$25,000.00 FIRE

DESTROYS DAY AND NIGHT GARAGE AND FARMERS' PRODUCE COMPANY MONDAY NIGHT. Four Hundred Telephones Out of Commission on Account of Melting of Cable—Fire Department Does Heroic Work.

One of the worst conflagrations that has visited this city for a number of years was that which burned the buildings and contents of the Day and Night Garage and the Farmers' Produce Company on East Second street Monday night at 6 o'clock entailing a loss of about $25,000.

Just how the fire started is not known. Some think that it started from a short circuit from an electric wire while others say that it started in the vulcanizing room from other cause. There was no one at the garage when the fire started except George Routh, a colored employe, who was standing in front of the building sprinkling. The blaze was first discovered by a woman in the rear of one of the houses on Lindsay street who informed Routh of the blaze. When he turned around a greater part of the building was a mass of flames, which spread rapidly over the entire building.

The Fire Department arrived on the scene a few minutes after the alarm sounded and although they worked heroically they could do nothing but to keep the fire from spreading to surrounding buildings, which were smoking and ready to burst into flames. The Kinney Mac was the first to arrive on the scene and the Uncle Hob was brought a few minutes later. The hose were stretched and water was playing on the blaze in a very few minutes. The lives of the firemen were in danger by a number of gasoline explosions during the fire.

The building and the produce house on the East side belonged to Mr. Sam King. Mr. King estimates that the loss of the building together with the large amount of eggs, butter and other produce will amount to about $5,000 with no insurance.

Messrs. J. S. Ginn and Frank M. Allen were the owners of the garage and their loss will amount to several thousand dollars. Besides losing a large amount of machinery and automobile accessories there was over $200 in money burned. The books of the company were recovered late Monday night and although badly scorched and water soaked most of the writing in them was still discernable.

There were fifteen automobiles in the building and all of them are more or less ruined, most of them being a total loss. Only two of the machines were insured—the Middleman truck being covered with $1,000 and the machine the least hurt of any in the fire and L. C. Parker's touring car had $900 insurance. Following is the list of cars which were in the building: Middleman Transfer Company—Reo truck.

Samuel Tully—International truck. Central Meat Market—Cadillac delivery truck.

R. H. Greenlee—Maxwell roadster and Ford roadster.

J. H. Ginn—Small roadster.

T. R. Valentine—Maxwell touring car.

Frank Shea—Hup touring car.

J. Wesley Lee—Dodge touring car.

Mike Brown—Maxwell touring car.

L. M. Cavendish—Two Studebaker cars.

L. C. Parker—Buick touring car.

Dr. W. C. Crowell—Studebaker touring car.

George A. Hill—Maxwell roadster.

Mr. L. M. Cavendish was very fortunate in the fact that three of his Studebaker cars were out of the garage being demonstrated to prospective purchasers.

The large truck belonging to the Mint Cola Company was just entering the door of the building when the fire broke out and Chauffeur Mack Hendrickson backed the car out of harm's way.

One of the heavy losers in the fire is the Maysville Telephone Company. The new cable which was recently put up through the East End was melted in front of the building and over four hundred telephones were thrown out of commission. A large force of men worked on the cable all of Monday night and are still busy, but it is thought that the service will be restored by tomorrow morning. The loss to the telephone company will amount to several thousand dollars and will delay the work on the new exchange for a short time.

Workmen were busy on the wreckage this morning removing the mass of twisted engines and machinery. Several of the automobile engines were not seriously damaged and new bodies will be built for them.

DEMURRER FILED

County Attorney W. H. Rees Monday afternoon filed a general demurrer to the mandamus suit against County Judge W. H. Rice and the members of the Fiscal Court asking the court to order the issuing of the good roads bonds voted upon at the 1914 election. Attorney John M. Calhoun, representing the petitioners, and County Attorney Rees, representing the officials, left in an automobile Monday afternoon for Flemingsburg to argue the case before County Judge C. D. Newell, who is now holding court there. As soon as a decision is given the case will immediately be taken to the Court of Appeals.

POLICE COURT

Judge John L. Whitaker disposed of the following cases in Police Court Monday afternoon:

William Jackson, breach of the peace, $10.50.

William Brown, breach of the peace, $6.50.

Grant Chambers, cutting and wounding another with intent to kill, was placed under a bond of $300 to appear in court today, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Sunday night Mr. O. L. Bartlett, of the Central Garage, D. F. Campbell and Mr. Carr, of Orangeburg, returned from Toledo, Ohio, where they went last week to get Mr. Campbell's new Overland touring car. Good roads and good weather made it a very enjoyable trip.

THE YUELL MEETING

The interest taken in the Yuell meeting was demonstrated last night by the largest audience being present at the Growers Warehouse that ever attended a religious service in Maysville on a Monday evening. The spirited way in which all sang revealed the interest all were taking in the success of these meetings. Earle Yearsley sang "The Judgment Day" as his first solo and "The Holy City" illustrated as his second. Both were very impressive. Many lives has it been evident that the gospel truths can be sung as well as preached to the profit of the cause.

Just as nothing can fully supplant the preaching and as few can present the gospel so effectively the large crowd was ready and anxious to hear Dr. Yuell preach on the unparadise sin. For forty minutes he developed his theme, closing with the account of the day of Pentecost. It was a season of reasoning and not an appeal to the emotions.

The sermon tonight will be "The Brass Shield." This will be school night. The children from the various schools will be seated in a body. A parade has been planned and a grand march will be given in the building.

The band will be at the High School building at 7 tonight where those from the High School and central grades and the first district will meet and march to the Growers Warehouse, headed by the band.

These from the Fifth and Sixth Ward schools will meet at the Growers and there join the procession for the grand march. The schools have been organized. A leader from each school has been selected. Gordon Smoot will be the general leader and will start the yells and etc. The school songs will be sung. The first forty minutes will be spent in this way under proper leadership. The public is cordially invited to be present. The meeting will begin at 7:30. An illustrated song will be sung.

On Wednesday evening the sermon theme will be "The Devil and How He Preaches."

The satisfying thing about these meetings is that it intended to be community wide in its influence. The sectarian bias is not shown as all churches are represented.

Rev. J. M. Lital led in the opening prayer last evening. Many of the leaders in the various churches were present last night and thanked the evangelist for his message. The prayers of all of Maysville's christian people should be raised in behalf of this effort to present Christ to the people of this community.

FOREST AVENUE TO HAVE OIL FOR STREETS

The citizens of Forest avenue extending the entire length from end to end had a meeting last night at Mrs. Hunsicker's Grocery and have raised enough money to oil it with the exception of one section from Union to Wood streets and part of the money for section between Union and Lexington, so you see that it takes in the Tobacco Warehouse District and the city feel like they ought to have a liberal response from the warehouses to make the matter an entire success.

VETERAN MINSTREL MAN DIES

BORN IN THIS CITY Milwaukee, Wis., May 15—Charlie King, of New York, once one of the most popular minstrel men in America, a star with the old Harvey Minstrels and one of the owners of the McIntyre, Heath and King Show, died in a hospital here today, after being stricken on the street. He was born in Maysville, Ky., and went to New York to study to become a druggist, but amateur impersonations took him to the professional stage.

Messrs. George Schwartz, George Crowell, James Childs and Charles Hauke leave today for Somerset to attend the State Encampment of Kentucky I. O. O. F., which convenes tomorrow.

Though the Limestone Bridge on Second street may soon be closed to vehicle travel the foot path will be open to the pedestrians. No work had been done on this bridge up to this morning.
