THE YUELL MEETINGS SUNDAY
Big Crowd Attended the Services.

There were four great services in the Yuell meetings in the Growers Warehouse yesterday. In the Bible school an illustrated talk was given by the evangelist. In the church service he spoke again. Up to the close of the morning service there were eleven responses to the invitation. In the afternoon a goodly number of ladies were present at the woman's meeting. In this service the women acted as ushers. The best of Maysville's good woman were present and all spoke in highest terms of the evangelist's address. Upon this occasion as upon former occasions Mr. Yuell proved himself to be a good story teller.

Last night the audience was one of the best of the series. People were seated all over the house. Such a sea of faces that could be seen from the platform was enough to inspire any speaker. If it could be said that an effort was better than another then last night was the best. The way in which Mr. Yuell lost himself in his prayer and the vividness with which he described Babylon of old held his large audience to the close of the sermon. At this time Earle Yearley the musical director sang "Tell Mother I'll Be There" which was most beautifully illustrated with stereoscopic pictures. The audience joined in the repeating of the last chorus of the song. All sang as if conscious that yesterday was Mothers' Day and that they were thus making a pledge to meet mother in heaven.

Arrangements had been made to have an extra street car accommodations at nine-ten. It is Mr. Yuell's plan to have this arrangement made for every evening.

The Maysville band was present and rendered several selections. They played on the street before coming to the tabernacle.

The services tonight will begin promptly at 7:30. The topic is "The Unpardonable Sin." Mr. Yuell will repeat the illustrated song "The Holy City." On Tuesday night Mr. Yuell will speak on the theme "Falling Off of the Roof." This will be a family night. It will also be school night. The children from the different schools are asked to come and sit in a body. The band will be present. A grand march will be given.

HARD WORK TO GET MARRIED

Jesse L. Chain, aged 21, and Vivian Shelton, aged 19, both of Brown county, tied themselves to this city Saturday afternoon to be married. After arriving at the County Clerk's office they found that the girl had forgotten to obtain a written consent from the young lady's parents and they made a flying trip back home after it, and returned about 5 o'clock, just as Clerk Owens was preparing to leave. They secured the license and were married in the County Clerk's office by County Judge W. H. Rice.

DICKSON-PRESLEY

Samuel D. Presley, aged 50, and Blanch Dickson, aged 35, were granted a marriage license at the County Clerk's office Saturday and were married in this city Sunday.

"A PARISIAN ROMANCE"

In order to produce the Richard Mansfield version of "A Parisian Romance," it was necessary for the Fox Film Corporation to make arrangements with the owner of the play and the widow of Mr. Mansfield. It is the first time that the name of the world's greatest actor has ever been authorized for use in connection with a photoplay.

The original manuscript of the famous stage success was unearthed and this and Mr. Mansfield's personal notations in connection with the play were followed as much as possible. While there has necessarily been some deviation from the stage version of the production, the sumptuousness that marked the presentation on the legitimate stage has been faithfully adhered to in the photoplay.

This picture will be presented at the Gem today.

MOTHER'S DAY CELEBRATED IN MAYSVILLE CHURCHES

Mother's Day was fittingly observed in nearly all the Maysville churches Sunday. Special programs were arranged in some, while in others the regular order of services was carried out. At the Third Street M. E. Church a very fine program was enjoyed by a large audience. At the close the installation of the officers of the Epworth League elected at Friday night's meeting were installed.

STATE ASSESSMENT REMAINS THE SAME

County Clerk J. J. Owens, County Assessor Woodward, Banker J. B. Durrett and Hon. Stanley F. Reed, appeared before the State Board of Equalization at Frankfort Friday and prevailed upon the board to make the assessment 2 per cent. on land and personality instead of 5 per cent. as was proposed. The assessment on town lots remains at 2 per cent., notwithstanding the fact that the committee told the board that it worked a hardship on the people of Maysville who recently suffered from a flood and will soon have to pay a big brick street assessment.

INVITATION TO K. F. W. C. RECEPTION

Immediately after the addresses of the evening, the audience will adjourn to the residence of Judge A. M. J. Cochran, just across the street, where a reception will be held by the Woman's Club, giving the officers of the Federation and Maysville opportunity to become better acquainted.

HAS YOUR SON A BANK ACCOUNT?

Has your son a Bank Account of his own here? Start him with a small sum here. Then put the Bank Book in his hands. Encourage him to add to it. Let him not only learn the habit of banking money, but he will work whenever he can and make some money. He will learn the habit of being industrious. An industrious son doesn't grow up into the kind of man who breaks his parents' heart. It's up to you to start your boy. Not tomorrow—nor the next day—nor the day after—but now—just now. Will you do so?

When industry goes out of the door, poverty comes in at the window.
