

UNION SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Maysvillians to Observe Thanksgiving in Special Union Services to Be Held at Third Street M. E. Church Tomorrow.

The union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Third Street M. E. church Thursday at 10:30 a. m. Rev. J. Rector Savage of the First M. E. Church, South, will preach the sermon, Special thanksgiving music by the choir of Third Street church. Let our people so far as possible lay aside business and other cares and follow the advice of our President by assembling in our houses of worship for a special service of Thanksgiving.

These annual Thanksgiving services are always most interesting and there is always a very large audience. Special interest will be taken in the service this year for two special reasons. In the first place, this is the first union service at which the new pastor of the First M. E. Church, South, Dr. J. R. Savage, has preached. The second reason is that the music will be in charge of the choir of the Third Street M. E. church, which is regarded as one of the best in the city and splendid Thanksgiving music is therefore assured.

This is certainly one day in the year when the people of Maysville should make a special effort to attend church services and the Third Street church should be filled to its capacity.

Cheer Up! Phone 337-W and let McNamara press that suit for Thanksgiving. 28Nov22

Thanksgiving the Pastime presents an extra big feature, Wm. Farnum in "Shackles of Gold," a story of a poor dock laborer who arose to millionaire, then went broke, bucking the man that loved his wife, who sold herself for gold to save her parents name in society. This is an extra big feature with an all-star cast. See this picture and this will be one thing you will be thankful for on this day. A picture for all classes. Friday morning we give a free show at 9:30 o'clock to children under 12 years of age, to see "Buffalo Bill."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY PASTOR'S UNION

Maysville Ministers' Union Adopts Resolutions Upon the Death of Pastor John Mullen.

The Maysville Ministers' Union, of which the late Rev. John Mullen was chairman, has adopted the following resolutions upon his death: Maysville, Kentucky, Nov. 28, 1922. The Ministers' Union of Maysville Kentucky has suffered great loss in the going home of our faithful minister the Rev. John Mullen, who died November 24th. He has lived in our midst and has gone to his reward rich in the respect, confidence and love of his fellow workers.

Therefore be it resolved as the Minister's Union has lost one of its loyal, earnest, and faithful members, that we rejoice in the great joy that is his today in reaping the reward of many years of service for our Master.

While we sorrow because of our great loss, we pray that his mantle may fall upon our shoulders who are left behind to carry on the work of the Lord he loved so well.

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be given to the papers for publication, and a copy sent to the family.

Signed, THE MAYSVILLE MINISTERS' UNION.

NORMAL SCHOOL SQUABBLE MAY GO TO COURTS

Governor Morrow Asked By Big Sandy Folk To Call Special Session of Assembly—Two Men Chosen School Head.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 28.—The courts may be called upon to settle the normal school controversy and define the rights and privileges of the state board of education and the normal school commission, Governor Edwin P. Morrow said today at the close of a conference with George Colvin, state superintendent, and Charles I. Dawson, attorney general. While many calls have been received urging the governor to call an extra session of the legislature to repeal the normal school act Governor Morrow indicated that court action was the most likely solution of the tangle.

Governor Morrow has received many petitions from towns in the Big Sandy valley asking him to take steps to undo the work of the commission which selected Murray and Morehead as the sites for the two new normal schools authorized by the 1922 general assembly. Governor Morrow has the matter under advisement and is not likely to take action for several days, it was indicated here today. Attorney General Dawson is going over the matter with a view of determining what legal steps are necessary to settle the controversy over the selection of officers for the new schools.

At the meeting of normal school commission in Lexington Saturday Robert Green, former member of the state tax commission, was elected president of the Murray school. The state board of education the same day elected Dr. John W. Carr of the department of education, a president of the same institution. Both the commission and the board claim the right to select officers, according to members, and the question of prerogatives probably will have to be settled in the court.

COURT ISSUES A RESTRAINING ORDER ON TAX

Judge C. D. Newell Grants Temporary Restraining Order In Bank Fight On Taxes—Injunction Comes Later.

In chambers Wednesday afternoon Circuit Judge C. D. Newell heard arguments of attorneys in the cases of the Bank of Maysville, Bank of Maysville, State National Bank and State Trust Company against Sheriff C. M. Devore, in which the banks sought an injunction against the sheriff to prevent him from collecting county taxes on the stock of these financial institutions.

After hearing some argument, Judge Newell said that he wanted to go further into the cases before granting an injunction and he granted a temporary restraining order against the sheriff pending the hearing on the injunction. This hearing on the prayer for an injunction will be held next week.

KENTUCKIANS CALLED UPON TO GIVE THANKS

Governor Morrow Issues Proclamation Calling Upon Kentuckians To Give Thanks For Blessings Thursday.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 28.—Kentuckians are called upon "to assemble together around the firesides of home" or at "the altars of their God" to observe Thanksgiving Day, in a proclamation issued today by Governor Morrow.

The proclamation follows: "To the people of Kentucky: "Thanksgiving Day, at the close of autumn, the harvest over, the sheaves gathered in around us, the last sun of Indian summer before the frosts of winter come.

"Thanksgiving Day, the children coming back to father and mother, the wanderer turning his steps to the light of home and to the light of love.

"Thanksgiving Day, with its spirit growing kinder, ever gentler, ever broader and more human because on this day, we, His children loving one another more, are clearer to our Father in heaven. In memory of other days and in obedience to the mandate of years, I hereby set aside Thursday, the 30th day of November, 1922, Thanksgiving Day, and call upon our people to assemble together around the firesides of home, at the altars of their God, and that, thrilled with all of the spirit of this gracious, generous day, they shall think kinder of each other, and extend generosity of thought and deed and word to their neighbors and those around them. All in gratitude for the loving kindness which has for another year, arched above us like the sky, and to the end that the commonwealth and its citizens shall be better, richer and happier because of our day of thanks."

KENTUCKY GIRL IS QUESTIONED ON LANUS' DEATH

Bromley Girl Now in Chicago To Be Asked About Affairs of Chicago Millionaire Found Dead in Garage.

Miss Mabel Gray, 35, of Bromley, Ky., was to be questioned by Chicago police Wednesday in the hope she might be able to furnish information about the affairs of "Handsome Joe" Lanus, millionaire auto dealer, which would open a clew to solution of his murder in his salesrooms in Chicago Friday night.

Miss Gray left Bromley for Chicago Sunday morning to attend Lanus' funeral Tuesday, according to her father, William Gray. She is staying with a friend, Mrs. David Altman, at 3705 N. St. Louis avenue, Chicago, Gray said.

Miss Gray was identified by Edmund Lanus, the slain man's twin brother, as the girl in black who was overcome with grief beside Lanus' casket in the undertaker's rooms Tuesday, dispatches report.

Mrs. Edmund Lanus' story to police that Miss Gray had an appointment with the dead man Saturday night obviously grew out of a misunderstanding of the facts, Gray said. He said his daughter was at home in Bromley Saturday night and went to church in Chicago for at least a month before the murder, he explained.

Chicago police thought Miss Gray might know enough about Lanus' affairs to furnish a clew to some enemy.

"WHEN WE WERE 21"

Wasn't that a delightful comedy, which made such a tremendous success about 21 years ago, with the famous NAT GOODWIN and the beautiful MAXINE ELLIOTT as the "STARS."

Who ever saw that play surely received their money's worth or more, and there was no war tax either.

This week we are celebrating

OUR 21ST ANNIVERSARY

Who ever attends same will surely get their money's worth, if not more. Our whole store shines with bargains as bright as the "Stars."

Did you see the crowd in our store Saturday? They weren't looking—they were buying—they know.
