FLEMING WOMAN SUICIDES, HANGING SELF TO BED POST

Mrs. Kate Sousey, of Near Elizaville, Fleming County, Had Thought and Talked Much of Recent Suicide of Chas. Ross.

Tuesday morning when Howard Spencer and family living on the Hill-top pike about one mile from Elizaville Fleming county, went to the bedroom of Mrs. Kate Sousey, who lived with them, to learn why she did not get up they found her cold in death, hanging to a bed post with two towels about her neck as a rope.

The towels were tied at the top of the high bed post and the woman evidently had to bend her knees to strangle herself.

Deceased was the widow of Dan Sousey who died a few years ago and was about 70 years of age. No cause is assigned for her action.

She had talked considerably about the suicide of C. L. Ross which occurred some days ago and it seemed to prey on her mind. The evening before she had retired apparently in her normal condition and gave no evidence of anything rash.

Coroner C. C. Maxey held an inquest and a jury found Mrs. Sousey had come to death by her own hand.

Deceased is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Sellers, Mrs. Rose Howe, Mrs. Frank Cottrell, and four brothers, John, Howard, Charles and Ben Spencer. Burial will take place at Elizaville Thursday, services by Rev. J. J. Dickey.

ACCIDENT RETURNING FROM COLORED DANCE.

The Fleming Gazette says: Tuesday morning when Claud Fox, John H. Rice, Will Cochran and one or two others, all colored, returned from Maysville where they attended a dance and imbibed in moonshine they drove out the Mt. Sterling pike for a joy spin in Fox's machine. Returning, Fox took the wheel and in speeding down the hill just beyond C. W. Crane's home the auto went into the ditch and turned over.

DISPLAY OF WORK AT MAYSLEICK SCHOOL.

On Friday afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock there will be an exhibit of the work done by the different grades in Mayslick school. The children of the first four grades will furnish a varied program of their work beginning at 2:30. The teachers will be in their rooms at 7:30 and until the beginning of the music recital at 8 p. m. and will be glad to see patrons. We should like for each person interested in the school to see this exhibit and to be present at each of the programs.

THE "MOTHER OF MEDICINE"

Isis, the Queen and afterwards the Goddess, was called the "Mother of Medicine." In ancient Egypt, centuries before Christ, women were skilled in medicine. They knew the great value of medicinal plants. Hippocrates, the "Father of Medicine," many centuries later, knew less of the merit of vegetable drugs than did the women of ancient times. Lydia E. Pinkham, nearly fifty years ago, gave to women her Vegetable Compound, now known everywhere as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This is a woman's medicine for woman's ailments, prepared from medicinal plants.

JUDGE COCHRAN SENTENCED 99 PERSONS TUESDAY

More Than Four Hours Required for Federal Judge to Sentence Persons Convicted at Covington Jail.

It required more than four hours Tuesday afternoon for the passing of sentences in Federal Court, Covington, on ninety-nine persons convicted at this term of court. Judge A. M. J. Cochran imposed unusually heavy sentences, which ranged from fines to terms in the penitentiary.

Many jail sentences were inflicted in cases where the charges were violations of the prohibition laws. Judge Cochran said he desired to be reasonable, but that the manufacture and selling of liquor required punishment to eliminate the evil. He said the soft-drink stand is being used as a cover for the sale of whisky.

The conspiracy charge against five Newport men, James O'Brien, Carl Bruchhaber, John Donsback, Steve Packety and Andrew Bogenschultz, who were arrested and convicted for activities in connection with the steel strike, drew a large crowd to the courtroom. Judge Cochran read a number of affidavits describing conditions in Newport at the time the defendants were charged with obstructing a truck which was being driven by Albert Yockey from the Andrews Steel Plant to Cincinnati.

Attorney Arthur Hall, representing the men, asked for leniency. Judge Cochran sentenced each of the five men, except John Donsback, to a term of eight months in the Winchester (Ky.) jail, and Donsback to thirty days in the Covington jail.

LIQUOR CASE HAS MANY UNUSUAL ANGLES

Fight In Pool Room Leads to Arrests—One Case Dismissed and Another Party Is Placed Under Arrest.

On Monday afternoon the local police arrested two colored men who were engaged in a fight at the colored pool room in Front street and at the hearing of this fight evidence crept out that there had been some bootlegging done in that vicinity.

Warrants were issued for Charles Warner, colored, an employee of the pool room charging him with selling liquor to another. His case had gone out a short distance on Tuesday afternoon when evidence crept out that Warner's employer, Fine Best, had been selling liquor. Upon motion of the city, the warrant against Warner was dismissed and a new warrant was immediately issued for Best, who could not be found.

Late Tuesday evening Best surrendered himself to Police Judge Curran and his case was set for trial for Thursday evening.

So much talking is being done on all sides that these series of cases promise to develop something interesting.

The funeral of the late Judge Samuel J. Fugh was held Wednesday morning from his home at Vanceburg. Quite a number of local friends and admirers attended the funeral.

FRANTIC MOTHER KILLS CHILDREN AND HERSELF

Russell Springs Woman After Slaying Two Children Runs Into Sharp Blade of a Hatchet.

A Columbia, Ky., dispatch dated Tuesday says:

Mrs. Arnold Holt, in a sudden fit of dementia at her home in Russell Springs, a village near here, slew two of her children, attempted to kill a third and then, fastening a hatchet in a fence with the blade toward her, backed off twenty feet and ran into it head-on. Physicians say she will die. Maxine a girl of 12, was decapitated with a butcher knife; her infant with a son, six years old, was thrust into a barrel of water and covered with a bed quilt apparently in order to make sure they would be killed.

The infant was drowned but the boy threw off the covering and was found hanging over the edge of the barrel. Neighbors rescued him. He will survive.

The only witness to the tragedy was George Harris, Mrs. Arnold's father, with whom she had been making her home. He was so stricken with horror at the tragedy being enacted before him that he was unable to do more than utter cries for help.

Mrs. Arnold had been separated from her husband and was the plaintiff in a divorce action which was docketed for hearing in the circuit court here today.

She was about 34 years old. She has a brother, Elvan Harris, who is a dentist in Danville, Ky.

NARROWESCAPE FOR WORKMAN IN QUARRY NEAR LEWISBURG

Premature Explosion of Quarry Blast Injures Colored Workman Who Is Considered Fortunate to Have Escaped Death.

William Blue, colored, employed in the county's rock quarry near Lewisburg, escaped death but was seriously injured in the premature explosion of a large blast in the quarry Tuesday.

Blue had set the dynamite to make a big blast and was standing very near it when it exploded accidentally and threw stone many feet into the air. Fortunately the full blast missed his body but he was thrown considerable distance and rather badly cut about the body. One arm was badly broken and he was considerably shaken up from his experience.

The Lewisburg quarry is located on the old James Alexander farm and the explosion created considerable excitement in the neighborhood.
