John Dyer, of Coal Run, Washington County, killed a man named Charles Higgins, on the 20th ult., by striking him on the head with a baseball club. Dyer was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000.

A Golden Wedding.

On last Wednesday evening Judge Kirkbride and his lady, of this place, celebrated their Golden Wedding, it being, on that day, just fifty years since they were married. A large party of the relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkbride were present to congratulate them, and partake of their generous hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkbride are in full possession of their faculties, and are enjoying unusual immunities from the frailties usually incident to advanced age. They have a gratifying prospect of many years of life and health. They doubtless possessed good constitutions in youth, which they have kept unimpaired by temperate lives, and by cultivating amiable and generous dispositions. They are in possession of a fine fortune, the reward of honesty and industry, of which not one penny can say to them that it was obtained unfairly.

It was such a pair of whom the poet wrote: John Anderson, my Jo John, Life's hill we've climbed together; And many a canty day, John, We've had 'er an' anther. But now we're tottering down, John, And hand in hand we'll go, And we'll sleep together at the foot, John Anderson, my Jo.

Sudden Death of Prof. John Moore

Intelligence was received in town on last Wednesday morning that Mr. John Moore had been found dead on the road leading from Sunfish Creek to this place. On Sunday last Mr. Moore started to Wheeling on business, and on Tuesday night had reached within three miles of his home when he, to all appearances, as no marks of violence were found on his person, dropped dead. Mr. Moore had alighted at the creek near Mr. Coates' to walk up the hill. His horse returned home some time in the night and upon being discovered the next morning, his friends went in search of him.

His body was found near the residence of Mr. Kindelburger, about one-fourth mile from the creek, lying on the left side and presented no appearance of struggling. The verdict of the Coroner's inquest was that the deceased came to his death from disease of the heart.

Mr. Moore was Principal of the Union School of Woodfield for several years previous to the war. He was buried on Thursday. "Watch and pray, for ye know not the day nor the hour when the Son of Man cometh."

On Friday night last Deputy Sheriff Carrothers, assisted by Wm. Read and Allen Pifer, arrested, in the vicinity of Beallsville, Samuel Gates charged with firing the barn of Mr. Marx Albert the destruction of which we noticed some time since.

He was arraigned before Esq. Salisbury on Saturday and admitted to bail in the sum of $3,000, for his appearance on Monday the 4th inst.

United States Senatorship.

A contemporary, in speaking of the late glorious victory of the Ohio Democracy, says:

"Now that the Ohio Democracy have the power in their own hands, it would be an act of rare poetic justice to bestow the vacant United States Senatorship on Mr. Vallandigham. There would be a fitness of things in placing this noble companion in the seat now disgraced by that furious Jacobin and swaggering, swearing, drunkard, Ben. Wade. For their existence to-day, as a mighty power the Conservatives of Ohio, if not of the Union, are more indebted to Mr. Vallandigham than any other twenty men in the country. Against him were leveled the most deadly shafts of a corrupt Government. In him free speech and a free press were for a time stricken down. But he possesses the vitality of Phoenix multiplied a thousand times. Bayonets ghastly court martial forces and exile, could not force an abandonment of his principles. When in exile, he was borne in the gubernatorial contest as the standard bearer. In 1863 Vallandigham was beaten one hundred thousand votes; today Vallandigham's principles gloriously triumph, and the Jacobin's who three years ago sought his life and murdered his companions, now sink into the dark corners to escape the wrath of long-suffering freemen. Send him to face their comrades in Washington."

And the Kenton Democrat, in speaking of Ben. Wade and the Senatorship, says:

"I will the people have rebuked this old scamp by electing a Legislator to remove him. Now it will be the duty of that Legislature to supersede him by a patriot, a statesman, and a gentleman."

In the person of Hon. C. L. Vallandigham they have all these qualities, and we feel justified in saying, if he lives, which we hope he will, that he will be our next United States Senator. Ohio may well feel proud that she can send such a patriot, orator and statesman to the United States Senate.

DISAPPOINTMENTS.—The Radicals were subjected to a series of disappointments in the recent election in this State. They were disappointed in carrying the State ticket by 60,000 majority, as they boasted they would. They were disappointed in carrying through the Constitutional Amendment, as they were positive of doing. They were disappointed in the election of Richard Smith to Congress, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the registration of General Hayes, as they had every confidence in doing. They were disappointed in carrying a majority of the Legislature, which would have secured their control of the State and the return of Ben. Wade to the Senate.

It would be too bad to allow any more disappointments to befall them. Their principle electioneering hobby was that in the event of a Democratic majority in the Legislature, Vallandigham would be elected to the United States Senate; we would not be so cruel as to subject them to disappointment in this particular. Then hurrah for Vallandigham.—Holmes Co Farmer.

Hol For Mt. Vernon.—There will be a grand Democratic jubilee at Mt. Vernon on Thursday, October 24th. Hon. C. L. Vallandigham, who is to succeed Ben. Wade in the United States Senate, will positively be there to address the people. There is poetic justice in having Mr. Vallandigham speak upon the same spot where he spoke in 1863, for which he was arrested and exiled. There is also something more than poetic justice in sending him to the United States Senate as the successor to Ben. Wade.—Mt. Gilead Union Register.

U. S. SENATOR.—In the House the Democrats have a majority of 7 votes, and in the Senate 4 votes, making 11 on joint ballot. This secures the election of Vallandigham to the United States Senate in place of Wade. New Jersey rebuked an outrage upon one of her distinguished citizens by electing him United States Senator. We mean Hon. J. W. Wall. Ohio ought to do likewise, and send Vallandigham to the Senate, a place he will honor and to which he is entitled.—Marion Mirror, Oct. 10.

St John the Baptist's and the Church of the Ave Maria, Roman Catholic, were dedicated in Washington County in October. Bishop Rosecrans officiated.

The Government has ordered headstones to be placed at the graves of the conspirators, who are buried in the arsenal grounds, for the purpose of identification. The request of their friends for the disinterment of the bodies in order to give them honorable burial, has been declined.

Several more citizens are ordered to leave Richmond by the Vigilance Committee for speaking disrespectfully of Hannicut and his party.

Armed negroes have been kept on guard in front of his office by Hannicut, who prevents any one from passing on the sidewalk.

THE MAGAZINE FOR THE TIMES!

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.

Cheapest and Best in the World.

This popular Monthly Magazine, in consequence of its merit and cheapness, had, in 1867, a circulation equaling that of all the other Ladies Magazines combined. For 1868 it will be greatly improved. It will contain ONE THOUSAND PAGES!

FOURTEEN ILLUSTRATED STEEL PLATES! TWELVE MAMMOTH FASHION PLATES! FIFTY COLORED PAPER PATTERNS! NINE HUNDRED WOOD CUTS!

ALL this will be given for only TWO DOLLARS a year, or a dollar less than MAGAZINES of the class of "Peterson." Its

Thrilling Tales and Novelettes

Are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write originally for "Peterson." In 1868, in addition to its usual quantity of short stories, FOUR ORIGINAL COPYRIGHT NOVELLETTES will be given, by Ann S. Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, Amanda M. Douglas, and the author of "The Second Life." It also publishes

Mammoth Colored Fashion Plates

Ahead of all others. These plates are engraved on steel, TWICE THE USUAL SIZE, and contain six figures. They will be superbly covered. Also, a pattern from which a dress, Mantilla, or Child's Dress can be cut out, without the aid of a manta-maker. Also, several pages of Household and other receipts; in short, everything interesting to Ladies.

It is the best Lady's Magazine in the World.

CINCINNATI WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

Special Notice Extraordinary.

REDUCTION IN Rates of Subscription.

Feeling the necessity which exists so strongly at the present time to extend the circulation of the Democratic press, we have determined to reduce our rates of subscription to the lowest possible point consistent with the price of paper to us. We have so marked down our rates, commencing September 1, as to invite our political friends everywhere to organize and send us clubs of names in their respective vicinities.

Thirty dollars will secure twenty copies of the Weekly for the full term of one year with an extra copy to the person who sends us that number of names. There ought not to be a neighborhood where it would be difficult to raise that small sum among so many subscribers.

It is universally conceded that the Weekly Enquirer is one of the best representatives of Democratic principles in the United States, while at the same time it gives a very large quantity of miscellaneous and family reading, together with the important local news of this city, and full and reliable accounts of its markets. In conclusion we ask the old friends of our paper to make an effort to increase our circulation on the basis of these terms. There is no paper in the country whose terms are more liberal than those which we now offer to the patrons of the Enquirer. The new rates are for Single copies, one year.....$2 00 Single copies, six months.....1 25 Club of ten, each.....1 75 With extra copy to club agent.

Clubs of twenty or over, each.....1 50 With extra copy for club agent for every twenty names.

Clubs may be made up of names for different Postoffices at the above rates, provided they be sent in at one time. Address, FARAN & McLANE, Cincinnati, O.
