For the "Spirit." Errata. In the solution of Philosophical Problem No. 11, published last week, X makes a mistake in calculating the velocity with which the fluid runs from the orifice.

For the "Spirit." Answer to Problem No. 12. The power multiplied by its distance from the fulcrum must always be greater than the weight multiplied by its distance; whereas in this instance it is less.

For the "Spirit." Answer to Geographical Problem No. 13. The sun comes North as far as the equator, 23 1/2 degrees North of the equator, and as it lacked 16 1/2 degrees of being vertical to him, he must have resided 16 1/2 degrees North of that point, or on the 40th degree of North latitude.

For the "Spirit." Answer to Problem No. 14. Suppose a man were to start at 6 o'clock A. M., and follow his shadow at the rate of a mile per hour until 6 o'clock in the evening; what would be the radius of the circle which he would describe, supposing the earth a plain?

For the "Spirit." Problem No. 15. In travelling 50 miles, how far will a nail in the tire of a carriage wheel move?

Illinois Certain for Buchanan. The Chicago Times of the 13th inst. puts the following crusher on the idle talk about the result in Illinois: "We observe that persons at a distance seem to put some faith in statements that there is a possibility that Illinois will vote for Fremont. We know that it has been said, and positively avowed by Black Republican orators, that Illinois would vote the opposition ticket. Such an idea, when expressed here, is considered too stale even for a joke. No man in his senses thinks of this State voting for any one but Buchanan. As we said when Mr. Buchanan was nominated, the Democracy of Illinois will give him a larger majority, in proportion to the entire vote, than he will obtain in Pennsylvania. Any Pennsylvania editor who wants to lose a hat on that proposition may apply for our measure at once."

Illinois never has, since it became a State, voted against the Democracy at a general election—not even in the dark days of 1840 and 1854. Her invincible Democracy, led on by those gallant champions, Douglas and Richardson, will roll up next fall for Buchanan twenty thousand majority.—Cin. Eng.

It is said "there is nothing in a name," but if Andrew Jackson Donelson's daddy had so fancied, and so called his hopeful Andrew Snooks Donelson, does anybody suppose that Andrew Snooks Donelson would to-day be the candidate of a respectable faction for the Vice Presidency of these United States?

Cigar-makers Wanted. THE undersigned wishes to employ THREE GOOD CIGAR-MAKERS at his Shop in Smith. He will pay Wheeling prices to good workmen who will apply soon.

HE always keeps on hand a large supply of EXCELLENT CIGARS and CUT-AND-DRY TOBACCO. Merchants and others dealing in these articles will find it to their advantage to purchase of him. G. LUTHEY, Clarion, O., July 30, 1856-pd.

Legal Notice. ROBERT MILLER, a non-resident of the State of Ohio, do hereby certify that on the 14th day of April, A. D. 1856, at the instance of Solomon Hubbs, a summons and order of attachment was issued by Joel F. Randolph, a Justice of the Peace within and for the county of Adams and State of Ohio, against the said Robert Miller, for the sum of twelve dollars and twenty cents, that said writs were returned by Joseph Coates, Constable of Centre township, in said county, endorsed no goods, chattels, &c. found to attach; defendant not found; it was thereupon suggested to the said Justice that the defendant had an interest in real estate in said county; that on the 24th day of May, A. D. 1856, a transcript of the proceedings before said Justice was filed in the Court of Common Pleas of said county; that afterwards on the same day of June, 1856, an order of attachment was issued out of said Court against said Robert Miller, which has been returned levied on lands in said county; that on the 9th day of July, 1856, the said Solomon Hubbs, filed in said Court a petition against said Robert Miller, demanding the sum of eleven dollars and sixty-five cents, with interest from the 16th of September, A. D. 1843, subject to a credit of five dollars, November 27, 1844. You will therefore take notice that unless you appear and answer or demur to said petition on or before the 30th day of August, A. D. 1856, that at the October term, 1856, a judgment will be taken against you by default and the land attached sold to satisfy the same. HOLLISTER, OKRY & HOLLISTER, July 9, 1856. Att'ys for Solomon Hubbs.
