MAYSVILLE PICTURE

Will Be Shown For the First Time This Evening on the Screen at the Opera House—Large Crowds Are Expected.

The picture, "The Romance of Miss Maysville" will be shown for the first time this evening on the screen in the Washington Opera House and will be shown two other nights this week, Tuesday and Wednesday. The picture each night will be shown in connection with the regular program.

The taking of the picture has attracted a great deal of attention throughout the city from the fact that all of the parts are taken by Maysville people and all of the scenes are Maysville ones. The part of Miss Maysville is taken by Miss Nannie Teager, while Mr. John Dudley Keith plays the part of "Sweetheart." The picture has a little romance running through it and this will be found very interesting.

The main purpose of the picture is to advertise Maysville and show other towns near here where the picture will be shown what a live city we have. This will further a slogan of the Chamber of Commerce "Come to Maysville."

Tonight in addition to the "Romance of Miss Maysville" the Burton Holmes Travel Pictures and Gloria's Romance will be shown.

MANY WILL ATTEND

Much interest was evidenced in the announcement in Saturday's Ledger of the coming of Hon. Edwin P. Morrow of Somerset, Ky., to open the Republican Campaign in this county on next Thursday. Many have expressed their desire of coming to the speaking and it is expected that a large crowd will be out to hear Mr. Morrow.

REPAIRING HOUSE

Mayor J. Wesley Lee is repairing and remodeling his house on East Second street above Union street. The house will be completely repapered and repainted and other repairs will be made. The home when finished will be one of the most attractive along the street.

FOUND DEAD

Charles Ballard, colored, was found dead in a shack on the Fleming Pike Saturday night about 8:20. The cabin in which he was found was in the rear of the home of his step-mother and the negro had been living there. He was about 56 years of age. The cause of his death was heart failure.

W. I. Nauman & Bro. have moved their store to their new quarters in the Heiser Building next to the Pastime Theater and invite their friends and customers to call on them.

The Board of the Woman's Club will meet at the Public Library this afternoon at 2:30.

PYTHIAN HOME

At Lexington Visited Limestone Lodge of This City Sunday—Officials Are Commended.

About one hundred of the local Knights of Pythias made the trip to the Pythian Home in Lexington yesterday. All report a fine time and an excellent journey with very few mishaps. The Lexington Herald has this to say concerning the trip:

Efficiency in the management of the Pythian Home made possible by a surplus of $1,400 on the farm this year, as shown in the report of Superintendent Moore on September 1, was the cause of considerable comment yesterday by a delegation of Knights of Pythias from Limestone Lodge No. 36, of Maysville.

The cost per capita of maintaining children in the home was $126.92 for the year, but the average cost of maintenance per capita for fraternal homes throughout the United States last year was $197.30.

Children between the ages of 10 and 16 years did nearly all of the work on the farm last year, the younger children attending the garden, which included about seven acres. Mr. Moore, the superintendent, was the recipient of many compliments yesterday because of the careful management of the home, and the congenial relations between the children and those in charge.

COLLEGE CLASSMATES

Wedding of Mary C. Phister of Newbury and Dr. D. W. Atchley of New York.

Newbury Post News (Mass.) has the following to say of the wedding of Miss Mary C. Phister, formerly of this city, and Dr. D. W. Atchley of New York:

Wedding bells rang merrily at the historic St. Paul's church last evening when Miss Mary C. Phister, daughter of Mrs. Walter B. Phister of Chicago and Newbury, and Dr. Dana W. Atchley of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Atchley of Ashbury Park, N. J., were united in marriage by Rev. Arthur H. Wright, rector of the church. The bride was given away by her uncle, J. Q. A. Johnson of New York.

The maid of honor was Miss Harriett Tutbill of Evanston, Ill., the bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Thompson, a cousin of the bride, of Newbury; Miss Margaret Hackett of Chicago; Miss Margaret Little of Newbury, and Miss Helen Sheridan of Chicago.

The best man was Dr. Verne B. Mason of Johns Hopkins Hospital, of Baltimore, Md.

The ushers were: Donald B. Atchley, brother of the groom, of Oswego, N. Y.; Liepenard B. Phister, brother of the bride, of Chicago; Gardiner Thompson, cousin of the bride, Boston; and Albert Hale of this city.

The church had been handsomely decorated for the occasion, white phlox being at the altar and at the heads of the pews of the center aisle. Yellow flowers and greenery being used in other parts of the auditorium.

The ceremony took place at 6 o'clock and was witnessed by kindred and friends.

Victor A. Nicholson, the church organist, played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" as the bride party entered, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as they passed out. He also played selections as the guests were arriving.

The bride looked charming in a handsome white embroidered Canton China silk dress and a long white tulle veil caught up by orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bride secured her wedding dress at Hong Kong last winter while traveling in the Orient.

The maid of honor wore white tulle over yellow and carried a bouquet of yellow corymbis and white cosmos.

The bridesmaids wore yellow satin dresses and yellow tulle veils. They carried bouquets of yellow corymbis and white cosmos.

Following the wedding there was a reception at the home of the bride's mother on Ocean avenue, Newbury, which was attended by kindred and intimate friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Atchley are graduates of Chicago University and are members of the same class, 1911. Dr. Atchley continued his studies at Johns Hopkins medical school and after being graduated began the practice of medicine in New York city, where he is a member of the staff of the Presbyterian hospital. He is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa of the University of Chicago and of the Nu Sigma Nu and Johns Hopkins medical school. The bride is a brilliant and accomplished lady, admirably endowed by nature and education to fill the important station in life to which she has been called.

The happy couple were generously remembered in gifts of gold, silver, and articles of various character.

Dr. and Mrs. Atchley will be at home after October 15 at 81 Northern avenue, New York city.

Following is the programme provided by Organist Nicholson, all of which was played with skill and brilliancy of expression:

Prayer, "Hilenzl".....Wagner
 "The Bride's Song".....Streizki
 Introduction, "Faust".....Gounod
 Gavotte, "Mignon".....Thomas
 "The Wedding Morn".....M. von Holst
 March, "Tannhauser".....Wagner

COUNCIL MEETING TONIGHT

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council will be held tonight in the Council Chamber. The telephone franchise question will occupy the minds of the members of that body but it is thought the question of the pavements in the Sixth Ward opposite the Ball Park will come under their consideration.

MOVED STORE

W. I. Nauman & Bro., the popular grocers on West Second street have moved to their new quarters in the Heiser building. The moving of the store was accomplished Saturday night and these progressive young men are about straightened out this morning.

FUNERAL HELD THIS MORNING

The funeral of Mrs. Terrance Mackey was held from the St. Patrick's Church this morning at 9 o'clock with burial in the Washington Cemetery.

GETS THE LIMIT

In the Mason Circuit Court Saturday Will Hunter of Washington was given 50 days in jail and fined $100 for selling liquor in local option territory. Hunter was captured by Deputy Sheriff Mike Brown and other officers some time ago at his home in Washington and a large amount of booze was found hid away under a staircase. He was found guilty in Squire Bauer's Court and given a jail sentence. Upon the fact that he had been convicted in a lower court he entered a plea of not guilty and was cleared by the jury.
