PIANO FOR SALE.—Williams and West are agents for Wm. Knabe & Co's celebrated Baltimore Pianos; also, for A. H. Gale & Co's New York Pianos. These pianos are the very best made. We will deliver you one here, free of all expenses, cheaper than you can buy one in Wheeling. Call and examine testimonials, cuts, etc.

OIL LEASES for sale at this office. Price 10 cents.

Go to S. L. Mooney's store for your coffee. They are selling three pounds for one dollar.

The store of Mr. Shewell, of Antioch, was broken into one night last week, by burglars, and a large amount of valuable taken.

If you want to subscribe for the Spirit, send us $2.00 by mail, or otherwise as you may have the opportunity. We pay attention to orders that do not enclose the money.

In consequence of the Teacher's Institute commencing its next session on the 16th inst., the Union School in this place will not open until the 23d inst. All interested will take notice.

Alexander Pickens, of Franklin Township, has presented us with an apple measuring nearly fifteen inches in circumference, and weighing one pound six and a half ounces. It is of the variety called Fallwilder.

Our friends will remember in sending Administrator and Attachment Notices for publication in the Spirit, that they must enclose $2.00 to pay for each one—$5.00 will not do. Unless the $2.00 is received, the publication will lay over.

M. Baker & Son are now receiving a large and fresh stock of groceries, canned fruits, oysters, &c. Their stock is complete, and they are prepared to sell on the most accommodating terms. Give them a call.

The place to buy your fashionable dress goods is S. L. Mooney's, where you can get later styles and on better terms than can be got elsewhere.

The Mass Meeting last week was addressed by Col. G. W. McCook and Hon. J. R. Morris. The number present was more than an average, and the speeches were very effective. McCook is an admirable speaker.

Gen. Morgan was unavoidably absent.

Dr. J. M. Stout.—On Tuesday night of last week Dr. J. M. Stout made a very forcible speech to a large audience, at the Court House. At the conclusion the stand was showered with bouquets. The Doctor's speeches are unique and very entertaining. Long live Doctor Stout.

We call attention to the advertisement of Reed & Brother in another column. This firm has been recommended by the press everywhere for their fair dealing and integrity. For the sum of $2.00 purchasers may obtain a Gold or Silver Watch, Diamond Ring, or some very valuable article. The goods advertised by them are said to be of a superior quality.

ABOUT BRETT.—The Philadelphia Bulletin, of the 23d, says: "We hear of a large number of families and individuals who have determined to forego the use of butter, or to consume it sparingly, until the article is brought down to something like a reasonable price."

That is right. Whenever the price of an article is above its value, let the people quit buying it. That will bring it to its proper level.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of A. A. Porter & Co., of Clarington, in another column of this paper. They are now prepared to wait upon their customers in the best manner, and on the most reasonable terms. As an establishment of this kind—clock and watch repairing—is a necessity in every village, they should be liberally patronized by the citizens of Clarington and the surrounding country. Give them a call.

Judge D. D. T. Cowan held the Court here last week. He made a very favorable impression.

PROMOTED.—2d Lieut. John Walton, of the 25th O. V. I., has been promoted to 1st Lieut. The regiment is at Columbia, S. C.

We invite the attention of our farmers and wool growers generally to the advertisement of A. R. Sharp, in another column. Mr. Sharp has a fine lot of bucks of first quality. An opportunity is now offered our stock men to improve the quality of their sheep. Give him a call.

The following indictments were found by the grand jury last week: Against Charles Fox for selling liquor to minors.

Against Charles Fox for selling liquor on Sunday.

Against Charles Fox for selling whisky to be drunk where sold.

Against George Foraker for assault and battery.

Against Nathan Morris for murder in the second degree.

Against Thomas J. Quillen for stealing a mule.

[From the Marietta Times, Oct. 5, 1865.] To Our Comrades.

The undersigned, soldiers just returned from the field, but who have not yet reached our homes, finding that an attempt has been made to place us on a level with negroes, declare that we will vote for General Morgan and the whole Democratic ticket.

The Population of the Globe. [Translated from L'Année Scientifique for the Mobile Daily News.]

There are on the globe about 1288 millions of souls, of which 369 millions are of the Caucasian race. 552 " " Mongol " 190 " " Ethiopian " 175 " " Malay " 1 " " Indo-Amer "

There are 3,642 languages spoken, and 1,000 different religions. The yearly mortality of the globe is 333,333,333 persons. This is at the rate of 91,554 a day, 3,730 per hour, 60 per minute. So each pulsation of our heart marks the decease of some human creature.

The average of human life is 33 years. One-fourth of the population dies at or before the age of seven years—one-half at or before seventeen years.

Among 10,000 persons one arrives at the age of 100 years, 1 in 500 attain the age of 90, and 1 in 100 live to the age of 60.

Married men live longer than single ones. In 1,000 persons 65 marry, and more marriages occur in June and December than in any other months of the year.

One-eighth of the whole population is military. Professions exercise a great influence on longevity. In one thousand individuals who arrive at the age of 70 years, 42 are priests, orators, or public speakers; 40 are agriculturists; 33 are workmen; 32 soldiers or military employes; 24 cases or engineers; 27 professors, and 24 doctors. Those who devote their lives to the prolongation of that of others die the soonest.

There are 325 million Christians. " 5 " Israelites. " 60 " Asiatic Religions. " 160 " Mahometan. " 200 " Heathen.

In the Christian Churches, 170 millions profess the Roman Catholic. 75 " Greek faith. 80 " Protestant.

Douglas' Testimony. Inasmuch as, according to the testimony of Hon. Thad. Stevens, the Abolition Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means in Congress, our people have, within the past four years had fastened upon them a public debt that will be to them "a curse from generation to generation," the question naturally comes up—"could the infliction of this curse have been avoided?" In this connection, it is proper to call Senator Douglas to the stand. On the 3d of January, 1861, he delivered a speech in the United States Senate in full Senate and before crowded galleries. In this speech, he said:

"In the Committee of Thirteen, a few days ago, every member from the South, including those from the Cotton States [Seward, Poombs and Davis] expressed their readiness to accept the proposition of my venerable friend from Kentucky [Mr. Crittenden] as a final settlement of the controversy, if tendered and sustained by the Republican members. Hence, the sole responsibility of our disagreement, and the only difficulty in the way of an amicable adjustment, is with the Republican party."

There was not a Senator who, rose in his seat and challenged the correctness of this statement. Remember, the testimony is to the effect, that if the Republican Senators and Members of Congress had agreed to the Crittenden Compromise there would have been a final settlement of the whole difficulty without a resort to arms, without the plundering of the Government, without the oppressive taxation which will rest upon our people as a blighting "curse from generation to generation." Wherefore, then, should this party, that has brought upon the people so terrible a calamity, be continued longer in power?—Statesman.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Additional Particulars of the Fenian Agitation. There were no new developments in the crusade against the Fenians. The examination of the prisoners stood fixed for the 23d.

James Murphy, one of the men arrested at Dublin, who described himself as a citizen of Boston and protested against his arrest, had been set at liberty "after," says the Freeman, "an interview between the American Consul and the authorities." It is stated that Murphy is connected with the War Department at Washington, but no explanation is given of his connection with the suppressed Irish People.

As the Eighty-eighth regiment was on parade in Cork barracks, the sergeant-major was called into the guard-room and shown a roll-book of members' names, taken from an arrested Fenian. The sergeant-major admitted that one of the signatures was his, and was at once taken into custody.

A private soldier belonging to the same regiment was also arrested. This caused great excitement in Cork, even leading, it is reported, to a run on a Cork bank.

A Fenian demonstration was rather expected at the Limerick races, and the military were held in readiness, but all passed off quietly.

James Stevens, for whom a reward of £100 is offered, was said to camp to Smith O'Brien at Ballingary.

The American officer who was arrested at Queenstown on the arrival of the City of Limerick turns out to be a federal and not a confederate captain, named McCafferty. A number of Fenian documents of an incendiary character were found in his possession, with evidence that he is connected with the movement.

The arms of Brigadier General Gleason, of the United States army, who was also a passenger on board the City of Limerick were taken from him.

The Morning Post editorially asserts that the American government is strongly opposed to the Fenians, and will do all in its power to defeat them. It says President Johnson and Mr. Seward are animated by the most friendly sentiments toward England, and the latter has communicated Fenian movements to the British cabinet, and neither the British public nor the government will readily forgive Mr. Seward's honorable and amicable conduct.

The Daily News thinks the Fenian collapse is likely to settle in a beneficial way the relations between the United States and Ireland, and that the political relations between England and Ireland are likely to be far better understood than they have ever been.

Lieutenant Colonel Voborke, late adjutant-general of cavalry, writes to the Times a statement that the documents found on the person of Colonel Dalgren after he was killed were forgeries.

INTERNAL REVENUE.—The internal revenue receipts in the last ninety-six days, Sundays included, amount to the sum of $100,935,421.94, being greatly in excess of what was expected by any one conversant with the business of the Internal Revenue Department. The receipts for the month of September were $37,939,415.82.

An Ohio exchange has the following: What holds the Abolition party together? Seven-thirty Bonds. What do Seven-thirties mean? That seven men get richer by them and thirty thousand poorer.

The Fenians are sending their scrip and bonds to Ireland in aid of the Fenian movement.

Many Republican papers refuse to publish President Johnson's address to the Southern delegates.

LOUISA HURD. Sept. 20, '65.

BLOOMER HOUSE, Woodsfield, Ohio. REESE HENDERSHOT, Proprietor. THIS well-known and popular house has been thoroughly renovated and IMPROVED by the present proprietor. His TABLE will compare favorably with the best in Eastern Ohio. His STABLES ARE THE VERY BEST in the town and the county, and the most capacious. Every attention will be paid to guests, and every accommodation afforded, to make them comfortable. The Barnesville Hack leaves his door daily, and the Sunfish Hack every alternate day.

Notice. CAPT. PETER DILLON having returned home from the army where he served his country faithfully, till near the end of his term of enlistment, when he was honorably discharged on account of failing health—Capt. Dillon is now about to recommence the WAREHOUSE & HOTEL BUSINESS at his old stand in Clarington, where he would be pleased to see his old friends and patrons.

A DAILY LINE OF HACKS leaves his house for Woodsfield, and connects with the Parkersburg line of boats. The Captain also keeps a Livery Stable where horses can be had at all times. His Warehouse is now ready to receive freight. Prompt attention will be given to this branch of his business. PETER DILLON. Clarington, Monroe County, Ohio.

SPECIAL NOTICES. The Myo Te—C. C. & C. D.—The first of the initials above stand for an old friend to the public; one which every one will recognize and for which every one has a kind welcome; we refer to Cole's Cough Balsam—the cheapest and best preparation in the world for cough, colds, croup, and all throat and lung complaints. The second are Cole's Dyspepsia Cure—the only remedy ever known that is sure to cure dyspepsia, indigestion and flatulency, and general debility. Both articles are now too well known to need any praise from us. Let the afflicted always have them handy.

PURE CATAWBA BRANDY. CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 18, 1863. I hereby certify that by authority invested in me by the State of Ohio, as medical inspector of alcoholic liquors for Hamilton county, I have inspected samples of liquor, called Catawba Brandy and Senned Brandy, manufactured by C. W. ROBESON, at Nos. 66, 68, 60 and 62 East Third street, and find said liquors free from poisonous impurities. The distillation is conducted by the steam medium, by which method purity and uniform perfection is attained.

In testimony whereof witness my signature this 18th day of March, 1863. DAVID O'CONNOR, M. D. Chemical Inspector of alcoholic liquors of Hamilton county, Ohio.

C. W. ROBESON challenges the comparison of the best French Cognac with his fine Catawba Brandy, which has been pronounced by the medical faculty superior for medicinal purposes to any brandy ever made. THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST.
