Sunshine—Friday. Rain and snow—Saturday. G. G. Jennings is smiling—it's a girl.

Court is in session in Belmont County. More plucking is being done on our streets.

Woodfield is to have a dramatic troupe. A number of our sportsmen were out last week.

John Doherty, Jr., has had an addition to the family. The first snow of the season fell here on last Saturday.

Read President Cleveland's Thanksgiving Proclamation. The Local train on the B. & C. has a new passenger coach of improved style.

Commissioner Mills estimates that one hundred million pounds of oleomargarine are annually manufactured.

We call the attention of our readers to the law card of John W. Doherty, to be found in this issue of the SPIRIT.

The Statue of Liberty is 151 feet 1 inch high, and weighs 450,000 pounds. France never does anything by halves.

The weather on election day was fine; the order on our streets, ditto; but the scratching was ridiculous and unbecoming.

The business room of Mr. Fred Diehl was roofed last week. When finished it will add very much to the appearance of that part of town.

Women don't object—in fact, they believe in tight shoes, tight gloves, and—yes, tight waists, but they very properly object to a tight husband.

The oleomargarine law went into effect on Monday of last week. Now let a law be passed by which we can get pure butter, unadulterated butter, and bald-headed butter.

Mr. Schumacher of this place has a number of ears of corn which he grew, that measure thirteen inches in length. Two of them weighed only three and a-half lbs. We pass.

The sewer for the Ohio Soldiers' Home, near Sandusky, will be over 6,000 feet long, of which over 1200 feet will be rock work. The contract price for construction is $2,630.15.

We learn that Rev. W. T. Garraway, for some time pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of this place, has decided on changing his location. We understand that he has accepted a call from Utica, Pa.

The 4,000 Shakers in the United States are said to be worth $12,000,000. The Shakers are a sect of religious communists. As they never marry, the last fellow of that 4,000 will have a competence for his old age.—Bellevue Tribune.

A number of new names were placed on our subscription books last week, and several extra copies called for by non-subscribers for examination. What we want to do now is to place the SPIRIT in each home in the County. With the help of our friends we can do so.

An amendment to the Ohio law fixing the weight of a bushel of grain and other articles, fixes the weight of the following additional articles: Of tomatoes, fifty-six lbs.; of peaches, forty-eight pounds; of turnips, sixty pounds. It also makes sixty-eight pounds of corn in ear a bushel.

It is with pleasure that we learn L. M. Riley, of the St. Clairsville Gazette, has been enabled to save his paper from the Sheriff's hammer. He paid the amount due, and has brought suit against C. N. Gaumer, the former publisher, for breach of contract. Let justice be administered.

A number of stray cows were at large in the streets last week, and succeeded in forcing an entrance into private grounds, and doing considerable damage. If the owners can't keep them in their proper places, what is to hinder our Marshal from doing his duty? What's the use of having laws, unless they are enforced?

An exchange remarks, "A news paper may do a man a thousand favors and get a smile in return, while if it makes one divergence from the same fellow's ideas, he will give a thousand kicks, swear eternal enmity and withdraw his patronage; but the paper still continues publication, however.

Correct. Some people are built that way.

PERSONALIA.

Hon. Jas. H. Hamilton was in town Friday. J. T. Judkins, of Columbus, was here last week.

Mrs. S. L. Mooney is with Stenbockville for several days, but is now better. Mr. M. Thomas, of Round Bottom, was a visitor at our office Thursday.

Mrs. Jas. G. Rouse has been seriously ill for several days, but is now better. Mr. M. Thomas, of Round Bottom, was a visitor at our office Thursday.

Mrs. Davis, and daughter, Miss Laura, of Jerusalem, are with friends in town. Miss Amanda Kirkpatrick, and mother, of Beallsville, are guests at S. L. Mooney's.

Messrs. G. P., Wilcox and Theo. Haren, of Ozark, were recent visitors at the SPIRIT office. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hutchison, and little daughter, Artie, visited last week at C. E. Miller's.

Rev. W. T. Garraway, of the Presbyterian Church of this place, leaves with his family this week for their new home. Jas. A. Watson, Special Pension Examiner, has been located at Clarksburg, W. Va., and is getting along nicely.

F. Kasserman and C. Yonsey, of Sardis, two agreeable gentlemen, and old subscribers to the SPIRIT, were in to see us last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. DeNoon left for Fayette County, Pa., on last Friday, for a visit of a few weeks. Mr. DeNoon was born in Fayette County, and this is his first return in forty years.

Avril Judkins has resigned his position as Conductor on the B. & C. and will go to Columbus where he has accepted a position with the Merchants' Collecting and Reporting Agency.

Capt. S. Spangler attended the meeting of Presbytery at Bridgeport on last Thursday. This was a special meeting called for the purpose of supplying this charge with a minister. For the present a "supply" will fill the vacancy.

The farmers of Harrison County intend organizing a farmers' institute. A good idea. It is estimated that the wheat sown this year in Hancock County, this State, will reach one hundred thousand acres.

See the ad. of C. R. Dennis, Merchant Tailor of Zanesville, in the SPIRIT of this week. He has a fine stock and any one will do well to call and see him for anything in his line.

Only twenty million bushels of coal are on the barges at Pittsburg, awaiting a rise in the Ohio. This coal is worth twelve and a-half cents per bushel at Cincinnati, and will bring in round figures, two million five hundred thousand dollars.

The medical card of Dr. James Schwynn, of Berea, appears in this week's SPIRIT. Dr. Schwynn is a graduate of the University of Zurich, Switzerland, and of Heidelberg, Germany. He was formerly a partner of the well known Dr. Akerman, of Wheeling. The Doctor has recently located at Berea, where this county and we take pleasure in introducing him to the people of Monroe County.

The following is the official vote for Common Pleas Judge: BELMONT. St. Clair Kelley, 6474; J. B. Driggs, 5039.

MOSKOW. Kelley's majority, 1435; Driggs' majority, 1688.

JOHN B. DRIGGS, 3363; ST. CLAIR KELLEY, 1688. Driggs' majority, 1675; Kelley in the majority of 240 over Kelley in the two counties.

ILLUMINATION. A very creditable illumination took place on the square in front of the Court House last Thursday night, in honor of Judge J. B. Driggs. A pyramid of store boxes, barrels, and other inflammable material was formed, and when the torch was applied, the blaze illuminated all surrounding objects. Fire balls added to the general enjoyment. Everything was conducted with order and enthusiasm.

TRADE SUMMARY OF PAST WEEK. Collections were good. Money rates were easier. Money was abundant, and rates low.

In some sections, Dry Goods were active. Woolen goods brought stiff prices. The demand for wool fell off during the week. The strike element caused it.

Little or nothing was in done grain markets, and speculators were at a loss to know what to do. The situation has improved in iron markets. At Pittsburgh there was a good demand, and prices were well held up.

Hardware dealers report a slow trade. Little else was to be expected at this time. Manufacturers are preparing for next season.

The most stubborn cases of dyspepsia shift headache yield to the regulating and toning influences of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Mugwumps. Bohemian Oats won. Kelley met his Waterloo. We congratulate Judge Driggs on his election.

Boodie Bob Kennedy got there by the skin of his teeth. We move that a Skin Cane be presented to the faithful ones of the g. o. p.

The Republicans will now leave Monroe in the 15th. False encouragement. Warner has not lost his grip.—There are 2,116 voters in Monroe County who say so.

The Republican majority in Ohio was lowered from 30,000 to about 12,000 which is good enough, thank you. Monroe County played to the tune of 2,226 for Brown, for State School Commissioner. A good majority for an off year.

The Democrats of Belmont elected their Clerk and Auditor. Nobly done for a County always claimed as Republican. If Warner had carried this District. Where, oh, where would Monroe have been put? Against Vermont, most likely.

According to a prominent Republican in this town there are three classes of mugwumps. For further particulars inquire at headquarters. Two years ago Warner was defeated in Washington County by about 500 votes. This year his majority there was 180. Very flattering.

San. Piper, the popular, was defeated for Clerk in Belmont County. Piper, it will be remembered, resigned his position as postmaster at Barnesville to accept the nomination for Clerk.

Gov. Foraker at Marietta: "I am pleased to greet the people of Washington County. I trust I shall have the pleasure of meeting them again; but I don't want to come here by the way of dark Monroe. What have the Republicans of Monroe done?"

We heard of a prominent person in this town who talked, walked the streets, and pawed the earth in his attempts to gull Democrats into voting the Prohibition ticket. He, himself, walked up and voted the straight—Republican ticket. Oh, inconsistency thy name is—

OBITUARIES. MARY POWELL. DIED.—At the residence of her son, THOMAS, on the 22d of September, 1886, MARY POWELL, aged 45 years, 3 months and fourteen days. She was born in Pennsylvania, and came with her parents to Hiram, this county. She married Hiram Powell, and six children were born to them. Her husband and three children passed over the River before she herself was called. Mrs. Powell was a member in good standing of the Christian Church. She is remembered as a good friend and a loving mother.

JANE ELLIOTT. Miss JANE ELLIOTT, of Ozark, was called from the earth to rest on Oct. 21, 1886, in the 30th year of her age. She united with the M. E. Church, of this place about 4 years ago, since which time she has lived in the upright and Christian life. Although a large portion of her time was spent in Washington County, Pa., and other distant places, on her visits there she always expressed her faith in Christ. She returned home for the last time in her life, with the mark of the destroyer plainly written on her face, and she was declining with that dread disease, consumption. She bore her affliction without a murmur, and her only desire was that she might die in the full triumph of living faith. She always had a word of advice to everyone who called on her—that was to live for Jesus. She leaves a widowed mother, three sisters and one brother to mourn for her. She requested them not to sorrow for her, but prepare to meet her around God's throne, in heaven.

Mrs. PEBBIE J. LUTHY, wife of STOKES LUTHY, died at her residence in Green township, Monroe County, Ohio, October 20, 1886. She was a faithful and efficient member of the M. E. Church, and while her light was shining brightly for the Master, she was suddenly called to her reward, the palm, the harp, the crown. She will be sadly missed in the church and community. But it is in the lonely, desolate home that hearts are bowed most heavily over this sad bereavement. A kind husband, two bright little boys and an affectionate sister sorrow most of all, that they see her face no more; but their sorrow is without hope, and they will cherish as their richest legacy, her bright and sunny life, to them so full of delightful and cherished memories. "Drop not in sorrow, depend not in fear. A glorious reward is brightening near. When blessed reward to each faithful endeavor."

Mrs. W. H. RUTHER. For fourteen years Thomas Hebdan, an old Englishman, lived in a little shanty in Portland, Oregon, apparently very poor. The other day he was found dead, evidently having starved to death. In a box in a corner, carefully concealed, were $1,400. It is reported that Mike Kelly, the famous Kelly of the Chicago White Stockings, will not play next season, because he has made over $100,000 speculating in wheat. It is a good while between now and spring, and if Kelly sticks to wheat he may be mighty glad to play ball next season or do anything else to make a living.

NOW IT IS $120,000. A CLUE TO THE ADAMS EXPRESS ROBBERY FOUND. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—As the days pass the amount stolen from the Adams Express car on the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad last Monday night, grows with alarming rapidity. First it was said to be $50,000, then $70,000, then $80,000, and to-day, from the facts gleaned from the different shippers of money by the Adams Company on Monday, the amount is estimated to be at least $100,000, and may aggregate $120,000. Manager Weir was seen last evening, and said to a reporter that the best detective talent that could be found was working upon the case, but that there were so many clues as to who perpetrated the robbery that it was difficult to select from among them. The threads of evidence were numerous, but they were gradually being woven together and they expected to hear from their agents in a day or two. Later in the evening Mr. Weir received advice which caused his hasty departure from the city. Where he went none on the outside knows and the company's officers refused to say. Mr. Damsel, manager of the St. Louis office, said that important news had called him away and that they had at last struck the right clue. They were sure of their man and he would soon be arrested. As to the robber's whereabouts or identity nothing could be learned.

Baby Heeter of Trenton, O., who was 20 months old, weighed 85 pounds, measured 33 inches around the chest, 30 at the waist, and 25 around the thigh, is dead. He had always been an apparently healthy child, but died of fatty degeneration of the heart. A North Tokoma, W. T., Indian had his first glass of soda water the other day, and liked it so much that he at once proceeded to putninteen more on top of it. The next day he drank thirty-three more, and wanted to keep it up, but the druggist was afraid that he'd explode and stopped the supply.

Rheumatism

It is an established fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven an invaluable remedy in many cases of rheumatism, effecting remarkable cures by its powerful action in correcting the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of the disease, and purifying and enriching the vital fluids. It is certainly fair to assume that what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others it will do for you. Therefore, if you suffer the pains and aches of rheumatism, give this potent remedy a fair trial.

A Positive Cure. "I was troubled very much with rheumatism in my hips, ankles, and wrists. I could hardly walk, and was confined to my bed a good deal of the time. Being recommended to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, I took four bottles and an perfectly well. I cheerfully recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as one of the best blood purifiers in the world." W. F. Wood, Bloomington, Ill.

For Twenty Years I have been afflicted with rheumatism. Before 1853 I found no relief, but grew worse. I then began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it did me more good than all the other medicine I ever had." H. T. BALCOM, Shirley, Mass. "I suffered from what the doctors called menial rheumatism. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and an entirely cured." J. V. A. PROFFOR, letter carrier, Chicago, Ill. Burned to Death. A little 8-year old daughter of a man named Kemple, who lives about two miles below Benwood, near McMechen, was burned to death. The family left home some time during the day, leaving the child alone in the house. As dusk approached, the child started to light a fire in the stove, and to make it ignite quickly she started to pour kerosene upon the wood. In some manner the oil caught fire and exploded, igniting the clothing of the girl, and burning her so badly that she died about midnight the same night, after suffering great agony.—Bellevue Tribune.

A Powerful Weapon. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—It is now positively known that Wm. Cramp & Sons have made arrangements to construct a dynamite gun cruiser for the government which will be capable of running 20 knots an hour; and of firing a 300 pound dynamite shell every two minutes. The vessel is to cost not more than $350,000, but should it fail to meet the requirements of the contract when finished the contractors must refund the amount expended by the government. It is said that on account of this requirement the contract has gone begging for six months past. The dynamite projectile to be used is thrown from a long steel tube. By means of the sudden release of compressed air being admitted there is no shock but an immense velocity is attained before the shell leaves the muzzle, and at a range of two miles the accuracy of the gun is said to be remarkable. The cartridge consists of a thin copper can of the diameter of the bore of the gun, containing 200 pounds of dynamite, and attached to it a long wooden shaft which steadies the flight of the shell as the stick does that of a rocket.
