GOLDEN JUBILEE

Members of Scott's Chapel M. E. Church to Celebrate—Historical Data—An Appreciation.

To the Citizens of Maysville and Vicinity.

Committee are preparing an elaborate program for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of Scott's chapel.

The exercises will begin on Sunday, November 23, and continue until Monday, December 6.

This Golden Jubilee promises to be one of the most interesting events in the history of the colored people of Maysville. This church was recognized as early as 1865 as a strong ally of the organized religious forces of this city and vicinity, and from the very beginning the ministers and members of the white churches were among its most ardent friends and counselors. Reports of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the church were made to the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. church, under the head of "Our Colored Work."

For several years the society worshipped in the building now owned by Mr. Daniel Manso, on the Lexington pike. Later they worshipped in a frame building on the hill a few hundred yards to the east, where they erected a substantial brick building, in which the Third Annual Session of the Lexington Conference was held in 1872, with Bishop Levi Scott as its president, in honor of whom the church was named.

From a copy of the Annual Conference Minutes, published in this city by the late Hon. T. A. Davis, Scott chapel reported, in 1872, a membership of 179; 77 officers, teachers and pupils in the Sunday school, with property valued at $4,000.

Our present church home was erected in 1884 on East Fourth street. Twenty-eight pastors have served the congregation during the last half century. Statistical reports to the annual conferences show an aggregate enrollment of over 7,000. Hundreds of souls have been converted around her altars and in the homes of the membership. Liberal contributions have been made to the cause of the Gospel. Thousands of dollars have been contributed by the self-sacrificing membership for the maintenance and development of the church. The fathers and mothers wisely. There have been many battles against overwhelming odds, of the future historian will not overlook the heroic service which some of these humble people have rendered in the uplifting of the race.

Among the membership of the church will be found some of the best representatives of the race; well known, substantial, honest, frugal, intelligent and highly respected by all citizens, white and colored. Thoroughly trusted messengers of our links; janitors serving faithfully in great business concerns of our city and tried and trusted employees of best families and firms make a noble showing along lines of industry and thrift.

The friends have not only substantial assistance, but an encouragement and an attraction toward higher thought and action have been inspired. And we earnestly trust that this splendid co-operation continued in favor of that tenacious that exalteth a nation will be our constant aim to see that the confidence reposed in us will not be abused. We extend a cordial invitation to our friends to sit with us during our semi-centennial exercises. Faithfully yours,
R. W. S. HAMMOND, Pastor.

GREAT FIRE IN BETHLEHEM STEEL PLANT

Photograph taken during the progress of the conflagration in the Bethlehem Steel company plant at South Bethlehem, Pa. The machine shop was destroyed, together with much valuable machinery and hundreds of large and small guns in process of manufacture for the United States and the allies, the loss running up probably to $3,000,000.

News of the Churches

Christian Church.
Bible school at 9:30 a. m. "Boost the attendance" is the motto. Every department asks for a good attendance. These persons, G. H. Frank, Gertrude Raugh and Mrs. A. F. Stahl will preside over their sections of the church should help them to reach the full attendance mark. When an scholar misses a Sunday that lesson is lost. For each week has its own assigned lesson and handwork. Regular attendance is more satisfactory for both teacher and scholar. Let all the Juniors bring their handbooks for inspection. This school is large and does a great work, but with the help of all it will render a larger service.
The Endeavor society meets at 8 p. m. Both the morning and evening services will be conducted by the pastor. Good music. Strangers welcome.
A. F. STAHL, Pastor.

MUSEN MILLS.
Deputy Sheriff Evans collected taxes here last Wednesday.
Homer Compton is still very ill with typhoid fever.
William M. Mauk was a business visitor in Maysville last Friday.
The Muse has been building a new house for Johnny Muse, near here.
Mrs. John Dunaway remains very low from premature parturition.
Game Warden F. B. Henderson was at Flemingsburg last Thursday on official business.
Tobacco raisers in this part are all busy stripping tobacco, preparing for the early market.
Miss Etta Housh, of Manchester, O., who has been visiting J. C. Wilson and family here has returned home.
Squire James H. Muse, of this place, will attend a called session of Pleas Court at Flemingsburg next Saturday.
Hon. A. P. Darwell, of Flemingsburg, road commissioner, was here last Saturday taking up part of the new turnpike.
Tom D. Muse, who recently sold one of his farms here, is putting his home place on the market, and if it is sold, will be located with his family at Enterprise, Miss.
Our late movers are: Bruce Bishop and family into the Charles Muse property; James McRoberts and family to the house vacated by Bishop; Mr. Lawrence and family, of Plummers Landing, to where McRoberts formerly lived.
Squire Muse investigated the big fight that took place at Sugarree a few days ago between Harlan Vaughan and his mother against Herbert and James Goodwin, all of that neighborhood, and which we very recently made mention of and from the effects of such investigation he has issued some warrants for arrest for part of the participants. Some of the parties have "flew the coop" to unknown parts to avoid arrest. Squire Muse is trying to break up such rowdiness in the community.

Third Street M. E. Church.
Tomorrow is expected to be a great day in this church. The increased interest in the revival services and the fact that Evangelist Brown will preach both morning and evening, will draw large crowds to all services.
The following will be the order of the services for the day:
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., I. M. Lane superintendent.
At 10:45 a. m. Rev. Brown will preach on the subject, "Proving God's Promises."
At 2:30 p. m. Rev. Brown will address a mass meeting for men only in the auditorium of the church. Maysville men should avail themselves of this opportunity to hear the evangelist.

Epworth League will meet at 6:15 p. m. under the leadership of Mr. D. C. Knight.
Rev. Brown will preach at 7 p. m. on the subject, "Resisting the Holy Ghost."
The choir will render special music at all services. It will be a blessed day. Let every member of the church rally to these services. The friends and strangers in our midst are especially invited and will be made welcome.
J. M. LITERAL, Pastor.

Will Have To "Cough Up" Four Cents More Or They Will Go To Turkey.
(Cynthiana Democrat.)
In returning 20 cents to Mr. L. J. Boyers, ticket agent of the L. & N. at Cynthiana, a party writes that two of them had beaten their way from Cynthiana to Robinson Station, but since then "The Lord has saved them," and they can't get right until 50 cents is paid. Mr. Boyers states that the fare for the two amounts to 54 cents, and the L. & N. officials are anxiously awaiting to see if the penitent parties will pay the balance or are willing to go to hell for 4 cents.

GOT ALL BUT THE HIND LEG.
(Cynthiana Democrat.)
The Elizabethtown News declares Edwin Morrow ran such a good race that he ought not to eat crow, and asks what part of the turkey he will have. Why, bless your soul, Ed, took a tremendous bite out of the rooster's hind leg. That ought to satisfy him for awhile.
Mr. R. E. L. Wilson, of Greenup, was in this city Friday on business.

The police of this city, when they attempt to catch Fred Hayes, wanted for issuing a cold check, hereafter will bring a net and a few feet of rope along. A few nights ago they attempted to take Hayes out of a dance in the Eastland schoolhouse, but after the youth had tripped several, thrown a few more and left half the clothes he wore to the dance in their hands, they gave it up as bad business. It seems as if Hayes has an ear bent to a finish when one of the coppers set their hands on him, for several times before he has squirmed out of their grasp to freedom.

THE GEM THEATER.

Manager Mills of the Gem, delighted his patrons Friday afternoon and night when he gave them one of the leading releases of the V. L. S. E. combine, "The Carpet from Bagdad." This film, which featured Kathryn Williams, of "The Adventures of Kathryn" fame, had some of the most wonderful scenes ever shown in a film in this city. Those who saw the play say that it was one of the best ever seen here.

THE WASHINGTON.

Elsie Janis, in "Nearly a Lady," was the attraction at the Washington Opera House Friday night. The film was extremely good and delighted all who attended. Several of the scenes of the play were unusual and created much favorable comment.

GIRL OF MYSTERY

Young Lady's Tale Baffles Local Officials—Claims She Does Not Know Her Origin

The police of this city, the county officials and Mrs. Cora Peddicord of the City Mission are baffled by a story told by a girl named Audrey Fearn, who is now staying at the City Mission. The girl says she does not know her parents and that she was raised by a family by the name of Fearn, who died the past spring, and since that time she has been in care of the City Mission of Lexington and the inmate of several hospitals about that city. While there the girl says she met a doctor by the name of Stanley who brought her to this city in his auto a few days ago. This, however, is not believed by the police or the county officials and the young lady is being held until something of her past can be ascertained.

GREATLY ENJOYED

The Christian Church social or "get-together" meeting was very well attended Friday night. Everyone present had some part in the program for the evening's amusement. The readings by the Misses Tully, Willett and Stahl were very much enjoyed. The entertainment or amusement feature of the evening was of such a nature and so much enjoyed by all that the serving of the refreshments was delayed until nearly 9 o'clock. The only regret the committee had was that those prevented from attending because of the weather did not share in the evening's enjoyment.

The church room was used for the first part of the program. The seats had been moved back to make room for the features given which broke every tendency to formality or lack of sociability. Then at the announced time all went into the annex for refreshments. Both of the rooms were very attractively decorated.

Mr. D. H. Harrison of this city spent Saturday in Cincinnati.
