MRS. KIESO SICK SEVEN MONTHS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Aurora, Ill.—"For seven long months I suffered from a female trouble, with severe pains in my back and sides until I became so weak I could hardly walk from chair to chair, and got so nervous I would jump at the slightest noise. I was entirely unfit to do my housework. I was giving up hope of ever being well, when my sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and today I am a healthy woman able to do my own housework. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find out for themselves how good it is."—Mrs. CARL A. KIESO, 536 North Ave., Aurora, Ill. The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory, many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills. Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

PRESIDENT WILSON

Believes Speech Before U. S. Senate In Which He Outlines a New Peace Plan—Proposes That All Nations Should Adopt Monroe Doctrine at End of War.

Washington, January 22—Whether the United States shall enter a world peace league, and, as many contend, thereby abandon its traditional policy of isolation and no entangling alliances, was laid squarely before Congress and the country today by President Wilson in a personal address to the Senate.

For the first time in more than 100 years a President of the United States appeared in the Senate chamber to discuss the nation's foreign relations after the manner of Washington, Adams and Madison. The effect was to leave Congress, all official quarters and the foreign diplomats amazed and bewildered. Immediately there arose a sharp division of opinion over the property as well as the substance of the President's proposal.

"Stunning," "staggering," "astounding," the "noblest utterance that has fallen from human lips since the Declaration of Independence," were among the expressions of Senators. The President himself, after his address, said:

"I have said what everybody has been longing for, but has thought impossible. Now it appears to be possible."

Chief Points of Address
The chief points of the President's address were:

"That a lasting peace in Europe cannot be made a peace of victory for either side.

"That peace must be followed by a definite concert of power to assure the world that no catastrophe of war shall overwhelm it again.

"That in such a concert of power

There has been No Increase In the price of Grape-Nuts Nor Any Decrease In the Size of Package Or Quality Of the Food.

the United States cannot withhold its participation to guarantee peace and justice throughout the world;

"And that before a peace is made the United States government should frankly formulate the conditions upon which it would feel justified in asking the American people for their formal and solemn adherence.

"It is clear to every man who thinks," the President told the Senate, "that there is in this promise no breach in either our tradition or our policy as a nation, but a fulfillment rather, of all that we have professed or striven for.

International Monroe Doctrine
"I am proposing, as it were, that the nations should with one accord adopt the doctrine of President Monroe as the doctrine of the world, that no nation should seek to extend its policy over any other nation or people, but that every people should be left free, to determine its own policy, its own way of development, unhindered, unthreatened, unafraid, the little along with the great and powerful.

"I am proposing that all nations henceforth avoid entangling alliances which would draw them into competition of power, catch them in a net of intrigue and selfish rivalry and disturb their own affairs with influence intruded from without. There is no entangling alliance in a concert of power. When all unite to act in the same sense and with the same power, all act in the common interest and are free to live their own lives under a common protection.

"I am proposing government by the consent of the governed; that freedom of the seas, which in international conference after conference, representatives of the United States have argued with the eloquence of those who are the convinced disciples of liberty and that moderation of armaments which makes of armies and nations a power for orders merely, not an instrument of aggression or selfish violence.

American Principles
"These are American principles, American policies. We could stand for no other. And they are also the principles and policies of forward-looking men and women everywhere, of every modern nation, of every enlightened community. They are the principles of mankind and must prevail."

While the President was speaking, copies of his address had been forwarded to American diplomats in all the belligerent countries for the information of the foreign offices and were being prepared for representatives of neutral governments here.

Back of the fundamental proposals for some sort of international sanction for preservation of the future peace of the world, now already accepted in principle by both sets of the belligerents in their replies to President Wilson's peace note, like the responsibility which the President today openly expressed, that thereby be laid the ground work upon which an approach may be made to an end of the present conflict.

In public utterances the President has hitherto expressed the conviction that the present was the last great war in which the United States could be a neutral; that it no longer could remain in the position of being half in and half out of world affairs. In his speech accepting his second nomination and in other public addresses, he touched upon the same sentiment which found its whole development in his addresses today.

"The American people," the President told the Senate, "cannot in honor withhold the service to which they are about to be challenged. They owe it to themselves," he said, "and to the other nations of the world, to state the conditions under which they will feel free to render it. I am here to attempt to state those conditions."

PERSHING FORCE ON MOVE OUT OF MEXICO

Juarez, Mex., January 22—A Mexican courier arrived here tonight from Casas Grandes with an official message saying that 161 motor trucks of the American expedition force left Colonia Dublan yesterday for Columbus, loaded to the top with camp equipment, supplies, ordnance, stores and excess baggage.

Troops of the expedition were marching from El Valle to Colonia Dublan today, according to a message received from Casas Grandes. They will go into camp at Colonia Dublan for a rest before proceeding toward the border, the message added.

This message also said a force of American troops started north from Colonia Dublan today to establish a temporary field base for the expedition.

The general movement of American troops toward Columbus, N. M., is expected to be under way within the next twenty-four hours, it was said.

GONE FOR GOOD

Results That Last Are What Appeal to Maysville People.

Kidney sufferers in Maysville want more than temporary relief. They want results that last—Results like Mr. Lynch tells about. His was a thorough test. Over four years is a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test and stood it well.

Why experiment with an untried medicine?

People here in Maysville have shown the way.

Read Mr. Lynch's story: W. H. Lynch, shoemaker, E. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were weak and sluggish. At one time the action of my kidneys stopped altogether. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time, the action of my kidneys became normal. I kept on taking them and they completely relieved me." (Statement given January 9, 1912.)

A PERMANENT CURE
On November 14, 1916, Mr. Lynch said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney remedy since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. They have permanently cured me."

Mr. Lynch is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Lynch has twice publicly recommended—the remedy backed by home testimony, 50c all stores, Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

Microbes are never found in gold coins, while paper money is an ideal home for them.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years doctors pronounced it to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR
Announcement
The company is many thousands of cars behind their orders. The railroads are unable to deliver rapidly enough on account of shortage of freight cars. On account of these conditions, which are the worst I have ever had to contend with since being in the automobile business, the company will not ship cars to a dealer unless he has orders for the cars signed by customers who are waiting for cars.
The tremendous demand will continue throughout the winter in the south and southwest, and the shortage in this part of the country in the spring will be the greatest ever known.
I have already sold and delivered one-half of all the cars I contracted for the 1917 season. I have orders on file for 25% of all the cars the company will ship me between now and August 1st. The man who waits till spring to place his order for a Ford will not get his car till mid-summer or next fall. Therefore, if you want a Ford car this year, place your order now and take the car as soon as I can deliver. Don't wait.
