

Young Men's Styles

You will find the vigorous kind in our store, not the feeble attempts at young men's style that get across under cheap prices and a suave salesman's salve.

Kuppenheimer Clothes

stand out pre-eminently as young men's clothes of character. Their designers know that you young chaps want the waistline on your coat to be high and set off your shoulders. They know you want that free-and-easy athletic appearance in your clothes, and you get it in a Kuppenheimer suit. We have them in all new stripe patterns. Incidentally, we wish to inform you that we have a fine assortment at $20.00 and $25.00

STATE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETING.

(Lexington Leader.)

On May 5, 6 and 7 the annual State Christian Endeavor convention will be held at the Central Christian church at Lexington, under the auspices of the state executive committee and the executive board of the Lexington Christian Endeavor Union. Plans are well completed on the part of the state committee in arranging an excellent program, and also on the part of the Lexington Union in preparing to extend real hospitality to the 250 to 300 delegates who will come to Lexington from all parts of the state.

The program includes speakers of local, state and national reputation. There will be Miss Mildred Haggard, national junior superintendent; E. P. Gates, field secretary of Illinois; Dr. W. A. Ganfield, president of Center College; Donald G. Barnhouse of California; Homer W. Carpenter of Shelbyville, president of the state C. E. Union, and C. F. Evans, field secretary for Kentucky, and others.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. J. Ed Parker of East Second street.

A large force of men under Superintendent Edward Smith is busy in the East End laying the new gas mains and the work will be completed soon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Breeze and daughter, Margaret, of Flemingsburg, will return home today after a short visit to relatives here.

Mrs. J. W. Erringer of Chicago, will arrive Wednesday afternoon on a visit to her cousin, Mrs. J. T. Kackley, en route home from Daytona, Fla.

Recital a Success.
The Harrison recital was quite a success Monday night at Scott M. E. church. Mr. Harrison's interpretation of "The Raven" was one that can not be excelled. The audience was quite appreciative of Mr. Harrison's ability and all seemed well pleased. The Brotherhood thanks all that attended the recital. Mr. Harrison may appear again later in the season.

The Art Department of the Civic Improvement Club will meet this afternoon at the home of Miss Sadie Bell on West Fourth street. Visitors are welcome.

HE LIVED IN OUR COUNTY.

He was a merchant--successful, too. Made a good deal of money. Kept it hidden in the cellar. He died. Strangers entered the house--some of them went down cellar. SOME of the money has been recovered. A lot of it has disappeared. A lot of our readers may remember this case. Had he kept his money here not a single dollar would have been lost. It would all be here.
