COURT.

Court opened in Logan on Monday, Judge Friesner presiding. No cases of public interest have yet been tried.

The Grand Jury was organized by the appointment of Benjamin White as Foreman. Considerable business is before this body, but the result of their deliberations have not yet been made public.

Rev. Mr. Hart went out in the woods yesterday and selected three trees which he proposes planting this fall on the school grounds, to the memory of three Logan teachers.

Rev. Mr. Mellen, a Congregational Minister, twenty years a Missionary among the Zulus, now residing in Columbus, O., will deliver a lecture on the Zulus and other South African Tribes, in the Presbyterian Church tomorrow (Friday) evening.

Decoration Day.

The Grand Army will take in hand the ceremonies on Decoration Day. Committees have been appointed for the various purposes.

Those having soldiers buried whose graves are not marked, are requested to report to Comrade Wolfe, so that in the Decoration now to be missed.

The Logan school class of 1884 have favored us with a polite invitation to attend the commencement on May 30th, for which we return thanks.

The class motto is "For Honored Life an Honored Close." The following are the class: Misses Alma H. McCarthey, Jessie McBride, Kate Weitzell, Jessie Bishop, Mary Isaminger, Emma K. Frasch, Mary Clark, Will H. Gould, Harry S. Shotwell, John M. White, Mert F. Smith, John A. Smith.

The storm of Monday blew down a part of the gable end of Smith's School House, two miles east of town, slightly injuring a couple of children.

Mr. Albert Donaldson, one of the popular young Attorneys of New Lexington, is attending court this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Jackson, of Longstreeth, very agreeably entertained Mrs. R. W. Chamberlain, Mrs. Adam Kline and Miss Alice Doan, at their residence on Thursday last week.

Gen. Harmon of Baltimore was in the city this week laying out plans for a brilliant summer campaign, through the medium of the advertising columns of the Sentinel.

Mr. Geo. Moeckle left with his family yesterday for Ft. Pleasant, where he will engage with the Furniture Co. Mr. Moeckle is one of our best young mechanics and we regret to see him leave Logan. He has our best wishes for good luck in his new home.

Treasurer West, who has been quite sick for several days with malaria, is well enough to be out attending to the duties of his office.

Mr. Robert Maublin, the popular and efficient Stewart of the Athens Asylum, visited in Logan on last Saturday.

We present some new laws passed by the late Legislature, which will be of interest to the public. Business men will find a law of interest to them on the outside of this issue.

Squire Riason, of Laurelville, is in the city this week attending court.

Steward Robert Hamblin, of the Athens Asylum, has our thanks for substantial evidences of good feeling for the Sentinel.

Mr. John Lorentz, formerly of our county, but for some years past a citizen of Texas and New Mexico, disgusted with the Greaser Indians and the Cow Boys, has returned to Logan to spend his remaining days. Mr. Lorentz is in the 83d year of his age and in good health and spirits.

The Falls Mills.

This reliable flouring mill, having undergone complete repair, is again in operation. The mill is a great convenience to farmers and with many of our dealers, the flour is a favorite.

We have tested some of the flour and it certainly is up to the highest standard, and for keeping qualities is far superior to that made by the roller process.

Starr Township Items.

Ed. SENTINEL.—We are at present having a very wet time, and, of course, farmers are behind with their work; but what they lose is made up by the splendid growing showers. No corn has yet been planted in this section. Potatoes are ready to hoe, and the prospects now are that we will have an abundant crop of apples, but no peaches.

Talk about your good sheep; but Mr. Alfred Souders of Honey Creek, has the best yearling of this section, his fleece weighing seventeen pounds, and only a yearling. Think of it.

Coal and Iron Syndicate.

The officers of the Columbus and Hocking Valley Coal and Iron Company met Saturday in their rooms in the Desher block to complete arrangements for starting their furnaces in the Hocking valley. It was reported by Mr. Buchtel that the miners are generally satisfied with the agreement made at Straitsville in relation to the furnace mines. The furnaces at Gore and Crafts will therefore start about June 15th, if not sooner. The starting of the furnaces will furnish over two hundred men with employment, and will therefore give work in the valley a boom.

New Bishops.

The National M. E. Conference at Philadelphia, has chosen four new bishops, viz: Rev. John M. Walden, Rev. William X. Ninds, Rev. Chas. H. Fowler, and Rev. Willard F. Malinien.

The selections are regarded as very satisfactory to the whole church. All of them are comparatively young men.

A post office has recently been established at Black Jack. This will be a great convenience to people living in that neighborhood. The mails will arrive tri-weekly. The route from Logan to Haynes will be extended to Adelphi, July 1st.

Mr. Jack Wright, son of our esteemed friend, Judge Silas H. Wright, was one of a class of 44 who were before the Supreme Court Tuesday and Wednesday for admission to the bar. It is a pleasure to know that Jack stood second in the 21 who were admitted, and we have no hesitancy in predicting that he will make a forcible, brilliant and successful lawyer, and reflect ample credit on his honored and illustrious sire.—Lancaster Republican.

To My Patrons.

Expecting to remove my Dental Office to Nelsonville, I desire all patrons with whom I have contracts for work to call at once and have them completed, otherwise they will be done at Nelsonville.

I also wish to settle all accounts that may be standing. Thanking the people of Logan for past favors, I will be happy to attend to all who call at my new location.

Yank McCarthy invites the people attending Court to call at his Restaurant and enjoy the good things he keeps for the public accommodation. His lunch table is supplied with the most desirable articles of food and his side-board is furnished with the most complete assortment of the very best liquors in the city.—Yank's place is orderly and quickly conducted. He makes a specialty of fine liquors and cigars, and guarantees satisfaction to all his patrons. Call and see him.

Official Visit.

The Hocking Infirmary Directors visited the Perry Infirmary last Friday, and adjusted satisfactorily some business matters between the two boards. They found the Infirmary in good condition, everything in the institution being clean and orderly.

The outside surroundings was thought to be not in good taste and keeping with a county institution. They report the farm in excellent condition, the best wheat of the season.

They desire to return thanks to Superintendent Nixon and the Directors for courtesy and attention shown them during their visit.

They desire to especially thank Dr. Bright, now a resident of New Lexington, who devoted himself heartily to their entertainment. Also to the editors of Herald and Tribune, Messrs. Rattall, Ferguson, Max, Aid, and Inkerson, as Mr. Dr. says, "all the gentlemen we met for the red hatred feeling manifested toward us."

The Directors hope to have a return visit from the Perry officials, promising them, in which we heartily join, a hearty welcome and kind attention from the Hocking Haul Eaters.

As to Eggs.

Some time ago the Border News published a statement that Nels Armstrong had a hen which hatched fourteen chickens from ten eggs. We could only account for this at the time on the theory that Nels didn't count his chickens until after they were hatched. We know how it is possible now.

Yesterday we were shown "an egg" which Aunt Bragg's hen laid that explains the mystery and untangles to our mind the yarn of the Border News. The two eggs are of usual size, the shell is not perfect, and are connected by an open tube of about a quarter of an inch in diameter. The contents of the two eggs thus united seem to intermingled with each other, and make a plain case of twins.

Wonders never cease. Bro's. Barleon and Eversole both know this, and will no doubt be delighted to hear that even the hens of Hocking are imitating illustrious editorial example.

Therefore be it
