RUGGLES CAMP

(By J. H. RICHARDSON.)

Ruggles Campgrounds, August 3.
This has been one of the best week days old Ruggles has ever experienced. The weather simply could not be improved upon—so delightful that one could wish it to continue indefinitely. Then the campers have been having such an enjoyable time socially on the grounds. These are the times that we think over during the time between campmeetings and just long for the next campmeeting to come around. No wonder that this place has gotten such a hold on such a large number of people. It occupies a great big place in the affections of hundreds and hundreds of people. And this interest is wide-spread. A few weeks before campmeeting began the writer received a nice little note from some one—name unassigned—way up in West Virginia asking us to be sure and "write up" the campmeeting for the papers again—they longed to know what was going on here. Words similar have been received from many sources. But we were speaking of this delightful day. While the weather has been so ideal, and the social times so pleasing, the services in the tabernacle have been real mountain top experiences. The beginning with the early prayer service, which was led by Rev. L. C. Godbey, and which was attended by three times more than any such meeting so far, and at which we were prepared in an unusual way for the experience of the day. At 10 o'clock Maysville's popular pastor, Rev. W. S. Peters, preached to a large congregation, a sermon that was received with deep interest and impressions made that could be clearly seen on the faces of those present.

One of the crowning services was the young people's meeting at 3 p. m. You may know that when Rev. Harrop got a big crowd of young people before him there is going to be something doing. He certainly put "pop" into the service. He kept the whole audience in the tip top of expectancy as to what was coming next, throughout the meeting. And along with all this he drove home some fundamental lessons that will bear fruit in those precious young lives. How glad we all are that Brother Harrop is to continue to lead these services during the week. And you can depend upon it that all the young folks will be there every afternoon.

The biggest week-night audience we have ever seen in the tabernacle was present at the evening service. A choir that over-flower the platform simply made the camp ring with joyful melody. Then the male quartet was in extra fine trim singing very effectively, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." For a subject the evangelist took "The Power of Influence," a sermon that was a plea for Christian homes. Such an earnest plea to parents we have seldom heard. The sermon was punctuated with many amusing illustrations, yet all with a point to them that thrust the truths of his message home to the hearts of his hearers. At the close he made a special appeal for the parents to come to the altar of prayer to which a great crowd responded. Along with the parents came several seekers. A glorious altar service followed at which many hearts were made happy. And the day closed with gladness in the hearts of all and a feeling that victory is coming.

Prof. T. J. Currey and wife came today to spend a few days in camp, especially to visit their son Robert our talented pianist. Prof. and Mrs. Currey have just returned from an extended visit to the Northwest. Their many friends will regret to learn that they are to leave soon to teach in Iowa for next year. While we will regret to see them go away yet we want to extend to them our congratulations and good wishes, for they are going at a salary far beyond anything paid heretofore. The place they are to teach is Waukegan, Iowa.

Mr. Ones Walsh, of Newport, came today to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh.

Mrs. B. P. McClanahan and son, Pickett, spent the day—the first for several years—enjoying the delights of the campground.

Mr. and Mrs. Moran and children, of Newport, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Brodt.

An announcement that will be of unusual interest is that on the last Sunday night of the campmeeting the illustrated lecture "New York, the Churches' Greatest Missionary Opportunity" will be given. This is the lecture that was to have been given at Third Street church a few Sundays ago but did not arrive in time. Rev. Peters offered it for use here next Sunday and the offer has been accepted. This lecture and pictures are a part of the centenary program and it will interest all Methodists to see what is being done with the Centenary money. And it will be of interest to others also, to see what the church is doing.

Rev. W. H. Davenport left this afternoon to hold the fourth quarterly conference at Sedden M. E. church.

Mr. Duke A. Rudy, formerly of this city, but now an iron worker in one of the large mills in Newport, is here visiting his mother and sisters.

Mr. Ed Dern, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, is the guest of his brother, Rev. Wm. Dern.

MOTHER GAVE IT

Virginia Lady Suffered With Aches and Pains Until Mother Began Giving Her Cardui.

Dublin, Va.—Miss Mary Alice Hughett residing on Route 2, near here, recently told a visitor of her interesting experience with Cardui. Miss Hughett said: "I had been suffering for some time with painful... I was pale, didn't feel like going. Would just drag around, and couldn't rest to do any good. I would suffer once a month with my back, sides and head. My limbs would ache and I didn't know what to do, but I knew I must do something, for I didn't get well by letting it run on."
"My mother is a believer in Cardui, for she saw what it did for others as well as herself, so she began giving it to me."
"It wasn't long before I saw a change. It was just what I needed. It regulated me. I began to eat and sleep, and the pain stopped."
"Cardui is without doubt the best female tonic made, and I am glad I can recommend it to others."
"If suffering with symptoms such as Miss Hughett mentions, or other ailments peculiar to women, why not begin Cardui at once? Its merit is well established by successful use for more than 40 years."

"Fighting Cressy"

By Bret Harte, who is the king-pin writer of the true, big-hearted, roaring West. A picture as breezy as the prairie, as sweet as the wild rose—full of the beauty and chivalry of the rugged West is this drama of strong emotions. See where rugged hearts are true—where men kill and women kiss for love. There's where Fighting Cressy learned the lore of the big trees, mountains and open spaces. THIS IS BLANCHE SWEET'S GREATEST PRODUCTION. HER MASTERPIECE. FIGHTING CRESSY IS A DAUGHTER OF OLD KENTUCKY.
