TO THE PENITENTIARY

Go George Cummins and John Darnell For Grand Larceny—The Former Gets Five Years and the Latter Three.

In the Mason Circuit Court Saturday George Cummins and John Darnell were given five and three years in the penitentiary respectively for grand larceny. They will be taken to the state prison as soon as possible.

Cummins and Darnell in the early part of the summer broke into a box car on a siding at the depot and took a large box containing a number of gowns, which the Gibson Garment Co. of this city was shipping to a point in Ohio. They hid them in some weeds on the river bank and later went to the place and got them, taking the garments to Darnell's home on Short street. At the time of their taking the garments to the home they had in their possession a large amount of whiskey and beer that they had intended to distribute.

On the night of the removal of the gowns, Darnell brought several of them to his neighbor, Mrs. Kelly, who at that time lived on the floor below Mrs. Kelly returned them the next morning fearing that they had been stolen. On the witness stand she told the same story that she had told in Police Court some time ago.

The jury was out only a short time. Cummins received five years and Darnell three.

In the morning session of the court the case of Jesse Lyles, charged with anglecocking a train occupied the attention of the court. Lyles was given his freedom.

MOTION PICTURE

"The Romance of Miss Maysville" To Be Presented in This City By Local People and Presented on the Screen at the Washington Opera House.

"The Romance of Miss Maysville" will be the title of a picture to be filmed in this city and shown on the screen of the Washington Opera House in the near future. Plans have been made for the production of such a picture.

The Maysville Chamber of Commerce has decided that such a picture would be a great thing for the city as it would be probably shown in a great number of the neighboring towns and thus advertise Maysville, and Maysville people.

A representative of the Parfait Cinematograph Co. of Dayton, Ohio, was in the city Sunday preparing for the picture. The picture will be taken on the streets and in the homes of Maysville and all of the parts will be taken by Maysville people. It will be the "most Maysville" picture ever thrown on the local screens.

Announcements will be made later in regard to the character of the play and the cast of characters. As soon as the picture has been taken it will be developed and then brought her for a three nights stay at the Opera House.

JUDGE WHITAKER ROBBED

Again the hand of a thief falls on the Police Department. Police Judge John L. Whitaker is the victim this time. Mary Hawkins, colored, of Aberdeen, had been employed in the home of the Judge as a maid and was discharged on account of incompetence. Several days later Mrs. Whitaker found that several blankets had disappeared, one of them a very valuable one having been presented to the Judge by his mother. The Judge's granddaughter also missed a gold hand umbrella. On Friday evening while walking on the street the young lady saw the negro and noticed that she had her umbrella. She reported the matter to the police and the woman was arrested as she was preparing to go to her home in Aberdeen. She was released on bond by Squire Bauer and will probably be given a trial today.

WILL ASK FOR CONVENTION

Miss Mary Wilson of Limestone street has received the sanction of Chamber of Commerce to ask the Kentucky State Sunday School Association to hold their annual convention here next year. The convention this year will be held in Ashland. Maysville has not had a meeting of the Association here for the past thirty-four years and Miss Wilson feels that she can persuade the body to agree to come to Maysville for its next years meeting. It is hoped that the convention will see fit to come to this city. The convention would be held in October.

TEARING UP ANOTHER STREET

One more street is being torn up this morning. Court street is at last to lose its dusty appearance and will take the garb of the Fifth and Sixth Wards. Probably at some future date asphalt will be laid on this hitherto inoffensive street. It seems a pity that it should suffer the punishment of being torn up. Its an ungrateful world.

SANG AT SERVICE
