WOMAN FALLS WHILE TRYING TO ALIGHT FROM MOVING STREET CAR.

Sunday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock, Mrs. Emma Lee, of Richmond, Va., who is visiting relatives in this city, endeavored to alight from a street car and in doing so sustained slight injuries. Mrs. Lee had rung the bell for the car to stop at Casto street, but as this is not a regular stop, the car proceeded on to the postoffice stop, which is about 100 feet farther on. As the car passed her corner she jumped off and fell, striking her head against the brick pavement and bruising her body considerably.

Dr. Will Robb, of the county, was passing by at the time of the accident and rendered the necessary medical assistance. After an examination he pronounced her injuries very slight.

DANIEL T. SHARP.

Daniel T. Sharp, aged 65, died at his home on East Third street Sunday morning after a short illness. Mr. Sharp at the time of his death, was engaged in the grocery business. He is survived by his wife and nine children, John, Julius and Cleveland, of this city; Carey and William, of Cincinnati; Charles, of Covington; Mrs. Thomas Guy, of Covington; Mrs. Alex Hall, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Clarence Purdon, of this city. Mr. Sharp was a devout member of the Christian church. The funeral services will be held from the late residence Tuesday afternoon. Interment in the Maysville cemetery.

SERIES OF MISFORTUNES TEMPORARILY TIES UP L. & N.

Monday morning there was a wreck on the L. & N. between Paris and Cincinnati which delayed traffic and the trains were sent to Maysville to cross over to the C. & O., thence into Cincinnati, but the hard luck still pursued and a boxcar was derailed in the C. & O. yards in Maysville which delayed all traffic and the L. & N. was tied up for a few hours in spite of all efforts of the officials to give the patrons of the road uninterrupted service in spite of the delay on their own line.

Mrs. Mary Brannon and Miss Margaret Poshay, of Paris, are the guests of Miss May Liston.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS

Ruggles Campgrounds, July 30.—It becomes our privilege today to record the experiences of two parties bound for the springs. The first party composed of the following campers spent a most delightful day at Escalopia and Glen Springs yesterday: Misses Lena Wells Lykens, Clothia Ashurst, Nova Calvert, Eula Calvert, Bessie Wallingford, Anna Cornish, and Messrs. Hubert Himes, Ralph Keith, Goldsby Farrow and Bruce Markwell. It was a delightful day indeed.

The second party put it off just one day too late. They started at 8:47 this a. m. They would have started earlier if the mules and the hay wagon had gotten to the camp earlier. The mules were late, hence the lateness of the start. Would that the mules and hay wagon had been still later, a different tale might have been told. But the crowd was already having dyed themselves out in hickory hats to prevent "sunburn" again, with baskets full of good dinner, they sallied forth beneath threatening skies. Admiral Webster "Tecumseh" White was in command. He carried the spondules to slip in the back way and get it all right. When about half way up the side of the mountain one of the hardest rains that ever visited this section began. They had nothing but one little tarpaulin to shelter the party of twenty-eight. Realizing that they were up against it, they all ran down the mountain and got into a country barn. There they took an inventory of themselves, held a council of war, and decided that they would make battle on the dinner baskets, and then return to the camp and do their best to slip in the back way that the rest of the campers could not enjoy the show. Fortunately for them the afternoon service was in progress and only a few campers saw the mud-bedraggled bunch slip in. In their predicament one girl lost her bracelet, another her white shoes, and all their other trappings. "Admiral" White now thinks he is not much of a sailor on a rainy day. As we gave the names of the happy party of yesterday we will now proceed to give the names of all who learned to wade and swim down the mountain. They are: "Admiral" and General Manager, W. T. White, Mrs. W. T. White, Mrs. J. H. Richardson, Misses Helen Nash, Carrie, Lillian and Violet Muse, Mary and Grace Morris, Beatrice Moore, Myrtle Weeks, Corinna Slye, Juanita Richardson, Alma and May Williams, Flossie Jones, Bettie Thomas, Nannie May Kelly, Hattie Wood, Mary Willis and Armenia Marshall, Kate Fry, and Messrs. Chas. Williams, George Kelly, Manford Tolle, Robert Warden, Franklyn Slye and Miss Lotta Mae Ohlinger. After shedding the wet and muddy garments they all vow they had a good time and would "do it again."

The rain that fell in this section this morning was about the hardest that ever fell during a camping trip. The water ran in a good-sized creek through the tabernacle, and the grounds were several inches deep in the water. But it doesn't take the grounds long to dry off. By night everything was in fair shape again. The rain was a great boon to farmers hereabouts, as crops were suffering considerably.

Mr. and Mrs. David Davies and little daughter of Fort Thomas, arrived today and will stay over Sunday. Mr. Davies is a noted singer, having several choirs under his training. We are hoping to hear him while here.

Miss Nellie Biersly and Bessie Howard, of Carrs, arrived today by the Auto Hamrick and are registered at the Hotel Hamrick for the remainder of the meetings.

There has been a big thinning out of the preachers today, returning to their appointments for Sunday. There is some uncertainty about Bishop Wagne getting here for Sunday. If he doesn't some we are to be favored with sermons by three of our best preachers, Revs. G. W. Bunton, D. D., E. R. Overley, and W. G. Bradford. This will insure a glorious wind-up of the camping.

Misses Susie Shipley and Mary Valentine, of Orangeburg, arrived today and will be guests of Miss Rena Mae Coryell during the remainder of the meetings.

On account of the critical illness of her grandson, Mr. John Hook, Mrs. C. C. Degman will leave for her home in the morning. It is with much regret that we lose her services just at this time. Mrs. Degman has put her whole soul into these meetings, especially the women's meetings, and much of the success of this part of the camping is due to her faithful devotion to the work.

Rev. J. M. Lital, of the Third Street M. E. Church, Maysville, preached a fine sermon this morning. It bore a lesson much needed by all, especially parents of children.

The closing discussion of the general rules of the church took place this afternoon. Some very helpful and practical views on many widely discussed questions of morality and christian culture.

Rev. E. R. Overley gave us another earnest evangelistic sermon this evening to a large audience. We are all delighted that Bro. Overley is to remain with us until the close of the meetings. No minister is more popular at Ruggles Campmeeting than E. R. Overley. His presence is an inspiration to all.

MARKET STREET SCENE OF BLOODY BATTLE.

Saturday morning about a quarter of twelve, Market street, between Second and Third, was the scene of a bloody battle, Charley Bentz, white of the county, and Charley Cooper, colored, of this city, being the participants. Bentz started to "josh" Cooper, he carried the joke too far and Cooper became enraged, hitting him full in the face with his fist. The blow knocked Bentz to the sidewalk and in falling he cut his head very severely and was rendered unconscious.

Cooper was placed under arrest by Constable Ben Fleming and taken before Squire Fred W. Dresel, who held him over to the time of court this morning upon his own recognizance. Bentz was removed to a hotel, where he lay as dead for some time. The affair will be given an airing in court this morning.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church will meet this evening at 7 o'clock in the Sunday school room. Every member is urged to be present.

Miss Kate Fisher and Miss Flora Willock of this city, who have been in Cincinnati for the past few weeks, returned home Saturday.

FUNERAL OF DAVID A. GLASCOCK LARGELY ATTENDED.

The funeral of David A. Glascock, who was drowned on Thursday evening, was held Sunday morning from the late residence on the Hill City pike at 10 o'clock, and many sorrowful friends were present to pay their last respects to the young man whose untimely death cast a gloom over the entire community.

The services were conducted by Rev. W. P. Harney, of Harrodsburg, Ky., and Rev. H. B. Wilhoite, of the First Baptist church of this city. The High School quartette rendered several beautiful and appropriate selections, each note of which evidenced the emotion they felt over the sad occurrence.

His classmates acted as pallbearers and the large number that attended was a fitting tribute to the high esteem in which the unfortunate young man was held and not one but was as deeply touched as if he had been his own son.

NEW PLAYERS IN.

Manager Josh Devore of the local ball team, has signed Frank Winchell and Winslow Gench, two well known pitchers. These players come to Maysville with reputations of being ball tossers of the first water. They will probably be used in some of the games of the Frankfort series. With this addition to the pitching staff, which has been only fair, the pennant hopes of the Maysville fans will soar.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE.

Saturday afternoon Allie Berry filed papers in the Circuit Clerk's office, asking that he be granted a divorce from his wife, Cora Berry. The petition recites that they were married in February, 1913, and lived as man and wife until June, 1914, when Mrs. Berry left his home without reason. He asks an absolute divorce and that Mrs. Berry's maiden name be restored to her.

THE FARMERS' CHAUTAUQU.

The Tri-County Farmers' Chautauqu opened Sunday at the Germantown Fairground with a crowd of about 2,000 people.

The day was perfect. The Sunday school hour was devoted to the regular Sunday school lesson. Mr. Hal Curran was the leader throughout the day and night and right here we want to say Mr. Curran is the man for the place.

The Sunday school lesson was read by Mr. Curran, followed by prayer by Superintendent C. H. Humlong, of the Germantown Christian Sunday school. Superintendent C. H. Frank, of the Maysville Christian Sunday school, gave an excellent exposition of the lesson. T. J. Currey, city president, brought out the fact of personal work. Rev. Davis, pastor of the Baptist church at Two Lick, closed the hour's service with the thought character, action and wisdom made—Solomon great because God given.

Intermissions of the day were filled by the Germantown band playing appropriate selections for the occasion. Dr. M. B. Adams, president of the Germantown College, a Baptist institution, preached a great sermon from the text found in I Cor. 1-2. It was an effort worthy of the man and worthy of the place. His thought was man's improvement in the sciences, art, knowledge is great only in the service of Jesus Christ and rendered through Him to His followers.

"Oh, Divine Redeemer" was beautifully sung by Mrs. Harin Lucas, of Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Lucas captivated her audience.

After dinner was a long wait for Judge Barker and Prof. Cherry, who never did come. The thought character, Rev. Mr. Bish, a returned missionary, gave good practical talks upon the practical side of Christianity and government. Judge Barker spoke in a happy vein upon the many sides of farm life and education necessary thereto.

After Judge Barker's address, the benediction was pronounced and the crowd left, feeling the day had been well spent religiously. If Monday and Tuesday holds up any way near what it should, the never did come. The thought character will be voted more than a success.

Mr. Farmer, if you can not or did not go today, be sure to go tomorrow.

Mrs. Peter Fritsch and twin daughters, Catherine and Cecelia, returned home Saturday from a two-weeks' visit with relatives and friend in Cynthiana.

Dr. Kahn, the optometrist, will be in his office in the O'Keefe Building Monday and Tuesday.

AUTO ACCIDENT

Mr. T. B. Roberson, of Mayslick, Breaks Ankle When Machine Plunges Over Embankment.

Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, Mr. T. B. Roberson, of the county, while riding in his machine on the Mt. Carmel pike, east of this city, ran over an embankment and broke his ankle. Mr. Roberson and a party had been at Ruggles Campground for the day and were on their way home. They were driving at a slow rate of speed some distance behind the machine of Mr. R. B. West, when some of the persons in the Roberson car made a movement that the occupants of the West machine thought was a signal to stop and they did so, stopping in a very narrow part of the road near the intersection of the Mt. Carmel and the Orangeburg pikes. Mr. Roberson came up to them and when about even with them, his machine slid over the steep bank on the side of the road, turning over and injuring Mr. Roberson. The other occupants of the car escaped without a bruise. Mr. Roberson was brought to this city where Dr. J. R. Cooper attended him. An examination showed he suffered from a broken ankle. He was later removed to his residence.

YOUNGSTER BREAKS ARM.

Sunday evening about 6:30 o'clock, Bell Hall Strode, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Strode, of East Second street, fell off one of the players' benches at League Park and broke his left arm. He was removed to his home where the injured member was set.

Profit-Sharing With Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914 we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between August 1, 1914 and August 1, 1915 we would share profits with the retail purchasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-15 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date.

We are however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars.
