

THE HOCKING SENTINEL

Donovan—Artistic Tailor. FOR RENT—Store-rooms, offices, and dwellings. Call on or address F. F. Rempel, Logan Ohio.

Amusements. Rempels Opera House (F. A. Koppe Mgr.)—Pinafore's Bill Dec 21st. Marriage a la mode Dec 21st.

Local and Personal. Come in, pay you SUBSCRIPTION and sleep well. Mr A G Magoon has purchased and moved into the Henderson property on the cor of 1st and Walnut Sts.

Important Meeting. There will be a meeting at the Court House, in Logan, Saturday Dec. 30th, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of creating a sentiment against the Workman law and circulating a petition for its repeal.

A RECITAL. The Logan High School will give a Literary and Musical Recital at the Presbyterian Church, Friday Evening, Dec. 22, beginning at 7.30 o'clock. Admission 15 cents.

Trustee's Sale of Personal Property. The undersigned trustee in trust for the benefit of the creditors of The Bank of New Straitsville, will offer for sale at public auction at New Straitsville, O., on Saturday, January, 27, A. D. 1894.

Do You Want A Sewing Machine? Then you want the best, and you want to pay only what the Machine is worth.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

Senator Conkle of near Big Pine, in an altercation on Monday last week with a neighbor named Childers, was shot in the arm. The wound is not dangerous. No arrests.

On last Monday the boiler of a steam corn crusher operated by Mr. Kneipe and Son, of near Ticeston, exploded, killing both the men instantly, the father dying in a few hours.

The home of William Fetheroff, of Perry Township, was burglarized on last Thursday night, by three men, neighbor boys. The old man was badly injured. About $100.00 of money was taken. The burglars were captured the next day and are in jail. Their names are Helgas, two brothers, and their cousin, Will Stump. The matter will come before the grand jury, and we foresee any particulars for the present.

Mr. J. P. Rochester and family have removed to Columbus, where they will make their home during the term of office for which Mr. Rochester has been elected.

Mr. Rochester and family take with them the best wishes of their many friends for a pleasant, happy time in the Capital City.

LOTHROP PUBLICATIONS. We present, in this issue, the prospectus of the BABY LAND, LITTLE MEN AND WOMEN and PANTS.

These publications are the finest of their class, and are constantly growing in public favor. They are comparatively cheap, and for little folks are the choicest in the country.

Important Meeting. There will be a meeting at the Court House, in Logan, Saturday Dec. 30th, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of creating a sentiment against the Workman law and circulating a petition for its repeal.

A RECITAL. The Logan High School will give a Literary and Musical Recital at the Presbyterian Church, Friday Evening, Dec. 22, beginning at 7.30 o'clock. Admission 15 cents.

Trustee's Sale of Personal Property. The undersigned trustee in trust for the benefit of the creditors of The Bank of New Straitsville, will offer for sale at public auction at New Straitsville, O., on Saturday, January, 27, A. D. 1894.

Do You Want A Sewing Machine? Then you want the best, and you want to pay only what the Machine is worth.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

The Christmas Number of Harper's Bazar, published December 18th, will contain the Picture of "Angeline," by Eva Wilton, Mrs. Glasson, with an illustration by A. B. Frost; "Christmas Geese," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, a humorous and striking story of the season, illustrated by J. Macdonald; "Our Sunday at Haverth," a sketch by Marion Harland, describing a recent visit to the home of the Brontes; "Christmas Gifts for Old and Young," by Clara Banner, fully illustrated; and an admirable Christmas miscellany. The Fashion articles and designs are, as usual, strong and full of variety.

Christmas is Coming! Live Business Men Are Here!

Holiday Invitations, Special Bargains offered by Logan Business Men Hocking County people.

Rochester & Sons store is just full of nice goods for the Holiday Trade. Iron Stone Dinner Set, 101 pieces Blue Decoration $9.75 at Stiers & Co.

Go to Martin Bros, and have them make you one dozen of their Cameo Enamelled Photos for Christmas.

If you want a handsome Christmas present for your best girl, just see N. J. Weiland before you make up your mind.

Dolls, Albums, Toilet Cases, Work Boxes, Fancy Hk's, Silk Hk's, muffs, ice wool shawls and china ware at Rochester and Sons.

Martin Bros, have the latest thing out in the way of their Cameo Enamelled Photos. Prettiest thing you ever saw.

Library lamps from $1.00 to $2.00 good values, Stiers & Co. We have them, everything in our line, a faller supply for less money than ever before, come and examine my complete stock. T. E. Baker, cor. Main and high.

You didn't know that O C Pierce is offering the finest line of premiums ever brought into the town, useful articles.

A C Tipton will have the finest line of Candies, Fruits and nuts for the Holidays in the Valley.

Soup that's hot Soup that's not Soup that's made of We know what, Yes oysters and the best of them, made by J N Kessler, the best caterer in Logan.

Are you going away? Well so am I, only you will need a trunk and a valise, which John S. Sanderson can supply you with before he goes to east room of the I O O F building.

No matter how fast you drive or how long you carry it, you're not complete without a set of harness and handsome laprobe and whip, which you can surely get cheapest in the city at L. Warner's.

12 Piece Chamber sets in grey, brown and blue decoration for $5.00, Stiers & Co. You have never seen a finer coffee pot than the one I'm making a specialty of, for a Christmas gift, cheap. Come and examine it, T. E. Baker.

Come and see the fruit plates, fruit saucers, cracker jars, all kinds of useful and ornamental articles, silver knives and forks, spoons etc. at Rochester & Sons.

The Reber store is open and wishing to turn their goods into cash will sell everything below wholesale prices.

6 Piece Chamber sets Decorated in grey, brown and blue $2.85 all large size pieces, Stiers & Co. Did you ever try it? That Old Manse maple syrup at A C Tipton's, nothing better on your hot buck-wheat cakes.

Don't fail to see Brown Bros, new line of men's furnishings.

A fall and unbroken line of under wear at way down prices, at F. Blasius & Son, Logan Ohio.

Semi porcelain dinner set, 101 pieces in either brown, grey or blue decoration, $12.50. Odd pieces to match the above. Stiers & Co.

Who is the most popular grocer in Logan? It doesn't take long for you to tell you O C Pierce, nor will it take you long to decide we are right.

We are here for that purpose! To save you money and give you bargains in any price suit or overcoat you want. F. Blasius and Son.

Semi porcelain set 101 pieces. Brown, grey or green decorations with gold band for only $14.00, equal to any set sold for $18.00, at Stiers & Co. Just see O C Pierce, when you go to buy your Xmas candies etc.

Here's Good News.

We've often thought, while watching the feminine throngs about our place, "What would the Dry Goods business amount to if it wasn't for the ladies?" Equal pertinent, however, is the natural retort: "What would the ladies do if it wasn't for the Dry Goods men?"

We do our share in the mutual benefit business by offering this week THESE MAGNIFICENT BARGAINS At 25c, reduced from 50c: 1 lot of all wool Home Spun, Striped Camels Hair and Small Cheeks, in Blue, Tan and Light Grey.

At 37 1/2c, reduced from 57 1/2c: 1 Lot of all wool, two tone effects in Blue and Brown, Green and Brown, Garret and Green and Grey and White.

At 50c, reduced from 57 1/2c and 59c: 1 Lot of all wool Serge, Diagonals and Cashmeres in Brown, Blue and Green.

At 80c, reduced from $1.20: 1 Lot of silk and Wool Novelties in Black and Old Rose, Black and Heliotrope, and Black and Old Rose.

These are only a part of a part of the good things we are offering in Dress Goods this week. Come in and look at them.

Stiers & Co. The mammoth establishment of Col Rempel, known throughout the Valley as the Bazar, is just now assuming a holiday appearance, and the eye on first entrance is unable to comprehend the beauty and quality of the new goods being placed on sale.

Hard times is not to be found in the Colonel's lexicon, and those who visit his rooms forget all about the tariff, protection and such clap-trap and view with astonishment the Christmas goods gathered from every clime under the sun.

Lovers of the beautiful who desire to feast their eyes upon great splendor and magnificence will do well to visit the Bazar, where the Colonel in person and a full corps of gentlemanly and lady clerks will do the agreeable.

The Old Corner Store of the Colonel in charge of Mr. Samuel Rempel, and Tommy Whterfast, will be found headquarters for the farmers, and all who desire a free and easy time.

The grocery department is complete, and candies and toys for the little people can be found there in a abundance besides a "speak easy" attachment where the inner man can be supplied with the good things to make the holidays what they should be is not overlooked, so that Colonel Rempel, at his two stores, can furnish everything needed for the Holiday season.

Bring your pictures and have them framed at wholesale cost—Reber's. C. G. Webb, and Bro., wishes their patrons to know that they will kill extra good cattle for their Holiday trade, and will be found with a constant supply of the best of every thing in their line on hands, Fresh and Salt meats of all kinds, Poultry, oysters, celery and game in season.

John Ucker, the city butcher will maintain the well earned reputation of his shop during the coming festival season, and his customers are assured that the best of fresh and salt meats, oysters and seasonable vegetables can be obtained to make the season a joyous one.

What is the use of going blindly through the world when you can see 100 per cent better when you purchase a pair of Weiland's spectacles. There is no risk run. We guarantee our glasses.

Now is the time to get a pair of Dr. King's Celebrated Combination Spectacles—Only $1.00. Sold the world over for $1.75. Reber's, 2 doors east of Court House.

Elegant articles for Christmas presents, such as a pair of Gloves, silk and Linen handkerchiefs, Neck wear, silk suspenders at Brown Bros.

ONLY $1.00 for Dr. King's Combination Spectacles—Come early and have your eyes properly fitted. This price only lasts as long as the present stock holds out. Reber's Drug and Jewelry Store.

Feed cutters, Coal Vases and coal Buckets, Lap Robes, Horse Blankets, Doors and Sash, And all Kinds of Builder's Hardware.

Hardware! Hardware! Hardware! Hardware!

CHAS. BECKER, Fresh Building, Main Street, Logan, Ohio.

CHAS. BECKER, Fresh Building, Main Street, Logan, Ohio.

FALL IS HERE!

SEASONS Come and Go, but, ROCHESTERS

Remain all the time. Now that the winter is coming, we are better prepared to give every customer due attention. When you want FALL AND WINTER Goods, oil Cloths, Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Only New Goods, at Reasonable

Prices. Eatables, Groceries, Various Sundries, Everything in Furnishings, notions General Merchandise, &c. our stock is kept full of new clean stock all the time, and it will afford us pleasure to show you through our stock. We do not advertise a Paralyzing Sacrifice Sale, but we Guarantee Our Prices as low as Good Goods and Honest Dealing will permit them to be sold.

We Will not take time and space to name prices, but we will guarantee them satisfactory.

Thankful for past liberal patronage we solicit a continuance of the same.

ROCHESTER SONS.

They Come! They See, and They are Captivated.

Our reasonable new styles, our peerless qualities and our matchless prices together with the most intensive and varied assortment of strictly new Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Caps. These are the Magnates that draw the crowds to our store. These are the grand Electrical Displays that the people prefer to see, and these are shining lights that we hold up as inducements that make us worthy of your confidence and entitle us to your patronage.

Men's Suits and Overcoats. $8 buys a good Suit or Overcoat, well lined, well made, and calculated to give good service, and the same suit of clothes would cost you not less than $10.00 elsewhere.

$10 buys a handsome suit and overcoat, cut according to the latest fashions, tailored in the best possible manner, perfect in fit, and equal in every particular to garments that would cost 12 and 14 dollars elsewhere.

$15 buys the finest of Suits and overcoats fit for gentlemen in any walk of life wear.

Boy's Suits and Overcoats. $1.25 buys good wearing Suits or Overcoats. $1.50 buys good wearing Suits or Overcoats. $2.00 buys a boy's Suits or Overcoats. $2.50 buys a boy's suit or overcoat that will successfully resist the efforts of that boy of yours to wear it out side of six months.

A grand assortment at all popular prices.

Chas. Rose, STRICTLY ONE PRICE Clothier!