D. HECHINGER & CO.

Girls' Gingham and Percale Dresses Under Price

"I always find the prettiest and most girlish styles in your store," said a mother the other day, and these are just such dresses. That they are offered at reductions merely means we are desirous of a clearance. Excellent ginghams and percales in plaids, checks and plain colors, neatly trimmed and well made. Sizes 6 to 16.

We could not possibly buy these dresses at wholesale for the price at which we offer them. But the insistent cry for "something new" compels us to close out the stock now so we can have an entirely new assortment for the coming season.

Mothers lose a splendid bargain opportunity who fail to see these attractive little frocks.
